FOR PRESIDENT: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: THOS. A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS: JOHN DYKENS Walker, MAJ. SAM'L FRANK, Milsb., JOHN RISHBID, of Greer.

The radical cry—or lie—that Tilden's election would result in payment of the rebel debt, didn't find many believers in Indiana or Ohio, no, not even away out in New Colorado.

The Lewistown Gazette, radical, sneaks out from behind the bushes that the rebels will get into power. The day has gone by for that lie. The Gazette will not say upon its honor that it believes any such thing.

The New York Times is the leading all the lies that are now told against Tilden. Before Tilden's nomination for president this same Times was full of praise, almost daily, of this same Samuel J. Tilden, whom it now traduces.

The Bellefonte Republican a short time ago, old woman like, tried its hand at a leader on the tariff, which is not the issue at all.

What does General Kilpatrick think of a bloody-shirt campaign with plenty of money? And is he not convinced that Anson Wolcott, the Independent candidate, who was poor and needy and wanted money, sold more than he was able to deliver?

Charley Wolfe, of Union, did not get the nomination for senator in that district, and feels very sore. He has an idea that there is something like a ghost in the radicals after all.

A REPUBLICAN PRUDENT AN EX-PENNSYLVANIAN. The expenses of the White House under Democratic rule were $47,847.50.

Some friend at Rockgrove Hill, has sent a batch of tracts, containing the ablest lectures of R. G. Ingersoll, who denies the existence of God, calls Christ a heathen, and reviles the Church.

The Williams Gazette and Bulletin says the democrats will pay rebel claims if they get into power, and also that Tilden accepted the endorsement of the American Alliance.

DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENTS. $30,000,000 saved in annual federal expenses by the action of one Session.

$65,000,000 of retrenchment proposed and the amount cut down on account of the action of the Republican Senate and Executive.

$60,000,000 saved to the taxpayers of New York State in one year by Governor Tilden.

Hon. L. A. Mackey has one thanks for Governor Tilden for calling the attention of the legislature of the State to the canal frauds, for recommending the inquiry, and for instructing the Attorney General to bring suit, which he has done.

From the Boston Post, Sept. 29.—Senator Tilden says: "I challenge any Administration in the history of the country that of Gen. Grant," and Schurz says that "the Administration of Grant has by the greatness of its corruption even to the necessity of a radical reform even to the most stupid mind." Hence, hence.

Dick Harrington one of the treasury safe burglars and an appointee under Grant, fled to Canada, has returned and delivered himself into the hands of the marshal.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Grant's deputy marshals have commenced the arrest of leading democrats of this state, in order to intimidate white and black voters, and carry the state for Hayes.

Of thirty to forty twenty-six have so far been required bond and six are now in the county jail guarded by United States soldiers.

The charge against all the parties arrested is for intimidation of voters threatening them with violence if they voted for the republican Presidential electors and candidates for congress.

It is well known here and confidently believed at the instance of Gov. Chamberlain for the purpose of intimidating the white and colored democrats, has been in the effort to cause resistance and bloodshed with the view to declare martial law.

The entire machinery of the state has been put into motion to carry out the policy of the government administered upon the principle of economy and corruption rebuked? Then to work, demagogues, and every good citizen, and help carry the old key-stone to the great and noble reformers of the day, Tilden and Centre.

The democratic senatorial conference of this district, met at Bellefonte, on Thursday last, and after several ballots adjourned to meet at Tyrone on 10th.

A Spring township radical, the other day, was seen in the act of snatching a copy of what Indiana would do in November.

Some Republican journals boast that they will elect a man who will be re-elected, and the Boston Post infers from this that Tilden is a Hayes man.

Another bootmaker for the radical candidate—his gratitude for the confidence shown in electing him a member of the cabinet.

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER of yesterday, publishes the following like a ghost in the radicals after all.

It will be seen by the title of this confidential letter was written in response to a "feeler" letter sent him by the magnates of the now known Nothing order, and that the endorsement of the principles and aims of the organization by Hayes, as evidenced in this letter, secured the endorsement of the principles of the order.

Under Grant's administration the number of office holders has been increased forty thousand.

NOW FOR PENNSYLVANIA.

Last week's Reporter gave the glorious news of the October elections, and we are now enabled, through complete returns, to assist in this dirty work.

Now then let Pennsylvania join the column of Reform and cast her vote for Tilden, Democrats, it can be done, if every man does his duty.

It is well known here and confidently believed at the instance of Gov. Chamberlain for the purpose of intimidating the white and colored democrats, has been in the effort to cause resistance and bloodshed with the view to declare martial law.

HEDGEGON ON HAYES.

So far as we are able to judge from his record Mr. Hayes is a man somewhat of a part of it can be admired. We look upon him as a mediocre, well-intentioned gentleman, who has been lifted by the accidents of politics to a position to which he had no title founded on personal qualities.

Our correspondent maintains that Mr. Hayes, if elected, will free himself from party trammels and exercise a noble independence.

Very Little Record, and None of it Good. It is a member of the 20th and 40th Congresses.

THE SOUTHERN CLAIMS. Republican Members Responsible for their Presentation to Congress.

POST THE BOOKS. The Democracy began this campaign at the commencement of the present year with a confident belief that they could elect their Presidential ticket without either Indiana or Ohio.
