Away from the tender Shepherd's care "Lord. Thou hast here Thy ninety and nine Are they not enough for Thee ? But the Shepherd made answer:

Far off from the gates of gold. Away on the mountains wild and bare, mine Has wandered away from me ; And although the road be rough and steep, I go to the desert to find my sheep. But none of the ransomed ever knew How deep were the waters crossed ; Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through, 'Ere He found His sheep that was lost. Out in the desert He heard its cry, Sick and helpless, and ready to die.

"Lord, whence are those blood tracks all the That mark out the mountain's track ?" They were shed for one who had gone astray 'Ere the Shepherd could bring him back."

"They are pierced to-night by many a thorn," And all thro' the mountains, thunder riven, And up from the rocky steep, There rose a cry to the gate of heaven, Rejoice! I have found my sheep! And the angels echoed around the throne, for the Lord brings back His own!" - Moody and Sankey's Hymn.

WILD ROSE OF CAPE COD. Nearly all the roses in Massachusetts December, and on Cape Cod, too.

wasn't much of a celebration, to be sure, for there weren't many persons to celebrate it—only Mrs. Rose and Johnny, and Wild herself, for Captain Rose was gone on a fishing trip.

At tea that night there was upon the Wild's voice reached him, and wanted table a big load of ginger-cake-frosted, to know what was the matter. too-and around about it-not on it, mind you—twelve small tallow candles.

"Twelve dips," Johnny said, "that made as much light as the Highland itself." And Johnny ought to know, for the keeper of Cape Cod light is a great lets the lad go up with him to see him

This Highland light stands out on the bleak cape, and is oftentimes the first light that greets the sight of seamen when approaching the coast of New England from over the Atlantic ocean.

Even in summer the wind blows so hollow in the sand, and is protected on all sides by a high fence to keep the sand from covering it up. In the first place the house had been built upon spiles driven into the sand, but the fence was afterwards added, and outside of the fence was a barricade of seaweed. Over the stilts, fence, sea weed and all was the fisher man's cabin, as sang and the fence was a barricade of seaweed. Over the stilts, fence, sea weed and all was the fisher man's cabin, as sang and the fence was a ferroman's cabin, as sang and the fisher man's cabin, as sang and the fisher man and two hundred and sixty-one women insane. These causes, which present such dissimilarity, have one band of union; they affect the emotion-al part of the physical nature. From the fishing fleet. Johnny declared that he must go to the nearest neighbor's house. He knew the way well enough; but it was after nine o'clock before he set forth. was the fisherman's cabin, as snug and warm and comfortable as anywhere on Peter Petit, and the two lads spent the more largely developed, and thus more Cape Cod could be. Not far away on the Atlantic coast was a charity house, not a poorhouse where poor folks could go and live when they hadn't anywhere else to live, but a rude room, inclosed by a rude outside, into which a poor shipwrecked mariner might crawl and possibly keep himself from freezing to wisest grown-up man in the world who see the signal on the Little Katie; it was lives inland.

into the hollow and walked in without knocking at the cabin door, to inquire how Mrs. Rose was getting on, and to eay yet again: "Cape Cod has seen harder times than this, Mrs. Rose. Keep up a stout heart, and we'll have front of a blazing drift wood fire and the fleet safe into Providence harbor beate like a giant, and got up to go to the ould put on a bright look and say, in a light with Johnny to learn the news. The two children set off in high glee. followed on. It seemed to her, as she The sky was clear, and the wind was lrew near the shore, that half the inlighthouse was not more than a mile away, and what could happen to the children? Nevertheless, Mrs. Rose journey when Wild came upon the scene. gave them many commands. They were to return as soon as they found out

The wind helped them on their way, and, to write the exact truth, blew so half a dozen hard and so fast, that it came very near

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1875.

Items of Interest.

Lawyers generally practice what they preach; but then they are paid for the

As viewed from Goat island, Niagara

The American board of foreign missions is behind $200,000 for the year

Somebody has observed that "the more girls are pinned back the more forward they seem."

A block of Straitsville (O.) coal weighing five tons will be taken to the Phila-

An Allentown (Pa.) young woman's six grandmothers have the bad taste to continue in existence.

"You must not put a counterfeit nickel in this box," said a street car driver. "It is not fare."

The low origin of a person is forgotten in a measure when a great amou of his money is looked at.

closing August 31.

Kentucky ladies go fox hunsing. The best pocket companion-A full

VOL. VIII.

NO. 38.

Lord, whence are Thy hands so rent and are born in June, but Wild, the little daughter of John Rose, was born in I was in too much of a hurry; but some

Well, on Cape Cod, as I said, Wild Rose was born; but that was twelve after dark, and the snow and sand were years ago, so, this last December, was celebrated her twelfth birthday. It wasn't much of a celebration, to be sure, hard at the Highland that it blows the wings of young turkeys over their heads, and in winter it blows nobody knows down into his warm bed again.

women, a difference of more than three to one; religious excitement acts as the cause in seventy-nine men and one nundown into his warm bed again.

He didn't speak, and poor Wild thought he held her scheme in extreme ence of sixty-two per cent.; nostalgia.

cossibly keep himself from freezing to it?" she cried, running out to him. ing to the same cases as above, we find the number of women to be 3,220, the and matches and straw are supposed to be kept in every charity house along the he was all over the pet, and was in high and yet there are 1,032 cases of malan-Johnny Rose was two years younger than his only sister Wild, but a ten year-old lad on Cape Cod knows more of the sea and ships and fishing than the wisest grown-up man in the world who lives inland.

The Little Katie was Captain Rose's even had the wind been right. from the land up the bank above the the boys set forth, accompanied by five went rasping away with firm bows and per, and was covered with messages to good intent at the ice day after day in the captain of the Little Katie, or any their own surprise they entered into the ng left to est and wood direction.

"Run home, laddie", and get your also of getting free of the ice without sinking.

Now and then a neighbor came down

Johnny and Peter, about eleven of the

And then Mrs. Rose coast again.

Wild didn't see why she couldn't go, cheery voice, "Oh, I hope so," but in her heart she feared all things, for did she not know that every dwelling about the Little Katie as any of them on Cape Cod had its widow sooner or later?"

Wild dant take why she contain too, too. It was her father just as much as Johnny's, and she cared as much about the Little Katie as any of them did. And so Wild, bundled up until all resemblance to a twelve-year-old At last there came a day when Mrs. girl was lost, set forth, toiling thr Wild might go to the the snow and sand to the coast short distance in the rear, Mrs. Wild blowing from the west. The Highland habitants of the next village were gath "Don't you see, there won't be anything to catch hold of?" she said to what news from Little Katie, and, if it should snow, they were to go back or forward, whichever way should be the who felt that he could not, in justice, nearer, and, if near the coast, they ere te go to the charity house in the bank, and wait there for rescue.

despite Wild's suggestions any more.

"I'll show you," she said, "if you'll hold on a minute. Tie some long strings,

The strings were tied on, half a dozen blowing them past the lighthouse over of them, at intervals, and away went the high bank into the ocean.

can while we can see," said Johnny, seizing Wild's hand and bowing to the wind. "We're three-quarters home and the wind carried their voices across the talking in your sleep?"

"Send a kite over!" suggested Wild, men and two hundred and fifty-six women, a difference of more than three He didn't speak, and poor Wild

I am quite certain you never saw a home like Wild Rose's home. It is hidden away in the very bottom of a big hollow in the sand, and is protected on

The Little Katie was Captain Rose's fishing schooner, and the Little Katie was frozen fast in the ice right in sight right, and almost at the break of day out from Lime Rock lighthouse in the lower Newport harbor and rescuing a man from drowning recalls the earlier achievements which have given her the the ice held the fishing boats and would not let them go. Stout little steam tugs to the kite was made of good stout pa
The kite was made of good stout pa
The kite was made of good stout pa
"The kite was made of good stout pa"The kite was made of good stout pa-" She first came into prominence in went rasping away with firm bows and good intent at the ice day after day in order to break it up and tow the boats out of danger, but the cold came down stronger than ever and knit the ice cake firmer and firmer. Every day, Like went high above the hundled up until he looked like the men paying out the seine twine; but alas! the kite went high above the hundled up until he looked like the men paying out the seine twine; but alas! the kite went high above the latting days ever a soldier of a soldier who had started for a sail on the harbor in a light skiff. One day, in the autumn of 1867, while a terrible gale was raging, two men set out to cross the harbor with saveral sheep, and in trying to rescue two men set out to cross the harbor with several sheep, and in trying to rescue through the "glass" at his father's bound shore, but the novelty of it schooner, and, every night for two brought a crowd of men to the spot. To peril from the window of her father's point and the several sheep, and in trying to rescue one that had fallen overboard, came near swamping their boat; seeing their poarts of the several sheep, and in trying to rescue one that had fallen overboard, came near swamping their boat; seeing their poarts of the several sheep, and in trying to rescue one that had fallen overboard, came near swamping their boats are several sheep, and in trying to rescue one that had fallen overboard, came near swamping their boats are several sheep. near swamping their boat; seeing their peril from the window of her father's lighthouse, Miss Lewis went to their tion of the wind, he came back with the good news, "No signal up yet." morning failed. The kite fell short, or "No signal up yet" meant that there flew too high, or went off in the wrong greatest exploit was performed on the greatest exploit was performed on the 29th of March, 1869, when a boat containing two young soldiers and a boy was struck by a squall on the harbor and overturned. Though ill at the inched her life-boat, sprang in, with either hat on her head nor shoes on her save the two sailors as they were about losing their hold from exhaustion, the boy having meanwhile perished, and m to the lightl Lewis should be among the first to receive the new decoration to be bestowed

The New York Independent has the following: The Oberlin doctrine of "a revival of righteousness" is one which we heartily believe in and have tried to support. They have been having just such a revival in an Ohio town, if we can judge from the following letter lately received at this office:

—, Ohio, Aug. 17, 1875.

My Dear Sir: Some years ago I took the New York Independent, and there is now an old account on your tury. books against me. I have given myself to God unconditionally. Make up my account, and the usual interest that you have to pay for money up to this time. I think I can send you the money in a Very truly yours,

We wish that a similar religious expe rience might be had by some few of the readers of this paper. This is what we alyze the tables of Dr. Kirkbride relating to the same cases as above, we find people could increase the conscience and if they only would. und if they only would.

A DEFAULTING OFFICIAL.

Army regulations are to be altered so the tone or manner of men.

The Pall Mall Gazette defends the ide of the ocean.

Would you think that Gideon Welles,

Conn., has the original deed of the farm on which he lives, and which has been vessel for straining milk which was used by his ancestors in the seventeenth cen-

Eccentric Will-Makers. quaintance called upon him one day and Some Wonderful Tricks Performed by the Why Should They be Laid on the Shell for

Company of the property of a limit from recommendation of finals. The critics among district of finals. The critics among a construction of the state of the state land, and the tramps who go about the woman permit any kind of rudeness in "How much is a meter?" asks a leveland paper. Wait till the gas man named Hoar, three miles are towns then be a man named to a question is, can a cook be a patriot?

"How much is a meter?" asks a Cleveland paper. Wait till the gas man named Hoar, three miles west of am named though would to a man named Hoar, three miles west of am named though wond as sinking into a chair.

The recent discovery of extensive coal deposit in California will add much structs of the upper falls stood for years a saw mill, which they over carried with the three discovery of extensive coal of the super falls stood for years as well will wone to the sequence rold men and unfashionable of the wint here obtained with the upper falls stood for years as swindlift wone, they the discover what hopes and the chances of obtainin as to allow men to enlist as cooks. The question is, can a cook be a patriot?

An Extraordinary Flow of Stones, Etc. A Wyoming husband has given his full consent for his wife to run for office, but the didn't give it until after a conflict which broke every dish in the house. stones, one of which weighed eleven The Pall Mall Gazette defends the practice of men kissing each other's wives. It may do for England, but the practice has fallen into decay on this side of the ocean. through both roof and ceiling when you stand and look at him, ever carried candy mottoes in his pocket or ever sat on the stile with his girl at twitity as to flow I the whole premises. This mass of stone, sand and water was forced out in an unceasing stream for more than six hours. Then, instead of a well seven inches in diameter (as the tubing of the well was that size), there light and chewed gum?

A Boston man spent $13,000 in lottery tickets and drew about $600 in tery tickets and drew about $600 in the tribing isn't sufficient encourwas a note of more than three feet in diameter, every particle of the tubing having disappeared, everything having doubled during the last fifty years; she requires 15,000,000 cubic feet yearly for the wall year desfenting and response of the studies of

The Vineland Case. Mr. Carruth, the editor who was shot, and his family have returned to Vineland, N. J. Carruth, says a correspon-A correspondent of the Boston Jour- dent, has become very corpulent and nal, writing from Augusta, Maine, gives the following: Our State is beginning much impaired, and he has to move his to be overrun with tramps. The presence of these vagabonds is striking tercolumn. He thinks the ball is lodged to be overrun with tramps. The presence of these vagabonds is striking tercolumn. He thinks the ball is lodged to commit depredations of some kind.

In some instances their crimes have the eye taken out, so "H's a tough day, a tough day, ever for the Cape," said the light keeper, where the there is the state of the could not be described by the could not be des the Accommodation of the Younger People--An Article that Contains Much of Interest.

THE OLD FOLKS. INDIAN JUGGLING.

linger it would be worth while for the ing the western part of Delaware county, country making a livelihood out of the tramps calling: seventh, likely to have you taken up; eighth, dangerous, sure of being sent to prison. These marks joss-house in San Francisco: The "God of being sent to prison. These marks serve as guides to the professional mendicants. Residents in some of our American cities and larger towns have been startled sometimes by finding their doors or gate posts curiously marked with chalk. Can it be that our American tramps are adopting the English system?

Disappearance of Oak Timber. ble slew all the tigers. To the right of this idol, and beside him in the same appears that oak timber especially is rapidly disappearing from Europe, although half of the area of Sweden, one-fourth of Norway, one-sixth that of Switzerland, and 780,000 square miles in Russia are said to be yet in forest. The consumption of oak in France has doubled during the last fifty years; she requires 15,000,000 cubic feet yearly for wine casks alone, 750,000 for building eating the women and children. It is appeared to the slew all the tigers. To the right of this idol, and beside him in the same canopy, stands a mangy-looking effigy of a tiger, about a foot high, with a big deal with the debris of the old mill the struck by the water falling over the first cataract. As Mr. Sloat stood gazing up head and an open mouth. It is the most miserable and counterfeit presentment I was truck by the water falling over the first cataract. As Mr. Sloat stood gazing up head and an open mouth. It is the most miserable and counterfeit presentment I was fall when to pieces the instant it was struck by the water falling over the first cataract. As Mr. Sloat stood gazing up head and an open mouth. It is the most miserable and counterfeit presentment I was fall when the opieces the instant it was struck by the water falling over the first cataract. As Mr. Sloat stood gazing up head and an open mouth. It is the most instead of studying her through the spray and foam he saw min interests, England has struck by the water falling over the first tast. As Mr. Sloat stood gazing up head and an open mouth. It is the most in the same canopy, stands a mangy-looking effigy of the studying her through the debris of the old mill the spray and foam he saw min the struck by the water falling over the first was truck by the water falling over the first was truck by the water falling over the first was truck by the water falling over the firs the hunger of the beast and prevent his eating the women and children. It is the belief of those who place these wine casks alone, 750,000 cubic feet for her fleet, and 150,000 cubic feet for railway carriages; £800,000 worth of staves were imported in 1852; £5,000,000 worth are now needed. Since losing Alsace and Lorraine, France contains 150,000,000 acres; 20,000,000 of this surface is covered with forest. Holland and Belgium are nearly denuded of timber, and are large importers. North Germany is rich in forest, but within half a century has commenced to cut down young trees. Austria has sold her forests since railways have been intro-duced. In Italy no forests remain. In Sierra Leone a negro might assault and half kill a European, and only be fined a small sum, but if a finger is laid Terms: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

Disappearance of Oak Timber.

A Young Woman Restored to Her Family After an Absence of Over Twenty --- The Story of Her Adventures.

THE LOST POUND.

The Norweigan settlement in Bosque county, Texas, is said to look like the most thrifty part of the country. In Germany the loss of young men in the war has been so great that there are 1,000,000 more women than men. A plaintiff in a lawsuit at Fitchville, Mass. put one of his cars in evidence. It had been bitten off by the defendant. A murderer in Nevada refused to escape when the jail door was accidentally left open, "because he didn't have a clean shirt to go in." They are trying to acclimate the Flori da cedar tree in Germany, as it furnishes the only kind of wood suitable for the manufacture of lead penc

He fondly hoped it would have been a boy, but it wasn't, and ever since then he has been wringing his hands and murmuring: "A lass! a lass!" The Presbyterian Church in the United of States has thirty-six synods, 4,706 ministers, 506,034 communicants, and 520,452 Sunday-school children. There will be a great gathering of grangers at Louisville, Ky., Oct. 1. The national and State executive committee and all the purchasing agents will be present. John Law, of Montreal, was determin ed to kill himself, and having nothing but a penknife he stabbed and cut him-one hundred and twenty-seven times beone hundred and to fore life departed. "I would I were a glove upon that hand," he murmured, fondly; but the next time he saw her she had saltrheum bad, and then he changed his mind. Fickle, fickle man!

The peril of traveling in old vehicles is illustrated by the announcement in the Chicago Post that "Daniel Lamour-eux, of Fentonville, was killed by being that she was not her mother; that she had been stolen and that she (the woman) had been paid to keep her. The woman did not die, and the girl remained with her in St. Louis until she was eleven years old. At that time Capt. L. D. Bartlett, of Hudson, Wis., captain of the steamer Viola, was in St. Louis with his wife. Mrs. Bartlett met the girl, A. Norwich woman was attracted to a A Norwich woman was attracted to a well, the other day, by the screams of her little girl, who had fallen in, and though she pulled her up in the bucket twice, the child lost her hold both times, and was finally drowned before her mother's eyes. A Milwaukee man made three at-tempts to blow his brains out, and then his wife told him: "Don't try it again John; you haven't got any." He goes about now saying that he owes his life to gay girls and young fellows to spare a little time from their work or idleness, and, remembering all that they owe to these queer old men and unfashionable in the sequence of the sequence of moved from the army, her majesty hav ing no further occasion for his services Dated August, 1873. there the foundation was entirely under-

Coarse plug tobacco made into a strong solution, will, in two or three applications, kill ringworm. An equally sure remedy for this disease, mange in animals, or itch, is equal parts of blue precipitate, soft soap and lard, mixed, rubbed in and kept on over night washing off with castile soap and warm water in the morning.

It is a few seconds the body of his wife came The Sultan of Zanzibar showed him a few seconds the body of his wife came rushings there that when the tiger gets hungry he eats the provisions instead of the children. But being somewhat in credulous, I think the rats are more ferocious than the tiger and that they run off with the offerings.

In Sierra Leone.

Sierra Leone is a terrestrial paradise for the colored man, and one where they have almost everything their own way. In Sierra Leone a negro might assault

Stillfal Wark.

The secured the secured the body of his wife came rushing toward the pass. He seized it and drew it out. Then he secured the scale field, and that of the youngest. The third did not appear, and garters, and crosses, and medals of his own, nor would he accept of any, as and after waiting a few seconds Mr. Sloat turned his attention toward resuscitating the rescued. His wife was only partially unconscious, and was soon restored. The two children were also resuscitated after a long trial, and removed to the house. The body of the third has not yet been found.

A chicken died in Auburn, Illinois. It belonged to Mr. Ney or Mr. Lochridge, whose yards adjoined, but to

It belonged to Mr. Ney or Mr. Loch-ridge, whose yards adjoined, but to which could not be determined. They Skillful Work.