Love and Friendship

The birds, when winter shades the sky Fly o'er the seas away. Where laughing isles in sunshine lie, And summer breezes play : And thus the friends that flutter near, Are startled if a cloud appear. And fly before the storm.

But when from winter's howling plains Each other warbler's past, The little snow-bird still remains. And chirrups midst the blast. Love, like that bird, when friendship'

With fortune's sun depart, And nestles on the heart.

Catching a Tartar.

A rat with a greedy appetite, Went fishing with his tail one night; He once had seen a fox do that-And if a fox, why not a rat? For surely he is quite as knowing gin his return at so early an hour that nothing that way either; then they had been for many years. Mr. Devins had lost several sheep and hogs, and deemed it unsafe for any of his family to be caught far from the house at night.

Allan armed himself with his list to he house at high the list to happened when Allan was thrown a grant to himself of Gould's facilities, whenever necessary, rifle, put some biscuits and cold meat in a pouch strapped to his waist, mounted one of the strong farm-horses, and set out on his journey. The road through the forest was better than he expected to find it, and the snow had whitened all its hear different file. When different heart is a power of the last struggle of the lost such as fine salmon, and knowing that hither side. When Governor Gerry managed Massachusetts, a country deacon happened to boy. The snow had whitened all its hither side. When different heart is and urged you to get on with it; and thus, day by day, you were ordered by your master to do the same job. Suppose again, that while you were work-catch a fine salmon, and knowing that it was for; and that you have different heart is a propose again, that while you were work-catch a fine salmon, and knowing that the governor had a particular liking for his business.

ahead, and the ircreasing cold of the advancing night would render a refuge in a tree-top probably as deadly as an "Tayenathonto no find; come

Presently there came a cry, shriller and sharper than before, and Allan, ooking back, saw a great, lean, hungry

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1877.

pack-the strongest, fleetest, hungriest where he was hailed as Allan's rescuer one among them—was within a dozen and enjoyed to the full a share of the yards of Allan, who was now riding faster festivities. than ever old Bob had gone before or ever would go again. Excitement made the lad's blood boil in his veins, and he winter, he tells his grandchildren of his

VOLUME X.

Allan—a rugged, the succeeding night. Allan ate slightly, the succeeding night. Allan ate slightly, quenched his thirst with a few drops of water obtained by melting snow in the e end of November, country, lay upon about for means to get out. He soon the atter-day condomation cars, which serve for sleeper, draw-ing-room and dining-car. Mr. Gould with him a short-hand secretary and a telegraphic operator. Mr. Dillon only his short-hand secretary. Mr. Gould friendly Cayuga Indian brought them boy. He visited the Inmans' and learnnews of how badly their neighbors fared. ed the particulars of Allan's stay and the despatch was directed to the care of Mr. Devins was especially touched by the bad case of his friend Will Imman, who lived on the nearest farm. The poor man lay ill of a fever; Mrs. Inman was dead and temporarily buried, man was dead and temporarily buried, until her body could be removed to the care of the train despatch was directed to the until her body could be removed to the cemetery in Owenton, and all the care of the family devolved upon Esther, his deep thought and the country in deep thought and the country in deep thought and the special and deliver the message down one station in advance. The operator at that station would signal the special and deliver the message down one station in advance. The operator at that station would signal the special and deliver the message down one station in advance. The operator at that station would signal the special and deliver the message down one station in advance. The operator at that station would signal the special and deliver the message down one station in advance.

Allan armed himself with his light from the horse's back that his rifle flew for his business.

waterfall; couldn't help his self."

A very few minutes sufficed to put both on the surface again, where Allau was received "like one come from the dead," and closely folded in his father's notes of exultation, for the leader of the happy father and son to their home, not "pitched his tent" on the slope of Otter creek; so now he began with renewed energy his second home, in which the closing in of the winter of 1839 found him. He had sixty acres of rich soil under cultivation at the time of which we are to speak, his right-hand.

The storm lasted all day and far into the protected space where he lay.

The storm lasted all day and far into the protected space where he lay.

The storm lasted all day and far into the protected space where he lay.

snow set in before the end of November, and, even in the open country, lay upon the ground until the beginning of April, while in the recesses of the forest it was found as late as the middle of June. There was great distress among the settlers outside of the bounds of civilization, to whom the deep snow was an impassable barrier. The Devinses neither saw nor heard from their nearest neighbors from the 1st of December till near the beginning of February, when a crust was formed upon the snow sufficiently firm to bear the weight of a man, and a friendly Capuga Indian brought them news of how health that no distinct the soon the ground and to the reporter that every hours about for means to get out. He soon found that to dig his way up through the mass of snow that filled the cellar was beyond his powers. If he could have there outside of the bounds of civilization, to whom the deep snow was an impassable barrier. The Devinses neither saw nor heard from their nearest neighbors from the 1st of December till near the beginning of February, when a crust was formed upon the snow sufficiently firm to bear the weight of a man, and a friendly Capuga Indian brought, them

The second morning of his imprisonments and cheerful, and Mr. Devins set out to search for traces of his boy. He visited the Inmans' and learn-new of how health that a short-hand a cretary and a begraphic operator. Mr. Dillon only his short-hand secretary. Mr. Gould notified the reporter that every hours a spring of vine climbing over them. He saws had a spring of vine climbing over them. He saws had a spring of vine climbing over them. He saws had a spring of vine climbing over them. He saws had a spring of vine climbing over them. He saws a proposed to the trace of his short-hand secretary. Mr. Gould notified to the reporter that every hours a spring of vine climbing over them. He saws had a spring of vine climbing over them. He call has the country he noticed that the country had the supplied to the reporter that every hours a proposition only his sh Upon its receipt the special would immediately pull out, and Mr. Gould would consider and digest the message. If it needed reply, he would dictate to his short-hand assistant, who would translate for the special would be repulsed for the specia of the family devolved upon Esther, his daughter, fourteen years old. After a short consultation, the next morning breaking bright and clear though very cold, it was determined to allow Allan to go over the hill to Inman's, bearing medicine, tea, and other little necessaries for the family. He was impressively warned to begin his return at so early an hour that the solution of the family devolved upon Esther, his deep thought, and then asked:

"No horse, no boy back there?" would consider and digest the message, if it needed reply, he would dictate to his short-hand assistant, who would translate for the operator. When the term had been a trace left by the recent reply was really the engineer would be signalled, the train stopped, and in two minutes the main wire would be hauled down, cut, attached to the instrument, and Mr. Gould consider and digest the message.

"No. I have looked carefully, and if translate for the operator. When the special would consider and digest the message.

"No. I have looked carefully, and if translate for the operator. When the reply was really the engineer would be signalled, the train stopped, and in two minutes the main wire would down, cut, attached to the instrument, and the mediately pull out, and Mr. Gould consider and digest the message.

If it needed reply, he would dictate to his short-hand assistant, who would translate for the operator. When the reply was really the engineer would be signalled, the train stopped, and in two minutes the main wire would be will be also an intervent of the mediately pull out, and Mr. Gould consider and digest the message.

"No. I have looked carefully, and if translate for the operator. When the reply was really the engineer would be signalled, the train stopped, and in two minutes the main wire would down, cut, attached to the instrument.

and the message winging its way to New York. To twist the wire together, let it he might reach home before the short day's end, especially because of the danger from wild animals. The severity of the winter had made the wolves more venturesome and dangerous than they expected to find it, and the snow had been drifted off, but at the turns, and in the thickest part of the wood, his horse floundered through drifts more than breast high; and more than once Allan had to dismount and beat a path ahead.

Lerefore, he did not reach Irman's till two o'clock, and, by the time he had helped Esther about her work, assistal had to dismount and beat a path ahead.
Lerefore, he did not reach Irman's till two o'clock, and, by the time he had helped Esther about her work, assisted her young brother to get i. a good absence of railroads, started in his wagon

for Boston. On the journey he stopped to dine, and telling at the table his errand in regard to the fish, a practical ber young brother to get i. a good horse; Allan further on."

absence of railroads, started in his wagon
for Boston. On the journey he stopped to dine, and telling at the table his errand in regard to the fish, a practical index present could not resist the temptalock properties of slipping and to the fish, a practical index properties of slipping and to the fish a practical index properties of slipping and to the fish a practical index properties of slipping and the slipping helped Esther about her work, assisted her young brother to get i. a good supply of wood, and made i ngs more comfortable for the invalid ... was almost sundown. He stoutly refu ed to wait for supper, declaring that the luncheon still in his pouch would serve, and started jus as the short twilight came on. He was a brave lad, and with no thought of peril, went off, kissing his hand gaily to Esther.

It took him an hour to traverse the first three miles, and then he came to a stretch of comparatively bare ground leading through his father's old clearing, and almost to the top of the hill back of Mr. Devins' house. He was just urging old Bob into a trot, when a long, clear howl broke upon his ear; then another for an encounter.

The Indian sputtered, thrashed about you are in Boston you are a miserable howl broke upon his ear; then another and another answered from east and south. He knew what that meant. It was the cry of the advance guard of a pack of wolves.

The howling sounded near, and came swiftly nearer, as though the wolves had found his tracks and scented their prev. Old Bob trembled in every limb, and seemed powerless to move. Allan realized that he could not, before dark, reach home through the drifts ahead, and the ircreasing cold of the

AN INTERVIEW WITH TWEED.

Reminiscences of His Asse Opinion of Sweeney, Huli, Jim Fiske and Jay Gould---What He would do if Out of Snakes in the Alleghany Mountains. Rattlesnakes are in great numbers in some parts of this district, writes a cor-respondent who has been sojourning among the Alleghany mountains in Pennsylvania, They have their dens on

TURKEY IN WAR TIMES.

Picturesque Scepe at Constantinople .- The Turks Becoming Desperate and Resolute Ald for the Wounded-Sulciman and His

in which is disting place, it was already and the dealth of the animal particles of the asimon. When he resolution the test of the asimon, when he resolution the asimon is the opened that he are in the asim

TREED BY A BIG BEAR.

TERMS: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

NUMBER 43.

OYSTERS AND STAR FISH.

The Remarkable Story that Comes From the Pennsylvania Mountains—A Little Girl's Adventure While Looking for Her

Secretary of the control of the cont As the oyster culture is so imp with the control of the set of the register of the control of the

It is rule or be ruled ; In courtship or marriage It is fool or be fooled In logic and law, It is nick or be nicked;

In gambling and trade, It is trick or be tricked

It is beat or be beaten In the struggle for life,

Getting fat-Buying lard.

How many peas are there in a pint?

A New York storekeeper sells only

What does every one thirst after?-A

The estimated peanut crop for 1877-8 is 843,000 bushels.

When does a farmer work a miracle? When he turns his horse to grass. In the volatile Black Hills a duel is spoken of as a "shooting sociable."