CENTRE HALL, Pa., Feb. 6, 1879.

Ben Hill, of Georgis, in his speeck the senate, the other day, knocks the props from under the radical howl about payment of southern claims. A synopsis of the speech is given in another col umn of the Reporter.

Gov. Hoyt's inauguration will cost 1. to $20,000-not him, but you taxpayers. His inaugural talks about economy, and that is what A. Ward would call sar kasm.

Sitting Bull has sent forth his lament

-he is hard up and willing to make up. He sends words by his runners that he wants to return to Standing Rock, as his tribe, the Uncapapas, slop on that reservation.

In his message he says : "Once I was strong and brave and my people had hearts of iron, but now I am a coward and will fight no more forever. My peo. ple are cold and hungry, my women are will do as the Great Father wishes.] will give my guns and my ponies into my war paint thrown to the winds."
