CHEESE OMELET. - Grate some rich dd cheese, and, having mixed the omelet as usual, stir in the cheese with a swift turn or two of the wrist, and at the same time some chopped parsley and thyme. If it is beaten a long time the cheese will separate the milk from the eggs.

POTATOES A LA MAITRE D'HOTEL Slice cold boiled potatoes a quarter of an inch thick and put into a saucepan with four or five tablespoonfuls of milk, two or three of butter, pepper, salt, and some chopped parsley; heat quickly, stirring all the time, until ready to boil, then stir in the juice of half a ler This last ingredient entitles the dish to a foreign title. Pour into a deep dish and serve very hot.

BROILED TOMATOES. -Select large firm ones, and do not peel. Slice half an inch thick and broil upon an oyster gridiron : a few minutes will suffice to cook them ; have ready in a cup some hot butter seasoned with pepper, salt and a little sugar, and half a teaspoonful of made mustard. As soon as the tomatoes are done dip each pieco in this mixture and lay upon a hot chafing dish. When all are finished heat what remains of the seasoning to a boil, pour upon them and serve at once

LOSS OF HAIR.

Your "Cosonine" is the only dressing for the hair used in my family for the last eight years. It not only stopped my wife's hair from coming out, but in-creased its growth. I am also under obligations to this same "Coconine" for saving my own hair, which was very fast coming out previous to using this valuable preparation. J. C. MITCHELL. IRRITATION OF THE SCALP.

WATERVILE, ME, Sept. 15. WATERVILE, ME, Sept. 15. I purchesed a bothe only, for the purpose of a hair dressing; but, to my surprise, it has entirely removed the irrivation of so long standing. I have recom-mended it to several of my friends, who were afflicted in the same way, and it has wholly irradicated the disease. JOSEPH HILL, JR. WISTAR'S BALSA
