must be used. The police authorities have a large force on duty, and it is thought arrangements are ample to quiet any disorder in the beginning.

Gov. Curtin is out busy speaking at democratic meetings. He spoke at Renova the other evening. He makes the ring tremble by his hot shot, and there is no man hated so much by the Cameron ringsters, at this time, as Curtin. The better portion of republicans will take Andy's advice and vote the democratic ticket, as the best means to bring about reform. The Camerons can't squelch our Andy. The greatest disappointment the 1859. Cameron ring has lately met with is 1860. their failure to defeat Curtin's nomination for congress. Centre county democrats do not propose let Cameron dictate who shall be their nominees. The man that Cameron does not want is more 1877. likely to suit democrats, than the man

Simon does want.
