BURRHOUGH GRANT.

The Hon. Frank Sherman, then a United States Senator from the State of Ohio, and a visiting statesman to Louisiana on the 23rd of November, 1874, wrote to Mr. Hayes, now by a corrupt and villainous process Acting President, and then and now a private citizen, in reference to occurrences in Louisiana.

The Hon. Frank Sherman, for six years a Republican member of Congress from Louisiana, testified before the Potter Committee that "a couple of thousands of men" were sent to Louisiana by a Congressional Committee in 1865, when the Republicans had control of about twenty per cent of the vote.
