Tweed was up again for examination Wednesday last.

The sensation of the session was Mr. Tweed's assertion that his escape from Ludlow street jail cost him $60,000. Mr. Cole elicited from him that he paid the money to those who aided him, and that he did not pay any of it to any official. Mr. Cole then asked: "What kind of aid did you receive?" Mr. Tweed raised a laugh by answering sharply: "What kind of aid would you expect, if you wanted to get away and couldn't?" tration was in full force. The town of Puerto Pata was occupied by the revolution-ists, who were besieging the fort and expect dit to surrender momentarily. There was great agitation throughout the republic. No details have been received from the interior, as the roads were intercepted and communication was impossible.

A fearful hurricane visited Curcura and the neighboring islands on September 23, "

**DISTRICT ATTORNEY**

It is needless to say that the democratic county convention, in nominating D. F. Fortney, eso., for district attorney has relected an eminently fit gentleman for the position. Mr. Fortney has had nearly ten years of experience and successful practice at the county bar, where his efforts have been crowned with more than usual success. He has given evidence of properties and successful practice at the county bar, where his efforts have been crowned with more than usual success. He has given evidence of properties and successful practice at the county bar, where his efforts have been crowned with more than usual success.
