THE IMPENDING CRISIS.

The Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, a distinguished democrat of New York, ably discusses in the Herald of Wednesday the questions that have been forced upon the country by the desperate and unreasoning conspiracy to put into the office of President the defeated candidate.

Concerning the pretense that the presiding officer of the senate has the power of counting the electoral votes and declaring the result which is necessary for the plan of the conspiracy, Mr. Potter agrees with General Butler and he produces a long and broken line of precedents from the foundation of the government to the last presidential election in support of his position.

In the face of these tremendous figures it may be wise for the unscrupulous politicians who by their maladministration and their notorious complicity with public rascalities of every sort have so completely broken down the Republican party in the great North and West, to go on in their shameless defiance of law and their utter disregard of the business interests and the national reputation of the American people.

Our neighbor, the Watchman, seems to be riled because Pennsylvania rolled up a handsome majority for Tilden, and desires to know who is to blame because our people did not do the same thing in 1874 and back. The democrats of Pennsylvania always did their duty, and if we were not for the democratic party in the returns from Louisiana we would be no where.

Having effectually disposed of the assumption that the presiding officer of the senate "singly and alone" can count the electoral votes and declare the result, Mr. Potter proceeds to show the powers of the two houses over the subject. As both houses must meet to count the electoral vote, no vote can be counted without the consent of each.

There is trouble among the Iowa democrats, and it is not surprising that the National Grange is eating up their substance without any equivalent return. This National Grange is eating up their substance without any equivalent return.

Mr. Potter next discusses the remedy in case Kellogg's Returning Board should reverse the popular vote of Louisiana in accordance with the plan of the conspirators to defeat the election of a President.

At last the returns from all the counties in the State have been received by the Secretary of State at Harrisburg. They show an aggregate vote of 758,957, by far the largest vote ever polled in the State, the nearest approach to it being the vote for Governor in October, 1872, which aggregated 672,409, or 86,548 less.

There is no democratic gain all over the north and west, and why not in the south.

THE NORTH-WEST ELECTION.

The World says: While Chandler and his allies are concocting schemes for "counting in" a defeated candidate for the Presidency, it may help cool and temperate citizens towards a just estimate of the drift of popular feeling and public opinion in the North at this time to recapitulate quietly the practical results in the way of majorities of the recent contest, and to compare with them the results reached in the election of 1872.

Table with 3 columns: State, Grand, Hayes, Tilden. Rows include Maine, N. Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Connecticut.

Republican loss in New England, 1876 67,173. Middle States, 1872, 1876, 1876. New York, 33,840, 32,560.

Western States, 1872, 1876, 1876. Ohio, 37,821, 7,516. Indiana, 22,207, 5,414.

Summary, Total Republican loss in majorities North and West, 1876: 202,869. Total Republican loss in majorities New England States, 67,173.

Counting the lost Republican majorities and adding them to the reputed Democratic majorities, we find the totals to be between 8,000 and 9,000, as follows:

THE PEOPLE OF SOUTH CAROLINA DISFRAQUED AND THEIR COURTS DEFIED.

Chamberlain's Returning Board Declare Themselves Elected and Count the Votes.

Columbia, Nov. 22.—The board of state officers, which made a report to the supreme court stating the persons who had received the highest number of votes for the offices for which they were candidates. Appended to the report is a memorandum of the board stating that in their opinion certain irregularities which affected some of the republican candidates for the offices of Governor, State Senator and State Representative, and also the vote of Laurens and Edgefield counties which gave large democratic majorities should be excluded on account of frauds and intimidations.

This morning the court made an order commanding the board to issue certificates of election to all the persons who were shown in the report of the board to have received the highest number of votes for members of the legislature including the counties of Edgefield and Laurens. The court also today took up the case of the electors and issued a rule on the board to show cause why a rule should not correct the statements of the county canvassers by the present returns in their possession.

Wm. McKee has been pardoned by the President and his fine of $10,000 remitted. McKee is the proprietor of the Globe-Democrat newspaper in St. Louis, and it has been announced that he will be pardoned after the election as soon as the administration could give its aid to reform within the party.

THE OHIO DEMOCRATIC SPEAK. Columbus, November 22.—The democratic central committee and a number of representative democrats from various counties of the state met here today for consultation. The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That patriotic demands of every good citizen as to the result of the election are fairly ascertained and we deplore all partisan feeling in the discussion of the result of the election.

HOW TO DO IT. It is well enough for honest people of the North of both parties to understand the mode whereby it is proposed to give the State of Louisiana to Hayes. For cool inquiry it has no parallel in our political history.

Counting the lost Republican majorities and adding them to the reputed Democratic majorities, we find the totals to be between 8,000 and 9,000, as follows:

THE BOARD ARRESTED.

The above Board has since been arrested for their contempt and rascality and imprisoned until they purge themselves and each one find a surety.

THE SITUATION. The situation as to the presidential question is the same. Tilden has a majority on the popular vote of 300,000, and an almost majority of the electors, and the radicals, backed by Grant and his soldiers in the States, are determined to do what they can to prevent the election of Hayes.

THE "FAIR PLAY" BOARD. The New Orleans writers are defending the fraud in progress there and to assist in preventing Trumbull, Palmer Curtis, and their associates from presenting the operation, are about as favorably kind to the country as Kellogg himself.

THE TROOPS AT WASHINGTON. Washington, November 25.—The troops now here are eight companies of artillery, numbering in all 450 men, armed with muskets, with the troop battery; but also some as gun-carriages, now expected.

THE LUNGS CONSUMPTION. This distressing and dangerous complaint and its preliminary symptoms, neglected, might lead to pneumonia, pleurisy, or even to death.

SOUTH CAROLINA. The Supreme Court Adjudges the Returning Board in Contempt. Columbia, S. C., November 25.—The Supreme Court this morning held each of the members of the Board of Canvassers to be in contempt of court in refusing to issue certificates of election to persons who by the face of the returns were shown to have received the highest number of votes for the offices of Governor, State Senator and State Representative.

WATSON'S OINTMENT. The expression of the popular will in favor of Mr. Tilden rather than Mr. Hayes for President. There is not the least doubt that the people of the United States would practice fraud to secure the election of their candidates, but the will of the people, as expressed in the ballot box, may deter them from doing so.
