Outward Bound.

Floating, floating, from dawn to dusk, Till the pearly twilight dies, And the mists float up from the sapphire sea And cloud all the sapphire skies.
Floating, floating, while golden stars
Seem to float in a sea overhead.
And starry lights from a sea below

Glow orange, and purple, and red;
Till we seem floating out from the sea of life,
The tempests of passion, the storm-winds strife— Out into strange, mysterious space, Till God shall find us a landing place.

Drifting, drifting to lands unknown, From a world of love and care, Drifting away to a home untried And a heart that is waiting there Oh ship! sail swiftly—Oh, waters deep!
Bear me safe to that haven unknownSafe to the tender love that waits To be forever my own ; Till we drift away from the sea of life, npests of passion, the storm-winds of Out to a haven, out to a shore Where life is love forevermore.

A Persian Story.

In Persia, in olden time, lived a great king, Whose name was Shah Noshirwan: Twas his custom, whenever he heard a good

To say "Zeh!" and his treasurer then would

A purse to the fortunate man.

This king, when out hunting on one fine day,

You'll never eat food from these." "For three-score years I have eaten sweet food

From trees that I did not sow : And would it not be base ingratitude If I took no thought of posterity's good, And paid not the debt. I owe?"

"Zeh, zeh!" said the king ; and the treasurer To the old man a purse hath thrown. See, see! for good works it is never to late

God hath given me fruit without needing to wait, Before all my trees are sown." "Zeh, zeh!" once again : ere the word was said, Another purse flew on its way. "Till God placed the crown on your majesty's

Was such a strange thing ever heard of, or As to reap two crops in one day !"

"Zeh. zeh!" vet again, and a third full purse But the king in his horse's flank drives his

Nor waits for more answer in prose or in verse, Lest the wit of that old man, so prompt, so Should drain his full treasury dry.

BY THE SUMMER SEA.

"How pale you are, Ninon! What alls you? You have not been yourself these three weeks and more," observed toy of your idleness and amusement. these three weeks and more," observed toy of your idleness and amusement. Camilla Kenwick to her petite, dark-some mistress. "You talk all day to M. Antoine Charlot, and all night you moan in your dreams of Ralph—nothing but Ralph—madam; and in the morning the pillow is wet with the tears you have shed in your dreams. Your cheeks are always too hot or too cold, and—pardon me—your temper is just the same promenaders on the silvery beach, there of late. Is it for the little quarrel, and were inquiries and unsatisfactory explan-pretty, tender, Frenchified lisp. The girl drew back with a gesture of to Wild Rose Villa.

nced the witcheries of a creature madame. "Black, Ninon," interrupted the lady, found, and the next morning Ralph Kenvivacious French maid.

toins, her lover."

The little maid was on her knees, and her dark curls trembling from out her served Ealph, pointing toward the spot

Charlot know of your presence

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

VOLUME X.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1877.

NUMBER 28.

that she wound in oriental fashion about who seemed too happy to hear or care for CAPTURE OF SISTOVA. FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD, view of the remunerative prices which the royally graceful form of her mistress, who immediately went down to meet Antoine Charlot feature and bearing, he was at once out my Antoine. And oh, my madame, grave and poetic, fastidious, passionate he loves me—he does, indeed. It was all This king, when our naming the search of the street is a search of the street in the street is a search of the street is a

'How could I be late," he responded that Camilla only heard. in the purest English, "when I enjoy so much cur hours by the sweet, sweet swered." "I am very glad, Ninon," she answered. sea. Will you come down to the beach But she was thankfully, reverently event of the latter's success.

with me? The sunset is charming." orth me? The sunset is charming."

She smiled as she went with him, but Charlot had not intentionally flung himher heart was heavy and fearful in her self into the sea. In his passionate bosom. She was nervously apprehensive haste he had caught his foot in a trailing of the denouement of her summer pas- vine, and accidentally fallen over the here, in this sweet green nook, for I have lot.

"I can guess what it is, my friend," she replied serenely, but with a keen in-ward thrill that was half pain and half vanity; "you have heard something of the tableaux we are to have in honor of my husband's coming. You wish to help me-you are very kind."

ing, as she held forth one dainty hand on which glittered her wedding-ring. -he gazed at her steadily, searchingly, and then his reproaches burst forth in a hurricane of fierce, scathing words.

hands, and all the waters of yonder sea can never wash it away. To wish you self," returned Ninon, as she nervously adjusted a spray of delicate, wax-white buds in the rich, black hair of her hand-on his livid visage.

She heard him crashing through the thorny wild rose-bushes, then above the plash of the sunset sea, she heard a dull, do you love Raoul so well?"

Camilla Kenwick sighed and stirred ations, and a futile attempt at rescue.

In vain! The hungry undertow must unessily in her luxurious dressing-chair of rosy velvet, as Ninon uttered Ralph's

And whiter than the face of the drowned name in the French rendering with a could ever be, were the cheeks of Mrs. Camilla Kenwick as she went back alone miration.

She called Nmon and told her of what had happened. mirror," she cried, with mercurial de-light, seeing how her deft duties had aghast; "there is blood on your hands, That night her maid could not be ghing; "black, and nothing more."

'They are like two black pools reflectCamilla was alone in her room—her evening stars," continued the attitude that of utter misery—her eyes fixed mournfully on the sea. What was pretty cap, half hid the round, infantile where on the sand in the foreground face that reddened and paled swiftly as they saw a boat drawn up and overturn-Get up, you silly child," commanded her dark hair flying in the wind and a infantile face radiant as a star. He was a handsome man of that dark, fascinating sort of beauty occasionally seen in old Spanish portraits. In form, feature and bearing, he was at once

In a few weeks Camilla lost her maid; mirer as she would have drawn him for Ninon sailed back to her own bonny among the ranks of promenaders, "but France with her husband—Antoire Char-

And Camilla and Ralph Kenwick, in He seated her on a mossy boulder in the shadow of a steep chiff grown thickly over with sweet briar and pink wild the trouble and romance ended so happily by the Summer Sea.

The Little that He Had in Bank. Among the subscribers to Audubon's magnificent work on ornithology was John Jacob Astor. He was always ready to encourage such works, and he put his me—you are very kind."
"Your husband, Camilla!" he cried; who but I who love you can ever be hat?"

"But are very kind."

"Your husband, Camilla!" he cried; one thousand dollars. During the progress of the work, which proved to be "Surely you should have known I am more expensive than had been at first anticipated, Mr. Audubon often found himself obliged to call upon his generous married," responded the woman, her himself obliged to call upon his generous heart heavy with dread, her cheeks blaz-patrons for assistance; but he did not patrons for assistance, our account of assistance, our account of the patron of the pa and the plates had been delivered. For a moment—one ominous moment the final delivery had been made, however, he called upon the great merchant for his thousand dollars. "Ah, Mr. Audubon," said the owner of millions, "you come in a very bad time. Money is scarce and hard, and I have everything snugly and tighly invested. And so the ornithologist called, time after time, and was often put off. It was not because Mr. Astor did not wish to pay, but it was from the strong desire, growing stronger with his years, to keep nis property intact, and see it increased sand dollars for a really benevolent pur-father wished to know something of the fresh from the cash-on-hand page of the ledger, and he answered: thousand in the Bank of New York; eighty thousand in the City Bank; nine-the Danube in the Face of a Heavy Turkish Fire. Details of the crossing of the Danube a mistake about his not caring for me in enterprise. Ger. Dragimirofs division

March of the control of the control

Facts Worth Remembering.

A queen bee lays from 10,000 to 30, one of the mine slope. After being in a sonseless into the mine slope, after being in a sonseless than two bundred different species of caterpillars feed upon the oak.

The attention of the Society for the orange of the engine passed into the mine slope. After being in a terioration; it has been found extremely all the various skin diseases, and its serviceableness has been satisfactorily proved in connection with all the various proved in connection with all the vari

Recipes. ECONOMICAL SPONGE CARR.—Three n

News who was an eye-witness of the enterprise. Ger. Dragimiron division had the post of honor, and was expected to make a footing on the Turkish side by carly morning. Prince Miorski's division was to make a night march from Lissa and be in position at Simnitza to follow its sister division arcross in the event of the latter's success. In the event of failure, it was to take up the grave loss in 1875 was due to bad or careless binding and shocking. Sheaves and shocks well bound and put up will of we weather third as much chopped suct, thyme or other herb to taste; salt and pepper; and shocks well bound and put up will of we weather third as much chopped suct, thyme or other herb to taste; salt and pepper; and shocks well bound and put up will of we weather third as much chopped suct, thyme or other herb to taste; salt and pepper; and shocks well bound and put up will of we weather third as much chopped suct, thyme or other herb to taste; salt and pepper; and shocks well bound and put up will of we weather the same of the number subsequently recognized by friends; but it is estimated that at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptibly into any other first at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptibly into any other first at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptibly into any other first at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptibly into any other first at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptibly into any other first at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptibly into any other first at least three-quarters remain unidentified. The relative number of recognitions has perceptible intent, without much injury, but loose sheaves of the Danube with the number of without much injury, but loose sheaves of the Danube wit casian for nothing. His boat was leading. The Turkish riflemen were in position about fifty vards from the shore. He landed his handful, and bade them lay down in the mud. One or two were down instantly with Turkish bullets. He opened a skirmishing fire to cover the landing hosts (the top of the paper wips it downward the collection of the landing hosts (the top of the paper wips it downward children was a great many dry seasons, when it appears like labor thrown away to go to any extra pains to blow the dust off with the bellows. Divide a white loaf of bread of eight days old into eight parts. Take the opened a skirmishing fire to cover the days old into eight parts. Take the days old into eight parts. Take the opened a skirmishing fire to cover the landing boats that followed. One by one these landed their freights, who followed the standard of the lightest manner with the crumb. Do not cross or go upward. The dirt of this early period are often moan the low-ebb condition of his cash in hand, when he caught a disapproving look from his son William, who happened to be present.

That volley was not in vain, but the Turkish volley was not in vain, but the Turks did not wait for cold steel. Yolchine's skirmishers followed him doggedly some distance upon the slope, but for the time could not press on far from the time could not press on far from the base. Busily, yet slowly, the craft may have a little in bank—William have we any money in bank.

Evidently John Jacob had expected his me grey dawn than the norm of the color of the house will not be filled with an offensive odor. Canned Corn. The condition of his cash in heavy side of the color of the house will not be filled with an offensive odor. Canned Corn. The corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of tartaric acid dissolved in boiling water; cut the corn take one ounce of t this cereal promises to command. It is to guard against loss from this cause, as

ECONOMICAL SPONGE CARE.—Three eggs, one cupful each of flour and sugar, three teaspoonfuls baking powder, one-three teaspoonfuls baking powder, one-three teaspoonfuls baking powder, one-three eggs, one cupful each of flour and sugar, the subject now. From personal extension of different fields of wheat in at Simnitza, opposite Sistova, are given by a correspondent of the London Daily quarter pint milk, salted and flavored to the shock, we know that very much of taste, made thin. It is nice for jelly the great loss in 1875 was due to bad or out her infantile wiftly as they saw a boat drawn up and overturned, and setting upon it a petite form, a scarlet shawl draped about her shoulders, manded her dark hair flying in the wind and a lover reclining at her feet.

"Why, love, isn't she your maid, Ninon "asked Ralph, giving Camilla his glass.

"The fair woman gazed through it with eyes wild with eagerness.

"The fair woman gazed through it with eyes wild with eagerness.

"It is estimated that no less than two bundered different species of caterpillars feed upon the oak. The engineer managed to make his way back to the month of the bank to resene their comrades. One after another they passed in, but were almost immediately overscome by the gas, and they, too, fell insensible. After soveral had fins fallen a gang was organized to rescue those whom went in last, and squads of four or five passed in until they came to a fallen to the ground in a senseless condition. The engineer managed to make his way back to the month of the bank to resene their comrades. One after another they passed in, but were almost immediately overscome by the gas, and they, too, fell insensible. After soveral had fins fallen a gang was organized to rescue those whom went in last, and squads of four or five passed in until they came to a fallen comrade, when they would take him in look in your dear face."

It is estimated that no less than two bundered different species of caterpillars fall to the ground in a senseless condition. The engineer managed to make his way back to the month of the bank, and gave an alarm. A large number of men rushed into the bank to rescene their comrades. One after another they passed in, but were almost immediately overscome by the gas, and they, too, fell insections of the coming with altoevarious substances used locally in discases of the educomposes.

From present appearances the coming have to even, the substances used locally in decomposes.

From the Bank to the Poer House.

From present appearances the coming them to decompose and alm. A large nu "No, madame," answered Ninon humbly as she rose; "but you will tell him to-day, will you not—to-day when you meet him by the sea?"

"Certainly, if you desire it, Ninon," responded Mis. Kenwick smiling. "And now bring me my wraps, I hear him ow bring me my wraps, I hear him saking for me in the hall below."

Prescurly the maid returned bringing a shawl of some misty, pale-rose fabric of distance between them and the two of distance between them and the two of the almshouse.

After soveral had thus fallen a gang was organized to rescue those the grasshoppers wear India-rubber to fathe the grasshoppers wear India-rubber as gang was organized to rescue those. The failure of the almshouse. Soon after the failure of the almshouse. One day he went to New York, and came that is Antoine Charlot with her. He is savel. Oh, my Ralph, once more I can asking for me in the hall below."

The roe of the grasshoppers wear India-rubber as gang was organized to rescue those. The failure of the almshouse. One day he went to New York, and came that is Antoine Charlot with her. He is savel. Oh, my Ralph, once more I can asking for me in the hall below."

The roe of the perch, only half a gang was organized to rescue those or the almshouse. One day he went to New York, and came that is Antoine Charlot with her. He is savel. Oh, my Ralph, once more I can asking for me in the largest and foot-the damage in certain localities, prostrating who went in last, and squads of four or five passed in until they came to a fallen of the their mot the ripening crops and injuring the corn. Many of our readers will remember the wet season of 1875, when so namy thou-they wet season of 1875, when so namy thou-they wet season of 1875, when so namy thou-they wet season of 1875, when so on totally destroyed by the continued asking for me in the largest and foot-they many than their mot the ripening crops and injuring the corn. Many of our readers will remember the wet season of 1875, when the grasshouse of the ripening crops and injuring the corn. Many of

AMONG THE UNKNOWN DEAD

From July 24, 1866, to July 2, 1877, ,761 bodies were received at the morgue in New York and recorded as unrecog-nized. The records are not so kept as that nineteen times within the last huntively seven, four and two and a half years, who were found to be utterly destitute and starving. They had begged a piece them, made their supper on the preceding night, and on the following day, when discovered they had not tasted food. Singularly enough their parents are not drunkards. Their father, a hod carrier,

Nineteen Passages of the Danube and Begration Obstinacy of Alexander.

On the eve of the crossing of the Dan ube by the Russian troops, some divi-sions of which are still on the northern bank of the river, the Militar Wochendoors, which shut over them. This wall across the river.

is directly in front of five slanting marble slabs, on which the unknown dead are placed for recognition. The door is usually unlocked; in the summer time it is left open. To the children of the neighborhood the morgue is an old story, but boys from other parts of the city of the carry in April, by Kamienski, at Ismails.

shire, and by the same family, the Por-tals, who are descended from some French Protestant refugees. So care-fully is the paper prepared that even the number of dips into the pulp made by each workman is registered on a dial by machinery, and the sheets are carefully counted and booked to each person through whose hands they pass. The through whose lands they pass. The printing is done by a most curious process in Mr. Coe's department within the bank building. There is an elaborate arrangement for securing that no note shall be exactly like any other in existthem, made their supper on the preceding night, and on the following day, when discovered they had not tasted food. Singularly enough their parents are not drunkards. Their father, a hod carrier, has been unable to obtain work, and their mother is sober, but out of health. This family has for weeks been living by begging and lying out at nights in lumber ber yards when the weather was not so warm, and on hot nights on the grass wherever a convenient spot could be found. The poor little ones presented a pittable sight, and when a meal was placed before them ate ravenously.

shall be exactly like any other in existence. Consequently there never was a duplicate of a Bank of England note, except by forgery. According to the city press, the stock of paid notes for seven yours is about 94,000,000 in number, and they fill 18,000 boxes, which, if placed in a pile, would reach three miles. The motes, placed in a pile, would be eight miles high; or, if joined end to end, would you like to go?" She replied: would form a ribtoon 15,000 miles long; their superficial extent is more then that of Hyde Park; their original value was over $15,000,000,000, and their weight over 112 tons.

HISTORICAL CROSSINGS.

Less and the in position of Shimiths by event of the latter's success, as the first of failure, it was to take up the fighting, and force a passage at all and the position of the state of the latter's success, and the position of the practice of that we canning of the state of the latter's success, and the practice of the practice o in grouperly intack, and seet interested, and seet interested, and seed in the years, to keep and dollars for a really benevolent purpose he felt good, as a man feels good his was the possess of the first boat load, who has got rid of an aching tools. It is made to make a suppose he felt good, as a man feel good has been proved.

It may have a little in bank—William B. though of the graph of

She seemed a bird, her longing voice the sweet A warbler caged, the rain the bars that close confined her.

In the Shower

A girl sat at an open window, sweetly singing In gushing shower the summer rain was earth ward winging.

Sing on, though doors be closed, content with good endeavor, Rather than free, to breast the storm, and fall

Items of Interest.

A good many men are in the best of alth when they are out of spirit. From 1794 to 1873 there were 8,045,-838 silver dollars coined. None were made between 1805 and 1836, and none in 1858.

A belle, just from Vassar College, when told by the waiter that they had no gooseberra exclaimed: "What has happened to the goose!"

Everything in a name. The small paths in Fairmount park are called footpaths, while the very large path on the other side of the river is called a tow-

"How many children have you?" asked one friend of an old acquaintance. "Well, I have five, but they were eating cucumbers when I left home and they may be all doubled up now."

"Do those bells sound an alarm fire?" said a stranger, the other Sunday, as the church bells were calling together the worshipers. "Yes," was the reply, "but the fire is in the next world."

drops you.

This is what is just killing enterprise in the Black Hills: A paragraph in the telegraphic columns of a daily paper assures us that one "ten stamp mill has just cleared up $7,000 worth of gold," and the paragraph following tells us how the "road agents have just cleaned out a stage, robbing all the passengers and asking $7,000 from the treasure box." At this rate it is very evident it would take about four or five ten stamp mills to keep even with the road agents.

It is related that the late General whether he shall divide the which giving each of the twins one-sixth of the estate, or whether he shall carry out the testator's purpose to serve all the 'children alike by giving them and the widow each one-fourth, or whether, again, he shall give the widow her third and divide the other two-thirds among the three chil-dren. The case being wholly without precedent in this State, the court gave the executor no advice, and the conundrum is to be brought in some way fore the supreme court.