The Hayes party is in trouble on three of its electors. One elector in Vermont, is a post-master, and therefore can not serve. Another in Oregon is a post-master, and he can not serve. In Wisconsin they discovered a post-master on the electoral ticket only a short time before the election, and the radical Chairman sent out circulars to have his name stricken off and another substituted. But in many localities this was neglected and the post-master voted for, thus deviding the vote.

Now that William, Pitt Kellogg assumes to hold the fate of the country in the hollow of his hand, it may be well enough to consider his right to be Governor of Louisiana, General Grant gave this simple opinion as to his "It has been alleged that Kellogg was

Every intelligent citizen knows that the legal government in Louisiana was counted out by fraud four years ago. No fair minded Republicant attempts to dear the what makes all the south go the fact, in face of the refusal of the United States—Senate to admit any Kellogg's Senators to seats. But in four years the popular recollection of these events has grewn somewhat dim, and a brief outline of them will give the people of the North a clear idea of the outrage, which, there are too many reasons to fair, will be attempted again, in order to deprive Gov. Tilden of the position to which he has been legally elected.

The Returning Board, of infamous memory, was composed of the fovernor, the Lieut-Governor, the Lieut-Governor, the Secretary of the Governor, formed all self it had not submit to it now when it is state, when an election was to the capital point of themselves, filled vacancies and proof state, and two Senators.
