—Chas. Rover and family, of Georges valley, left for Kansas this week.

—Dinges is still selling groceries and notions very well. Call stores.

—Thanks to Ray Stover for an early copy of his conference appointment.

—Mr. Bush, of Snowmass, will occupy the Peter's Mills hotel after April.

—Geo. C. Brown's sale, Spring Mills, Mar. 20, M. L. Leiselle's sale, Potter's bank, Mar. 21.

—Examines Dinges' stock of tobacco and cigars, the most complete assortment in Centre Hall.

—Mr. Heister has commenced putting up sheds for his new marble yard, on Dunt's lot, opposite the hotel.

—Ah, they have come on, just what you want and need—new fresh, fine and pure groceries of Selsler & Co. and Dente Milsburg Pa.

—The new Howe Sewing Machine is perfect, novelly, to be seen at this office and see it. Works like a charm. A. C. Moore, Agent.

—The new Milesburg Pa.

—Now is the time when you must hang up your sleigh to dry, and get a new spring wagon, or buggy or carriage. Whatever you want in the line of vehicles, Jno. T. Lee, at his Centre Hall shop, will put up a stately and warrant the material and work, and low as the lowest.

—Sucker fishing is all the go along our streams. Those who do not succeed in getting suckers out of the creek, most always manage to get suckers out of a bottle.

—Subscribers to the Reporter who change their post office address, should notify us, so that their paper can be mailed accordingly.

—A positive benefit to young children and infants is the popular verdict for Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Sold everywhere at 25cts a bottle.

—Our people woke up last Monday morning to find about 2 inches of snow on the ground, which caused an abundance of mischief by noon.

—By addressing or calling at the Howe Sewing Machine office, Milesburg, Pa., you can have your machine put in good running order, free of charge.

—The Y. M. C. A. of Centre Hall, will hold a public meeting in the M. E. Church, on Sabbath, March 23, at 3 o'clock. Subject: "Does it pay to be a Christian?" A general invitation is given to everybody to come and take part in the exercises, to consist in praying, singing, speaking and hearing.

—We are informed by Mr. Cyrus Stover, that the smith-shop of Jno. C. Stover, in Haines, was destroyed by fire on Friday evening about 3 o'clock, with all its contents, including complanter, hammers, and all tools. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a piece of iron which found its way into some rubbish, while at work the evening previous.

—There is more sugar, coffee, tea, dried and canned fruits, and other groceries, sold by Selsler & Co., than by any other establishment within 100 miles. The reason is plain—they get none but reliable goods—fresh, pure, wholesomen, and at living prices.

—LITERARY REVOLUTION.—The age of cheap and good books has certainly come.

The new edition of Chambers' Cyclopedic of English Literature, eight hands, and beautiful volume, nearly 800 pages, elegantly bound in cloth, for $2.50 is what the AMERICAN Book Exchange, 55 Beekman Street, N. Y., offer to subscribers who buy this month. Specimen volume, complete in itself, postpaid, for 45 cents. Nearly 50,000 volumes sold in the past three months. Specimen price and terms to clubs sent free.

—The rumor seems well founded that a number of prominent citizens of Baltimore have resolved to erect a monument to the memory of the late Dr. J. W. Bell, discoverer of that wonderful remedy, Dr. Bell's Cough Syrup.

—Mr. Em. Leitzel, writes us from Dodge county, Nebraska, that they had a beautiful winter, no snow, dry ground since last harvest, and no storm the winter. Farmers are busy sowing wheat, (Mar. 9.) Wheat 80, corn 20, oats 20, barley 40, potatoes 55, good horses $100, cows $25 to $55, hogs, hens, 8¢ per 100, good pigs $100 per 100. Mr. Leitzel pronounces Dodge the bonzer county in that state.
