THE MOVEMENTS OF THE CONTENDING ARMIES—BRITISH REVERSES.

London, December 2.—A dispatch from Thull says the Afghans have got their guns up Peiwar Paes and have established a battery on the summit. Afghan troops swarm on the ridges and crags. Three regiments failed to turn the enemy's position on Saturday, and retired on discovering his strength. One man was killed and twelve wounded. The withdrawal of the battery and camp of the remainder of the force was rendered necessary by the accuracy of the Afghan artillery fire. The British will attack the pass on Monday, New York. British will attack the pass on Monday, British will attack the pass on Monday, after the troops have had a day's rest.

They are confident of a good result, although the pass is 7,000 feet high. The thousand. Send us your envelopes. We print letter heads, and statements as low fighting will certainly be severe.
