

THE CENTRE REPORTER

FRED KURTZ, EDITOR

CENTRE HALL, Pa., Jan. 30, 1879.

The Republicans of New York re-elected Cullum to the senate. He received the whole party vote in caucus. Send the news to the Fraudulent.

The Democrats in Indiana re-elected Voorhes to the senate for the long term. Hisler Cramer was made the democratic caucus nominee for senator from this state, but all know by this time how it was won.

Florida elected Wilkinson Call senator to succeed Cullum. Wisconsin has elected Matt. H. Carpenter, to the U. S. Senate. He was in the senate from 1875 to '78.

The York county grand jury wants the whipping post established for minor offenses. The expense of maintaining the regular army is about a dollar per head for every man, woman and child in the U. S.

Gov. Hartranft, signified the last day of his administration by signing two death warrants, making in all fifty-two that have issued from his hand. He also commuted the sentence of Blaine Distorsion to imprisonment for life.

At the state Millers' Convention held at Lancaster, lately the Fultz wheat was condemned. There was considerable of this grain raised in Centre county of late years, but the millers, who should know, do not seem to think much of it, they passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That this society will discourage the growing of Fultz and Clawson wheats. For milling purposes they are not desirable. The vote was unanimous in favor of the resolution.

President Hayes puzzled concerning the disposition to be made of the bill to pay arrears of pensions. In the Cabinet Secretary Schurz presented a letter from Mr. Bentley, Commissioner of Pensions, saying that the bill, if approved by the President, will take $35,000,000 from the Treasury immediately, and in addition $20,000,000 more.

On Tuesday 21, inauguration day, there was an interval leaving Pennsylvania without a governor. The inauguration of Hayes was delayed until 12 1/2 p. m., while Hartranft's term expired at noon. Hence for an hour and 30 min. the state was without a governor.

From the city of Brotherton. Love comes a sad case of starvation. That child should actually starve to death in the beautiful and fertile city of Brotherton, Pa., where there is plenty and where the necessities of life are so cheap, is almost beyond belief, nevertheless it is so, and we give the story related by the Philad. Record of 21st inst. as follows:

In a little second story room of the house in the rear of 131 E. Chestnut street, the mother of a child, five months old in a rough board, frigid in death, and covered with a repulsive looking calico rag, the mother and father, and a child, were found dead.

Women will have their own queer way, although they get hurt by it sometimes. It is well enough for a woman to know when to stop talking, and stop, but she must know that she will stop walking when she should not stop.

Mr. Hale of Chicago, taking as his text the case of a woman who was run over by a pair of horses, says that he is surprised that more women are not hurt in the same way. "A woman starts to cross the street," he says, "and when she gets on the other side she finds that she has been run over by a pair of horses."

Since Blaine's Teller committee on southern intemperance does not promise to pan out, well and pardon me, will you let him to the white house, he will be full back upon something else to raise a commotion. Suppose the Maine statesman would raise the old cry of "Two dollars a day and good food," which answered so well for "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." We think this would take the $2 and raise before we know would in these times, if set before the thousands who are out of bread and employ, in spite of all the promises of good times made by the Blaine party the last dozen years.

It may sound strange to hear of a man freezing to death in Florida, but it's so. An old man had himself and his trunk left on a piece of land that he imagined he owned in Ocala, Fla., and declared that he was killed. It was a cold night, and in the morning he was found frozen to death.

This establishes his right to a lot 32 1/2 feet. Evening Telegram—"Probably the White House has not seen such good-sounding resolutions for a quarter of a century. Of course the general dulness of politics has something to do with this dulness of the senate of official life, but this administration never could be a brilliant one if it were prolonged to the end of the next year. The way of Chief Joseph last week. This message, which has happened any of the White House, is a good sign, and in the morning he was found frozen to death.

Score one for New Jersey justice. Nine public functionaries of Warren county, N. J., have been convicted of malfeasance in office and sentenced to hard labor in the State Prison for periods of from one to sixteen years each. Conspiracy to cheat and defraud the town, and conspire to help out the purposes of the conspiracy, are the crimes of which all these men have been found guilty.

It is done. Pennsylvania is to have Don Cameron for one of her senators. Many republican organs can tell why this young man was chosen so high and honorable a position, we should like to hear it.

INTEGRATION EXTRAORDINAIRE. It is thought the inauguration of Hoyt will cost the state five times as much as any previous one. There was a big display of military from all parts of the state, and other expensive parts connected with it, and the state pays for the fun.

When this matter was up a few days before the inauguration, Mr. Ermentrout the Senator from steady old Berks, called a little time on the Republicans in the Senate when the question of the expense of the inauguration was brought up incidentally by the committee of which that party politician, viz., the Inauguration Committee, Ermentrout proposed to limit the expense to one thousand dollars and backed his motion by a few timely remarks to the point, which irritated somewhat the free and easy gentlemen who never seem to count the cost of anything.

THE NEW YORK NOMINATIONS. FROM THE "TRIBUNE." The New York Custom House nominations will not be decided for some days and it is not among the friends of the administration, it is asserted that a considerable number of republican Senators will be nominated to the office of collector, and that there will be a vigorous defence of the administration by prominent republicans.

RIGHTS OF MINOR CHILDREN. Can a Father owe Money to a Minor? A Late Decision of the Supreme Court Enforced in Montgomery County. In the case of Harvey Halderman vs. J. E. Rosenberg, Justice Ross recently delivered an opinion setting forth the law which governs the business relations of a father with his minor child, Harvey Halderman, at the age of sixteen, who had learned a trade, but his father, who was a farmer, had agreed to give him a horse, carriage and harness, if he would remain on the farm until he was of age.

NORDENSKILDE ICE-BOUND. The St. Petersburg Globe announced that authentic intelligence has been received from the Governor of Eastern Siberia that Professor Nordenskiold's steamer, the Vega, is ice-bound forty miles from the coast of Kamchatka. The vessel has been instructed to issue a general summons to the natives to assist the expedition. A special relief expedition of reindeer and dog sledges has been organized to reach the vessel in the event of its being unable to break its way.

THE GOLD WEATHER. Business Depressed and Railway Traffic Interrupted. London, Jan. 25.—The weather in Great Britain continues to be one of the most depressed and gloomy in the history of the country. In Paris traffic is almost suspended by snow. In Brittany and other provinces telegraph and railway communications are almost entirely interrupted.

FRANK LESLIE'S POPULAR MONTHLY. The February number, and second of the new volume, comes to us even more richly freighted than usual; it abounds with choice and very delightful literature, and the illustrations are admirable. The opening article, entitled "How Carnival is Kept," is exceedingly interesting, being a description of the scenes of fun and frolic during the Carnival in different portions of Europe and the United States.

A ROAD LAW DECISION. Recently Judge Galbraith, of Erie, decided a question of some importance under the road law. It defined the rights of a landowner in respect to a road which runs under his complex special legislation. The plaintiff, John W. Dawley, resides in Franklin township, Erie county, on the Population road. The defendant, the Franklin township, Erie county, had a right of way over the road, and the plaintiff sought to have the road widened to the line of the original survey of the road.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE gives the following report of "Pennsylvania's favorite son," Senator Don Cameron's personal appearance. Senator Don Cameron's personal appearance is more remarkable than his mental characteristics. He is five feet eleven inches in height, but looks to be an inch or two taller. He is straight and amply proportioned. His hair is black, his eyes are blue, and his nose is straight.

OUR AMERICAN MAGAZINES. The marvelous beauty of the illustrated magazine of this country is attracting attention throughout the world. The editor, Mr. Charles Scribner, has published within a few months, The London correspondent of the New York Times says: "The whole lot of magazines sent to me last month, are not equal in pictorial art to a single number of Scribner's Magazine."

THE HOUSE MR. GEHART has been placed upon the following committees: Appropriations, Education and Accounts. Mr. Murray on Judiciary, Bill, Manufacturing and Compare Bills. Gov. Hoyt has appointed ex-Gov. Hartranft a major general of the state militia.

WE are in receipt of the "Times Atlantic." It is a valuable work, election statistics, and other matter. Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 26, 1879.—The Warren county, Pa., is the largest in the county, in fact, having caught in an unaccountable manner in the top level. The engine house and machinery, but about twenty miles were destroyed. The fire is under control, but the fire is under control, but the fire is under control.

REASON IN GERMANY. Berlin, Jan. 25, 1879.—Ominous reports are current here to the effect that the superior officer of the German army has been ordered to resign, and that the most important military corps, including the 1st and 2nd divisions, are to be disbanded.
