When we embarked with our craft, nine years ago, into the journalistic sea, it was without change in the principle on which exsound of trumpet or firing of guns ; we changes are conducted before the metals launched quietly with 175 passengers of our list, and as we sailed along, through calm as well as quiet waters, we every where met those that asked to be taken aboard, until now we have a good, solid list well on to 1200 names and we are gratified to know that the REPORTER is a favorite at the best firesides of Centre county, and one of the widest circulated papers in the county. We have reached this without chromos, almanacs, treats, or canvassers-the best evidence that ed proportion established by nature bewe are publishing a paper that meets the wants of our people, we are gratified at this substantial evidence that our labors are appreciated.

Our friends have our thanks for their By the act of congress of 1791 it was de support-we have endeavored to give them full value for their money, and with their continued encouragement we will strive to further improve the Rr-PORTER.

The California legislature, on 18, elected Hon. James T. Farley, democrat, United States Senator, in place of Sargent, republican. So good bye another States it is declared that "No state shall republican senator, California has had dc., coin money, emit bills of credit, enough of them.

Hayes intends not to give way t Conkling, and will retain his cabine members in spite of the big New York gobbler, and keep on in "my policy." Beecher, in a sermon, a few Sabbath ago, uttered his dispelief in there being a hell. Since then the matter has been discussed in quite a number of New York pulpits, with a good sprinkling of preachers who have a leaning the same as Beecher in this matter. Perhaps, for their own safety, some of the ministers are wishing there were no hell.

Gen. Grant paid a visit to Vesuvius, the other day, but the old crater wouldn't erupt, worth a cent, though Ves is as big a smoker as Grant. ....

A bill is before congress, and likely t become a law, allowing the civilized In dian tribes a delegate in congress. Since the negroes are represented as full members, may as well allow the injuns a delegate.

Conkling seems to be making hi fight more against Evarts and Schurz than against Hayes, and is trying to fore them to resign their cabinet positions.
