CENTRE HALL, Pa., Dec. 21, 1876. TERMS—$2 per year in advance...

The democratic members of the House held a caucus on 11. Among the principal speakers were Messrs. Randall Wood, Hunt, Canfield and Carr.

Several members, including it is said, Messrs. Randall, Watterson and Tilden, having had interviews with Governor...

This morning's publication of the statements made by the President in an interview yesterday was the subject of considerable earnest comment...

When Grant was informed, one day last week, that the democrats of the South Carolina legislature had a constitutional quorum in the House...

Grant says "he don't care a d—n for the Constitution. His actions showed that long ago, with out his qualifying it with his profanity now. The sense of the people as given at the election shows that they don't care for Grant, and we must there is pluck enough left to make him understand it, if he attempts to 'bull-doz' Tilden out of a fair election."

The House of Representatives, preparatory to counting the electoral vote in February, has sent a committee to the three southern States of Florida, Louisiana and Mississippi...

Grant is bent upon mischief. Beside his warlike preparations at Washington he is doing the same thing at New York. He has ordered Hancock of San Francisco and Sherman of New York with absolute power...

Robertson, the outgoing U. S. Senator from South Carolina, and a republican has written a letter declining to be a candidate for re-election by the Chamberlain legislature...

The "Times" is the best Philadelphia daily, and keeps growing in the confidence of the people. Its correspondents give the most accurate and important version of important events...

A NEW OUTLOOK AT WASHINGTON.

A special from Washington to the World, on 12, says there is a good deal of quiet cogitation going on here among the more fastidious members of both parties...

Washington, December 8.—The Republican leaders are very much gratified at the apparent determination of the President to carry things with a high hand in South Carolina.

THE SAME RULE FOR ALL. N. Y. Evening Post (Rep.) Dec. 7. Yesterday Governor Geary, of Oregon, gave a certificate of election as elector to E. C. Galt, a democrat...

Estimates by reliable and well informed persons put the number of unemployed workmen in New York at 45,755. Of this number 8,900 are skilled mechanics.
