" Look at Home."

Should you feel inclined to censure Faults you may in others view, Ask your own heart, ere you venture If that has not failing, too.

Let not friendly vows bebroken, Rather strive a friend to gain Many a word in anger spoken Finds its passage back again

Do not, then, in idle pleasure, Trifle with a brother's fame Guard it as a valued treasure. Sacred as your own good name

Do not form opinions blindly, Hastiness to trouble tends : Those of whom we've thought unkindly Oft become our warmest friends.

Suppose.
