

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

THURSDAY DEC. 2, 1875.

LODGE MEETINGS.

CENTRE HALL LODGE, No. 98, I. O. O. F., meets every Saturday evening in the Old Hall, Centre Hill, at 8 P.M. GILLIGAN, Secy. H. P. SANKEY, A.G. Our FORT LONDE, No. 837, F. & M. meets on Monday evenings at 8 P.M. in the Old Fellow's Hall, Centre Hill, Sect. W. B. MINOLE, W. M. PROGRESS GRANGE, P. O. H. meets on Saturday afternoons or after each full moon at the Old Hall. J. J. ARNEY.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Our friends will oblige by sending us items of local news in their locality, give us the facts only, and we will put them in shape, also notices of death and marriage.

Any one sending us six (six new subscribers) with the cash, will entitle to receive it for postage next year.

The BROWNS are being read by nearly everybody in this side of the country, where it has a large circulation; than any two papers, and is the best paper for advertising business, sales, &c. &c.

Subscribers to the Reporter, residing outside of Centre Hill, will send us the cost of postage which we will pay here; this reduces the postage to one-half, as the sum paid by those for one year's postage was 20 cents.

Why not call sausages "ground hogs?"

Burnside & Thomas sell groceries and other goods at trifles above wholesale city prices. For Cabs. The only cheap place in the country.

The new E. church at Pleasant Gap is nearly completed and will be dedicated about the holidays.

The new Methodist church at Centre Hall will be dedicated Christmas, next.

The lathouse disease, small pox, is afflicting Milesburg. We were informed on last Tuesday that there were 18 cases and five deaths last week.

Rain last Sabbath, and followed by high winds in the night and next day.

Rankin's Drug store, next door to Descher's gun-shop, is the place to get fresh drugs, medicines and fancy toilet articles. Bob keeps a new stand there, though understands specialty.

The sour well near Luling, Texas, the property of Dr. Burdett, has become somewhat faint. The water is pleasant and acidulated, not unlike lemonade, and is said to possess wonderful curative properties.

A lemonade well—that's a good idea—next we expect to hear of a molasses fountain, a coffee well, a tea well, and other wells. Well, it would be well, and if none of our readers strike any such well, let them just go and get their tea, coffee, lemon, etc., at Seeler's cheap grocery and they will do well.

Reader the holidays are near. Did you ever think of sending the ever faithful Reporter a Christmas gift? You can do the pleasant little office by sending us the names of one or more subscribers to the Reporter for S. G. or 12 months, and the cash along. This would be appreciated by us and make the New Year all the happier. "My Christmas gift."

—See HERE—now, twenty, or thirty miles away from Centre Hall, that you can't get your Bills and other job-work done at the Reporter, send us mail a list of the articles you wish to sell, the day and hour of the sale, your name, place of residence and your post office address, and the job will be done and returned to you in good time. And it just the same with Administrators' and Executives' Notices. Send by mail name and late residence of deceased, and name of Administrator or Executor, and the will will be properly attended to.

The old man Shilling who was arrested and held for trial on the charge of setting fire to the Found barn in the Seven mountains, was tried last week and acquitted.

It has now turned out that the little boy with the woman, up in Connecticut, is not Charles Ross. It was only another "widow out-mag."

Warrington & Brown, clothiers, of Philadelphia, are a responsible firm. They make up men's boy's clothing and make them right. Their prices are remarkably low, and the wonder is how they can be so low. The best of all, however, they have but one price for each article, and that price must pay alike. There is no such thing as "swelling" allowed. If you buy there you always know that you are getting your money's worth and nobody can buy cheaper.

Mr. Tuten, of the Belofonte Republican spent a few hours in our saloon, last Wednesday. He behaved quite well, while here, and he dare come again.

A new Golden Tongue Organ, one of the finest tuned instruments made, for sale at this office. Also a Rynder organ, good as new. Either of these instruments offered at a bargain.

Some of our subscribers make it a rule to pay their subscription every six months in advance—a very good idea, and an easy method to pay the printer, and one that is scarcely felt by the patron. We should be pleased to see more of our friends adopt this plan instead of having one, two, three or even more years of subscription accumulate, thus making a sum look large.

We enter volume 9 with the commencement of a new series of pictorial art and numbered accounts to all who owe several years subscription, and shall feel obliged to strike off the names of all who refuse to pay before January 1st, next.

We cannot send the Reporter year upon year without pay. We must pay Cash for paper, and material, hence the reader who is a reader will see how important it is to mail us the amount due. A newspaper cannot be published without money. We trust, therefore, that those who have been lifting the Reporter regularly, every week for two or more years, will feel that it is but simple justice towards us to pay up arrears.

Last week's Belofonte Republican has a sensational article relating to the church services in this place on Sabbath previous, which is a misrepresentation. There was nothing occurred upon the occasion, in the manner of a disturbance, that was worthy of note in its column. No rising to the benches or even from the seats, and no pointing to any individual and calling him hard names, and there was neither confusion nor disorder occasioned by the remarks made by the individual named by the Republican. Our neighbor should exercise a little more circumspection in what is reported to him, especially as regards occurrences upon solemn occasions like the one referred to, and drop its imitation of the sensational sheet.

CHINE CHEAP LABOR

We are coming Uncle Sam. One hundred million strong; we are coming to make Frisco. All same as Hong Kong.

We will work biceps cheap. Bring little men along way. And make them come home.

For clow clow cly all day. And buy all our groceries. At Seeler's cheap stand, At the Home Block, Belofonte.

—Monday last was the coldest day thus far. In the morning the mercury stood 6 above zero. Tuesday did not improve on Monday, save, that there was not so much storm.

If you wish to exchange your old washing machine for a new one, address Bunnell & Aiken, Milroy.

—Chas. Sheller has rented the Centre Hall yard, and take possession of the building. Meanwhile Mr. Sheller will be engaged in the establishment and take in skins, etc., and work out stock for the halves.

—A first class sewing machine, the New American of Bunnell & Aiken, Milroy.

One door east of Wm. Weiser'ssmithshop, Milroy, you find John S. Miller, fashionable tailor.

—Mr. John Stewart, of near Beulah, takes possession of Jack's Hotel, at State college.

MR. ROSS, of this place, was robbed at about 20 bushels of corn from his crib, a few nights ago. Look out for the corn-crib and smoke-house rangers.

—Of Johnny Powers, right opposite the Bushhouse, is where you get the finest, best, yes, the cheapest boots and shoes. Go there all ye men and women, and see his splendid stock—an assortment to suit any class from king and queen down or up to the mountaineer and his brother.

—Plotted monthly, Peters' Paper Music, has just been received, and contains seven pieces of good music, which in sheets would cost two dollars, but this number of the magazine containing all this music will cost you only 50cts. Peters per year $4. Address J. L. Peters, 843 Broadway N.Y.

The advertisements in newspapers are more than the thoughts imagined. They are the map of a large class of men's capabilities in life. The man who contemplates doing business in a distant town takes up the local papers and in its advertising columns sees a true picture of the mode in which he is to conduct his business of stockingers, his banks, and in almost every case he can estimate the character of the men who are soliciting the public patronage. The advertising page is a map of the town, a record of its municipal character, a business confession of the citizens, and instead of being the opinionated production of one man, it is freighted with the life thoughts of a hundred.

—A 2-story house and lot, in a good location, with outbuildings on the premises is offered at private sale. Apply at this office.

—The new E. church at Pleasant Gap is nearly completed and will be dedicated about the holidays.

—The new Methodist church at Centre Hall will be dedicated Christians, next.

—The lathouse disease, small pox, is afflicting Milesburg. We were informed on last Tuesday that there were 18 cases and five deaths last week.

—Rain last Sabbath, and followed by high winds in the night and next day.

For the Reporter.

M'ALVEY'S FORT, Nov. 23, 1875.

It is a long time since I wrote for the Reporter and so most of its readers are friends of mine and as time to write to them individually, will do so through the columns of the Reporter, if the kindness of your heart will permit. I am a single man who would support himself if he could. An asoyne was administered, and he relapsed into a calm, peaceful slumber, from which he did not arise till 7 this morning, when he got up and drank a draught of medicinal water prescribed by his physician some days ago. Among other things he remarked, just after waking "I'll have to close the eyes of my wife, for I have no money to support her." But afterwards he said "I have no money to support her." Tashkend, November 29.—After General Kaufmann had left Namangan for Khokand the Kipschaks rebelled and surprised the former town. They invested the citadel and the Russian camp. The Russians resisted successfully for three days, when General Scobeleff returned and attacked the Kipschaks, who fled, leaving 3,000 dead on the field.
