STATE DEM. TICKET.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE JOHN TRUSKEY, of Venango. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL WM. P. SCHREIBER, of Bedford. FOR STATE TREASURER COL. A. C. NOYES, of Clinton.

The latest commission, since the 8-7 commission, is the "Sitting Bull" commission, which was to have Washington on Wednesday for Fort Benton. From Chicago they will be accompanied by the Canadian commissioner. From Fort Benton they will be accompanied by a military escort to the Canadian border where a Canadian escort will be furnished as far as Fort Walsh, from which point negotiations will be conducted. Both governments are anxious to avoid any possible diplomatic complications in the future, should Sitting Bull be Canadian territory as a base for hostile operations against the United States.

The whole of the "Sitting Bull" commission, including Sitting Bull, is estimated at $2,000. Instructions to the commission, which will be submitted to the cabinet, make the ultimatum of this government the surrender of Sitting Bull and his warriors as prisoners of war.

We imagine that Hayes—occupying the presidential chair fraudulently—must feel like a fish out of water, uncomfortable all the time. He sees that his countrymen stand almost as aloof from him as the British stand from the British monarch. The leading men of his party are with few exceptions giving him the cold shoulder. The democrats, notwithstanding he is carrying out their policy, can not be enticed into giving him administration that moral support which it would receive from them if he were the fairly elected president. The man sees and concludes otherwise.

The Philadelphia Times says the threat made at Cincinnati by Jewett, the secretary of the Louisiana Republican State central committee, that in certain emergencies he would expose the manner in which Louisiana was carried by doctoring the returns of supervisors, contains a good deal more than appears on the surface, and some of the circumstances are known to several persons. After the election the supervisors of East and West Feliciana sent in their returns without protest, each ridiculing the idea of protesting on account of intimidation. The Democratic majority in East Feliciana was 1,743 votes, as cast in the regular boxes, and over 400 cast in other boxes by men deprived of registration, owing to the fraud of the supervisors. This brought the Democratic majority up to some 2,200. In West Feliciana it was about 600. When it was found that Hayes' election depended on the State all the power of the Republican chiefs was brought to bear on these two supervisors.

The Iowa democracy held their state convention last week and nominated Mr. Irish for governor by acclamation, and adopted a greenback and anti-specie-resumption platform. Great cheering followed the announcement made in his remarks, by the chairman that Sam'l J. Tilden must be vindicated by a re-nomination in 1880.

From our exchange we observe that the democratic state ticket is hailed with the greatest satisfaction all over the state. Trunkay, Schell and Noyes are the men for the people and the times. Even republican journals admit that our nominees are good men. Honesty and integrity has stamped their lives.

The names of the chief of the Russian staff is Gen. Nepokitchinsky. The only way we know of to remodel such a lawbreaker is by having him to have breakfast by sitting three times before breakfast and have it knocked into better shape.

GREAT WHEAT FARMING.

A friend has sent us a copy of a Dakota paper, with the articles below marked which will be interesting reading for some of our Centre county farmers.

A friend in Geneva, Ill., writes that he has heard a great deal about the "Dalrymple farm," near Fargo, and has also seen many contradictory statements about the size of this year, and asks us to give him a "bill of particulars." In the benefit of our correspondents, we have broken it into two parts. In the first farming operations, we will state that what is called the "Dalrymple farm" is a tract of about 11,000 acres of land near Cassioton, twenty miles west of Fargo, on the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Dalrymple also owns a half interest in what is known as the "Grandin farm," a tract of 40,000 acres just north of Elm River, in Traill County, N. D., 25 miles west of Fargo. The other owners are the Grandin Brothers, bankers of Tidoute, Pa. On this farm there are 3,500 acres of wheat, and some 1,500 acres broken for next year. To harvest his crop of 7,500 acres on the wheat, he required 45 self-binding reapers, 25 horse-drawn mowers, nine steam threshers, each with a capacity of 1,000 bushels per day, are now at work there.

Mr. Noyes, our nominee for state treasurer, has promised to attend the Berks county fair.

The day of reckoning has come for the South Carolina ring, composed of scoundrels and carpet baggers, who under the protection of Grant's bayonets robbed and plundered the state wholesale. A telegram from Columbia, of Aug. 29, says that on that day the grand jury found true bills against 120 indictments against the ex-treasurers of the state, including ex-treasurers Dunn and Hoge, ex-speaker Lee, Clerk of General Assembly Woodruff and Jones, ex-State Senator Owens and others on various serious charges of fraud in connection with the discharge of their official duties.

Brigham Young died at Salt Lake City, on Tuesday 23d, aged 76 years. The death of the Mormon ruler would settle the matter that marriage, or being much married, will not shorten a man's career on earth; for old Brigham was married to him matrimonially to women and lived to a good old age—much longer than the majority of bachelors.

Still Brigham's enduring such a load of petitions does not argue that it is necessary for a man to be numerously married in order to have long life—a good many chaps have shortened their lives because they took one wife, and the experience of such would be that it were better to commit suicide nineteen times than to get married once. Brigham Young—now dead and gone—is an exception to this reasoning—he stood it all and endured it to a ripe old age, and leaves many "widows" to mourn his departure. "It is not good for man to be alone," says the good book.

According to The Engineering and Mining Journal, the quickest piece of rail laid in the world is that of the Philadelphia and Atlantic City. The distance is 55 miles, and the gauge 3 feet; among the excavations there are one of 40 feet, among embankments, one of 180 feet long using 25,000 cubic yards of earth, which was built by the use of bridges and culverts there are more than 100. The whole road was constructed in 67 days, and in that time the contractor, Mr. Sam'l J. Tilden, made a reputation as a creditable piece of engineering, and it had the unusual merit of coming within the estimate.

As a companion piece to this we present the construction of the L. C. & S. C. R.R., now reaching from Lewisburg to Spring Mills, a distance of 30 miles, and about 5 years foiled around in constructing it. In 60 days it was completed, and in 60 miles in five years shows "how not to do it."

Among the crew of robbers who plundered South Carolina since the war, it is our own John J. Patterson, of Catawba County, who was arrested at Columbia, returned true bills against Governor R. H. Glaves, C. W. Montgomery, ex-President of the Senate, A. O. Jones and Governor F. J. Moses for breach of trust with fraudulent intent, and against Moses for hiring and counselling breach of trust with fraudulent intent. The charges involve the issue of fraudulent certificates to various persons, some of whom were wholly fictitious, the offense being committed at the time the accused were officers of the General Assembly. True bills were also returned against Niles G. Parker for larceny and breach of trust, and F. S. Jacobs, teller of the South Carolina Banking and Trust Company, for larceny in inducing and receiving in the names of John Mooney and John Leggett for money amounting to $36,040, obtained upon two warrants stolen from the executive officers when Scott was Governor. The sum was used as a corruption fund upon members of the Legislature in 1877 to secure the impeachment of Scott.

Despite the unexpected crisis in France the preparations for the Exhibition of 1878 are making rapid progress. An official report the Minister of Commerce states that the buildings will be completed in a few months. The space was expected—and that space has been allotted to French exhibitors and to every nation which has applied for it. The exhibition will be held in the Grand Palais, which has been erected in accordance with the rules followed at the Exhibition of 1867. A sum of $30,000,000 is appropriated for these buildings, which are to be made by an international jury composed of 250 foreigners and 500 Frenchmen. Among the prizes for general, agricultural, industrial, and money and 1,000 gold and 4,000 silver medals.

PENNA DEM. PLATFORM. First—That the induction of Rutherford B. Hayes into the office of President, notwithstanding the election of Samuel J. Tilden there was a high crime against the people of Pennsylvania, and that the government, which has not been so degraded and will not be forgotten. The same spirit of patriotism which forbore a contest upon the first offense will resist and punish any attempt at a second.

Second—That the immediate reply to the application by the Federal administration of the Democratic policy of non-intervention in internal affairs of Southern States apply vindictive our frequent attacks against the measures of the several States to exercise all power not delegated to the Federal Government by express constitutional provision.

Third—That the purpose to reform the Civil Service, and to remove all office holders from all the ridges from Bassler to Sanadana. By four o'clock Karassan was in flames. The Russian gradually gave way, and the Turks doubled the energy of their attack. At five o'clock the Russian batteries were retreating upon the guns of the battery. The Turkish battery was making splendid progress, and first just as the guns were taken off. One gun was struck with the last shot, and the Russian army was retreating by the blazing way and way to the left to Popokai like a pack of hounds. The Russian camp was hastily cleared out, and the guns were taken off.

Fourth—That we accept the amendment of Jackson in saying that standing armies are dangerous to free governments in time of peace. "I shall not seek to enlarge the military establishment of the country. We oppose further enactments for its special benefit at the expense of other interests. Labor and capital should have no cause for antagonism, and they should be left free to adjust their own relations. We will not support any measure for their benefit."

Fifth—That we accept the amendment of Jackson in saying that standing armies are dangerous to free governments in time of peace. "I shall not seek to enlarge the military establishment of the country. We oppose further enactments for its special benefit at the expense of other interests. Labor and capital should have no cause for antagonism, and they should be left free to adjust their own relations. We will not support any measure for their benefit."

SIXTH—That many of our rich men have not been content with equal production and equal benefit, but have been content to make their money by the use of their social relations disturbed by such control. He also emphatically declared to go any further in the direction of the establishment of odious privileges, under the pretext of public benefit, or of justice to certain sections of the country, are a direct assault upon the rights of the people, and as such monopolies have been contrived to enrich a few, while a large number of people are reduced to want. The Democracy of Pennsylvania protests against subsidies, land grants, loans of the public credit, and any other form of people's money to any corporation as legalized plunder of the tax-paying industries of the country.

SEVENTH—That we look with alarm and apprehension upon the pretensions of the great temporal power of the Pope, and above the fundamental law of this Commonwealth, which governs all else within our borders, and until they accept the Constitution of 1875 in good faith, they should remain objects of the just vigilance and jealousy by both the Legislature and the people. Resolved, That we hereby re-affirm and adopt the financial resolutions of the National Democratic platform, adopted at St. Louis in 1876.

THE RUSSIANS ATTACKED AT THREE POINTS BY THE TURKS. The Turks Replied in Several Engagements. Constantinople, August 31.—A telegram from Shumla, dated yesterday, announced that the column of Suleiman Pasha has advanced from Kalk-Djuma, and crossed the river Lom, near Agashar, driving back the Russian, who, after short resistance, retired to the river.

MEHMET'S VICTORY. A Disastrous Russian Defeat. London, September 1.—The Times correspondent with the Turkish army telegraphs the following description of Thursday's battle, apparently from personal observation. Early this morning Nedjib Pasha advanced from Adakery, near Kars, with three brigades, two batteries of artillery, two squadrons of cavalry and one brigade of infantry reserves. Mehmet Pasha, with his staff on a high hill immediately north of Yenikoi, which commands an uninterrupted view from Kars to beyond Osman Bazar. The Russian, from their batteries behind Sadana, fired their guns at the Turkish columns. The Turkish steadily advanced and entered the burning village of Sadana by 11:30 o'clock. The retreating Russians were hotly pressed. They retired precipitately to Karassan, where they made a vigorous stand. Sabit Pasha created a diversion by attacking Haidarkoi. The Russian had a battery of three guns to their right near Haidarkoi. They made splendid practice at the advancing Turkish columns, but could not prevent them from advancing to the right and left of the village in a really workmanlike manner.

THE ENGAGEMENT BECOMES GENERAL. The engagement now became general, and extended over some fifteen miles. A Turkish column of 10,000 men, which was heard along all the ridges from Bassler to Sanadana. By four o'clock Karassan was in flames. The Russian gradually gave way, and the Turks doubled the energy of their attack. At five o'clock the Russian batteries were retreating upon the guns of the battery. The Turkish battery was making splendid progress, and first just as the guns were taken off. One gun was struck with the last shot, and the Russian army was retreating by the blazing way and way to the left to Popokai like a pack of hounds. The Russian camp was hastily cleared out, and the guns were taken off.
