Sick Headaches and want of Appetites.

These feelings which sadden us, most frequently arise from annoyances or trouble, from obstructed perspiration, or from eating and drinking what is unfit for us, thus disordering the liver and stomach. These organs must be regulated if you wish to be well. The Pills, if taken according to the printed instructions will anickly to the printed instructions, will quickly restore a healthy action to both liver and stomach, whence follow, as a natural con-sequence, a good appetite and a ciear head. In the East and West Indies scarcely any other madicine is ever used for these dis How to be Strong. How to be Strong.

Never let the bowe's be citker confined or unduly acted upon. It may appear singular that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for a ran upon the bowels many persons supposing they would increase relaxation. This is a great mistake however, these Pills will immediately correct the liver and stop every kind of take however, these Pills will immediately correct the liver and stop every kind of bowel complaint. In warm climates thousands of lives have been saved by the use of this medicine, which in all cases gives tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged—health and strength follow as a matter of course. The appatite, too, is wonderfully increased by the use of these Pills, combined in the use of solid in preference to fluid diet. Animal food is better than broths and stews. By removing acrid, fermented or other impure humors from the liver, stomach or blood, the cause of dysentery, diarrhea, and other bowel complaints is expelled. The result is, that the disturbance is arrested, and the action of the bowels becomes regular. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the bowels so quickly as this fine correcting medicine.

Disorders of the Kidneys.

In all disease affecting these organs.

In all disease affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the manufacture of the state of cording to the printed directions, and the cintment should be rubbed into the small of the back as bedtime. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills: they remove all acidity, occasioned either by interpretable and the stomach as the second of the stomach as the second of the stomach and the stom or by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach er and stomach.
