for President. If ever there was a blacker brace hypocrits than the two below, mentic them. The Pittsburg Post says of them that Morton and Sherman made speech es in the Senate on 20 ult., upholding the Electoral Commission in its declara tion that Congress had no right to go be hind the Returning Boards or throw out ineligible electors. Eleven months ago they both voted for a bill giving Con gress this power; they both supporte the Twenty-third rule, which allowed either house to throw out the vote of State; and four years ago they voted t throw out the vote of Louisiana from the count because of frauds which pale be fore Wells' master-piece of scoundre ism. Morton and Sherman are fit defenders of the Commission and of old ally remained at home, except a few ne-Wells. They are only consistent in groes, until about four p. m., when a their diabolism.

The Philadelphia Ledger, an inde pendent journal, whose editor, G. W. Childs, is a warm personal friend of Gen. Grant, in commenting upon the unrighteousness of the decision in the Lor isiana case, referring to sarcasm of the Republicans as to "the partizan votes the seven Democrats on the Commis sion," the Ledger clears away such rubbish in these pointed remarks: .
