

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

Household Hints. BLACKBERRY CORNED.—To one quart of blackberry juice add one pound of white sugar...

GRAPES MARMALEADE.—Boil the grapes till very soft, strain them through a sieve...

QUINCE JELLY.—Slice the quince without either paring or coring. Put them into a preserving jar...

TOMATO CUSTARD.—Cut the tomatoes in slices, lay them on a cloth, and salt upon them...

FRUIT PRESERVE.—Pick out the knobby and warty grapes, wash them at a time...

WASHING WITHOUT LABOR.—Dissolve two pounds of soap in three gallons of hot water...

Farm Notes. The extensive apple orchard of Mr. Wilson, near Toledo, Ohio, noted for its excellence...

While at work near a wheat field, my attention was called to the fact that some of the wheat heads from the heads in certain parts of the field...

When I found a forked tree that is likely to split, I look for a small limb on each side, and chop them off...

By the erection of bird houses, wrens, martins and bluebirds, wholly insectivorous, are attracted to the place...

Prunes.—Never make the fruit from the trees, but hand pick always. All prunes are better when ripened off the tree...

Apples.—Assort, and market only the good ones; poor apples will pay best in the form of vinegar.

Cider and Vinegar.—See that all inferior fruit is gathered and made into cider, and that the best is reserved, rejecting all that is partially decayed.

Plants.—All land intended for fall planting should be plowed and harrowed and put into proper condition for setting out...

Pruning.—Make ample provisions for drying the surplus fruit of all kinds; it is likely that only the best fruit will bring remunerative prices...
