The scene opens in the morgue, New York, when the body of a handsome young man has just been brought in, and where it lies ander the dripping of the lood water, which fails upon it to arrest the progress of decomposition. The man who attends to guard the dead did not observe a slim female figure, which seemed to arise out of the earth, so silently and suddenly arise out of the earth, so silently and suddenly did it stand there. She was bending over one of the five marble slabs, on which lay the dead body of a spiendid young man-he could not the time required by any other remedy.
