ERIC CONVENTION.—Continued from 2nd page.

was monopoly, and the enormous burden upon the people, and that the National Bank circulation be promptly and permanently retired, and full legal tenders be issued in their place.

Full Legal Tenders Wanted to be Receivable for all Public Dues.

10th. The extinction of the present National Bank and the establishment in its stead of a system of free banks of discounts and deposits, under such regulations as the States respectively may prescribe, and no paper money except such as may be issued directly by and upon the faith of the Federal Government, affording practically a currency based on the gold and silver of the country.

11th. That with this declaration of principles and policy we arrange the leaders of the Republican party for their extravagant expenditures and profligate waste of the people's money; for their corruption; for their contempt of Constitutional obligations; for their extortionate increase of our salaries as public officers; for their oppressive, unjust and defective system of taxation, finance and currency; for their management of incompetent and corrupt men in office, and for their mismanagement of both the State and Federal Governments, and we cordially invite the Liberal Republicans and all other men without regard to party associations, to co-operate with us in expelling them from power, and in securing such an administration of our public affairs as characterized the purer and better days of the Republic.

Discussion on the Platform.

Mr. Steiner of Lehigh offered an amendment to strike out sections eight, nine and ten with a proposition to insert other resolutions. These propositions received a storm of votes.

Mr. Hughes moved to lay the proposed amendments on the table and called for the previous question.

A vote was taken on the motion to lay the amendments on the table and adopted by 102 yeas to 89 nays.

The Platform Adopted by an Overwhelming Majority.

Another vote was then taken on the previous question and the resolutions as printed adopted.

The vote resulted in yeas, 102 yeas, 79 nays.

The Result Received with deafening Applause.

The announcement of the adoption of the platform by so large a majority was received with thundering applause, which lasted some minutes.

The nominations for candidate for governor then followed. The names of the eighteen candidates were offered, and the ballot resulted as follows:

A TANK STRUCK BY LIGHTNING—10,000 BARRIELS OF OIL BURNED.

Oil City, Pa., September 10.—At six o'clock this morning, the lightning struck the tank containing 10,000 barrels of oil. The tank contained about 10,000 barrels of oil, and the fire immediately ignited, and owing to a strong north wind prevailing at the time, the fire spread rapidly over the entire works.

The tank was in oil, both crude and refined, and the fire was nearly forty thousand barrels, and on the buildings and machinery and iron tankage will not fall short of two hundred thousand dollars, and which there is no insurance.

The oil works were at the most extensive and most perfect in the country, and will be almost entirely destroyed.
