

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

Centre Hall, Pa., Thurs. July 11, 1878.

TERMS—$2 per year, when paid in advance. Single copies 25 cents. Advertisements 25 cents per line for three insertions, and 50 cents per line for every subsequent insertion.

LOCAL ITEMS. There was a tremendous shower of rain in this section on the morning of the 4th.

Our farmers are nearly through cutting grain. The crop is an abundant one.

Rev. Roeder will preach in the Reformed church of this place, next Sabbath evening.

Rev. Dr. Zigler, of Selingsgrove, preached in the Luth. church of this place last Sabbath morning.

It is now time for the snake story—the snake need not be more than 10 feet long.

New hay is delivered in Lebanon county at 50 per ton.

Centre county fair, Oct. 9, 10 and 11th—some weeks later than formerly.

Circulation of the Reporter among the largest in the county. Rates less than average. Business men want circulation when they advertise—that's what they pay for.

Jan. A. Sweetwood sends us samples of his barley, 3 feet in length. This is over double ordinary length for that kind of seed, and the band can now send farm Sweetwood.

If you want a real good and cheap summer suit, go to the Eagle Clothing Hall, J. Newman, Jr., Bellefonte, and you will make a bargain. The largest stock always in the city.

Capt. Jno. A. Hunter, Geo. M. Bond and Wm. Shortledge are chosen by the Centre Co. Agr. Socy. to represent the same at the election of trustees for State College.

Go to Newman's for a cool suit these hot days. He has the suits for the season, and what is better still cheaper than any one else.

The P. G. S. S. will hold a basket picnic in the grove south of the Stone mill, on Saturday, Aug. 3. All are invited to come, but not to forget their baskets.

The Loop hall is to furnish music for the occasion. There will be addresses by Rev. D. Ziegler, and Dr. Zigler. By order of the committee—A. N. Kankle, Daniel Fleisher, John Kishel.

Mr. David Shafer of Miles town, sends an oak suit to the Reporter office, 51 feet in length. This is democratic oak. This wagon is no doubt the handsomest in the county, and was built in the coach shop of Levi Murray, Centre Hall.

The painting is of the highest finish, costly and finished and all the work about first-class order, and creditable to Mr. Murray's shops. The wagon will suit 30 persons.

Lost—Between Centre Hall and Housburg, a pair of spectacles, steel case, belonging to Mrs. Ziegler, who will be suitably rewarded by leaving them with Prof. Fetter, Centre Hall.

Fred Decker, of College, sends us samples of his farming a rye stalk 7 feet long, and a few wheat stalks nearly 5 feet long. This is democratic grain which Mr. Decker found in some clovered fields a few years ago, and which he planted and finds to do well—he calls it the coffee wheat, and has already sown a crop of it.

The snake story of the season—300 rattlesnakes killed by girls in York county, while out berrying. The reptiles were basking on a ledge of rocks and the damsel threw stones upon them until all rattling was hushed, then went down to see the field—and found 300 dead. What bothers us is why it was not made a record 100.

First class Italian marble—the only place to get fine tombstones at very low prices, is at Heiler's Bellefonte Marble Works.

The next session of the Boarding Academy and Normal Institute will begin on the 22nd of July 1878, and continue two weeks. Special attention will be given to those preparing to teach.

Boarding with furnished rooms can be had at $2.00 to $3.00 per week. Tuition from $4.00 to $6.00 per term, payable one half in advance.

All communications should be addressed to S. D. Ray, A. B. F. Recorder.

There will be a fair at Phillipsburg on the 4th. A big turnout, fine oration by Gov. Curtin, Casanova made the thing a success and a neck of "taking fellows in" in an open hearted manner.

Bellefonte had a 4th of July affair—fire companies, speech by T. Alexander and others, and fireworks at night.

A choice lot of stone ware, wholesale to merchants, and retail to others, at very low figures, at Seehler's, Bellefonte. Also, the choicest lot of cheese in the county.

Chas. Held, watchmaker, at Millheim, did on last Sabbath morning Mr. Held had been sick several weeks, and about a week ago had a stroke of palsy, conscious and did not recover. He was a respected citizen of Millheim, and leaves a wife and children.

The cheapest dusters, and nicest and best fitting shirts, at Newman's Clothing Hall, where you can get a whole lot, from hat down to boots for about half what others will charge you.

Fresh drugs and medicines at Frank Green's, the oldest drug establishment in the county. All kinds of useful fancy articles, coal oil, patent candles, pens, brushes, choicest lot of fishing tackle, &c., &c., in the Bush house block, Bellefonte.

A specialty is made in Quonessare by Seehler & Co., and they have upon the shelves the most elegant assortment of that kind of goods, in the county. All housekeepers and persons just commencing will do well to see Seehler's Quonessare before purchasing elsewhere. Orders very cheap.

On eve of 4th, some cows helped themselves to Dr. Miller's pills, which he had tied a few moments in front of Centre Co. bank, at Bellefonte, and took some girls out riding. Returning, and letting them out at Youen's corner, he started for a drive up the hill but the horse turned and began to back and was taken hold of by some men, when the driver jumped out and ran. The horse in backing broke some of the wheels.

The Harrisburg Telegraph advises all look out for the "Wagon Tongue Supporter" and "Patent Shear" articles, which are now at work in different parts of the county.

List of Letters remaining in the Post Office at Centre Hall, Pa. July 10th 1878. James C. Barger, 1. Miss Florence Smith, 2. A. KESNAPS, 1. M.

Dr. Alexander is tall on tall tales rather than him. He brought a stock to this office measuring just six feet. We can see Bill in that. The band on the corral Alexander.

Names added to list of candidates—J. N. Hall, Commissioner. J. B. Hochman, Commissioner.

Shannon sends us a stalk of clover, from the yard of Mrs. George Olenkirk, measuring 3 feet 8 inches. It won't take a large patch of that sort to make a ton.

Col. Coburn had a costly monument erected over the grave of Thomas Hutton, on the Hutton burial ground, near this place.

Thermometer at 90 nearly every afternoon for a week.

PROTHONOTARY. To the People of Centre County, As the time is near at hand for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices of the county, we, the undersigned, do hereby give notice that we will receive nominations for the offices of Prothonotary, Sheriff, and Judges of the County, on the 15th day of August, 1878, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the Court House in Centre Hall, Pa.

THE LAW OF PUBLIC SALES.—In a sale by auction there are several parties, namely: the auctioneer and a portion of the public who attend to bid, the vendor, the purchaser, the highest bidder. The name of the owner must be made public. The name of the purchaser must be made public, and unless the vendor reserves one open bid he cannot bid himself or his agent, and if he does so he is liable to a fine of $100, and if he does so a second time he is liable to a fine of $200.

When the time comes round and called him out, to go to Gettysburg. To reveal in the p.m. he turned away and went to Gettysburg, Pa. And on this he bestowed his last request.

THE NEW GAME LAW. Governor Hartranft on Monday signed the new Game and Fish law, and it is the most important provision since that of 1862.
