came cold, the darkey went down to Thos. Whites barber saloon and fixed himself up. He then went back to the hotel and asked for his morning meal, and was told that it had been ready at the time specified, but as he did not come it had been removed. Mrs. Boyd also told his that she would get him another breakfast which was done, bu when the Ethiopian found it was served in the kitchen he left in disgust, declaring he would sue her for violating the Boyd left for Harrisburg to answer for her "violations." the result of which we have not learned.

A German came into the Reporter office the other day and wanted to know about the presidential race, and being a little busy we gave him the following bird's eye view of it :

Morton may find himself too light in the balance for the nomination for pres ident, because more-ton is wanting all the time, and then besides til-den New York will interfere, and Ohio has thurman too, and it is not so blain that Maine will fill the chair, for the whole thing may get black and burst-toe won't travel. A cork-ling is too light too, and they have a heavy barker in Jersey, and a fine bay-yard to draw the people in Delaware, and there is a strong han-coo in Pennsylvania which makes a bi kuck-er-e-koo all over the country, and then hen-dricks in behind too. The Ten ton left, saying, Yaw, dat ish all glean un the democrats make it, by gosh.

And there the question of veracity between Robinson and Curr-rests. Each of these gentlemen was pu apon the stand, and each gave the other a good character for honesty, integrity and veracity, which gives a somewhat ludicrous aspect to this otherwite grave matter. Mr. Blaine, in concluding his testimony, said: "That is all there was here, but was discouraged by the law-yers. On Monday morning last, Mrs. chairman. It was delivered in a crowd carried into the House and thrown down without care, and it lay in my room with a miscellaneous lot of papers probably for a year, I referring to it ever now and then. Mr. Robinson never de livered me a bond of the Fort Smith and Little Rock Company either in Washington or any other place. I de Washington or any other place. I de-sire to make that statement as broad as it can be made in every shape and form, both inclusively and exclusively. d then commenced the beating of the drums, the flourish of trumpets, the piercing sound of the whistle and pipe in which, together with the violent voicing feations of the crowd, drowned the cries of the victims. The soil dug out of the pit the previous day was then thrown back into the monster grave. The finantical spectators of the dismand drama, as soon as it was filled up, commenced to dance on the summit of the grave, stamping the soil down with all their might, so as to form a hard, compact layer above those buried alive. All the mentations having ceased, nothing, was left to indicate the ceremony of the abomniable sepulture; the noise of the instruments had ceased also, and the grave assembled crowd retired, satisfied with themselves, and admiring the greatness.
