CENTRE HALL, Pa., May 23. 1878 Gov. Hartranft has appointed Hon

J. B. Linn, of Bellefonte, secretary of the commonwealth, vice Quay who got the Philad. recordership. The senate unanimously confirmed Mr. Linn's nomination. The nomination is a good one-Mr. Linn is a gentleman of the highest integrity, and well qualified for the important position.

The Morning Patriot says : Gen James A. Beaver of Centre county is a gallant soldier whose mutilated body is proving that a little learning is a dan bears testimony to his devotion to his gerous thing, and that his army of procountry. The nomination of Cameron's man Hoyt, did not go down without a growl, and did not call out much enthusiasm. On the motion to make the nomina tion of Hoyt unanimous Dr. Taylor, of Chester county, took the floor and said that while he did not want to disparage Gen. Hoyt he wanted to know whether it was worth while to spend $15,000 or $20,000 to come here and hold what is called a Convention when everything is arranged before hand. This expression was greeted with loud applause showing that while the Convention was carrying out the plans of the managers the better sense of the delegates revolted at so humiliating a course. An'effort was made to choke him off but he went on to demand a right to be heard in the in-terests of the Republican party. Loud cries of "go on" followed, and he pro-ceeded to ask whether the Republican party could afford to have its ticket made out in the Lochiel Hotel. He ad ded that if the Republican party did no want defeat, they must take new guides Dr. Taylor, having said this much, was proceeding to tell what he knew about ring manipulations, when he was shut off by a point of order. It is safe to say that he reflected the sentiments of a large number of the delegates, for upon making Hovts nomination unaning there was a very considerable number of
