

There comes a night, oh, dear and true!
Across the path that we pursue—
The morning dews are on the grass;
A thing too fugitive to last.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

VOLUME IX.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1876.

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

NUMBER 16.

A PAIR OF APRIL FOOLS.

Mr. Southard had been a romantic about the time of the revolution.
He was a young man, and he was romantic still, now that the title young man was no longer his because of his bachelorhood.

Why, Bell will guess at once,
unless she forgets that it is the first of April. Mr. Southard is always so smart, and she should do such a foolish thing.

CENTRAL NOTES.

It is officially estimated that the whole amount of goods placed on exhibition will exceed forty thousand tons in weight.

HARRASSING A GOVERNMENT.

How the British Navy Harassed the Government of Samoa, and the Absurd History.

THE UNITED STATES MAIL CONTRACTORS.

There is, says a Washington dispatch,
one peculiarity noticeable about the witnesses who appear before the post-office committee.

THE BOYS.

Are we "the boys" that used to make
The tables ring with noisy fellows?
Whom deep-sung laughter would shake
The ceiling with its tremulous volleys?

THE TWIN PORTRAITS.

A rising artist! So Gilbert Lawson was called, but only by a small circle of his special friends.

A DOMESTIC SORROW.

Here is a characteristic conversation which occurred some time since between certain Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Jones.

JANE REED.

A PENNSYLVANIA BALLAD.
If I could forget," she said, "and begin again!
We see so dull at the time, and looking back so plain.

LEATHER AT THE CENTENAL.

The applications for space in the shoe and leather building have reached the number of 547, and there are more in anticipation.

WORSHIP IN THE WILDERNESS.

The early settlers of America, among other things, experienced great difficulty in attending divine worship.

A FIRE IN TARSA.

Tarsa, the native city of the apostle
Paul, was, on the night of the twentieth of January, the scene of a great fire.

ABOUT CABPAGE SEED.

The case of Richard Van Wyck against Richard H. Allen and others was argued before the general term of the court of the county of New York.

LIFE IN GREAT CHINA.

The relative humbleness of some of the great cities is now a familiar fact,
which exhibits the annual mortality
for 1,000 inhabitants.

A TRUE COMMUNITY.

The family should be a community.
To do this it truly should be communital, which exhibits the annual mortality for 1,000 inhabitants.

QUICK PRESCRIPTIONS.

Professor Wilder, of Cornell University, gives the following short list in case of accident:

There comes a night, oh, dear and true!
Across the path that we pursue—
The morning dews are on the grass;
A thing too fugitive to last.

Why, Bell will guess at once,
unless she forgets that it is the first
