CENTRE HALL, Pa., Apr. 10, 1879.

The Milling Telegraph thinks you are all right yet. But the Telegraph so often thinks wrong, and fools itself.

The democrats the other day carried Chicago by majorities ranging from 3,500 to 4,000—electing their whole city. This is another "revolution" which will not suit the stalwart republicans.

There is no peace for the wicked. Mrs. Oliver has applied for a new trial. We suppose it will not be busy as much as the one just ended.

In the U. S. senate Mr. Hoar's resolution condemning as revolutionary the democratic programme of legislation, was laid on the table by yeas 33 nays 20.

Right, and the country will thank the senate for promptly snuffing out Hoar's nonsense.

Since the split has gone in favor of Simon who will get the oranges now? The Times says the Republican organ of this State will never tire in calling attention to the fact that there are only three Union generals in the United States while there are twenty or more ex-Confederates.

The Louisville Courier-Journal thinks the Republicans pretend to be very much afraid lest the democrats should "block the wheels of government." The only blocking of that kind will be done by the President, if he carries out his foolish intention attributed to him by his friends and voters.

How long does our state legislature intend to sit yet? This is what the people wish to know. The time of a regular session has expired and yet there is no sign of adjournment.

The Pittsburg riot bill met with a defeat in the House on Friday 5. Mr. Long having the floor at the hour of adjournment yesterday continued his remarks in support of his amendment.

The New York Herald shows up a bad memory for Garfield, who made a "revolutionary" speech in the house the other day, and almost busted his bladder over the contemplated repeal of the supervisor business.

The N. Y. World in speaking of the ramored intention of the President to veto the bills which the democrats in congress propose to pass, says:

If such be the real decision of the President, if he has resolved to reject all efforts to bring about a harmony of opinion and conduct between the legislative and executive departments, and if he is so party-made as to uphold a power to arrest on election day without a warrant and on the mere allegation of a supervisor or deputy marshal, then it is useless to discuss the merits of the repeal or attached to appropriation bills.

Mr. Long has announced that he will vote on the question. He stated that he was opposed to a law, but too much time had been taken up with the bill.

Mr. Wolfe then took the floor, and said in his judgment the amendment would be, though hard to hear, that the gentleman from Ohio had made a speech on the floor, in which he had declared that the minority to which the gentleman then belonged, but to which, under God's providence, they no longer belonged was guilty of rebellion because it insisted that extraneous matters should be placed upon appropriation bills.

Mr. Wolfe asked if the profits by discrimination against her citizens were not made within the State.

Mr. Long here gave notice that the time was up for the vote to be taken.

Mr. Hewitt then said it was not fair to consider that corporations because their backs were broad could avoid them.

appearing in his own name and asking leave to record his vote in favor, but was refused the floor.

THE CURTAIN CONTINUED.

Last Tuesday was the last day for taking evidence in the Curtin-Yeom contest. The district has been pretty thoroughly worked by both sides for illegal and fraudulent votes. According to our estimate of the result we think the summing up of all the testimony will show a majority for Gov. Curtin of from 500 to 1,000 over Yeom of the legal votes cast.

Mr. Yeom's case is so weak that he cannot stand up to the evidence, but that he can only be saved by the aid of the law.

The contest cases in congress will be taken up in alphabetical order, which will bring in Curtin's case first.

In the debate in the house the other day, on the army appropriation bill, Mr. Frye, radical, closed his remarks by saying, "There had been a dozen dirty faces in the last Congress, were those dirty faces now?"

Mr. Hooper, dem. of Mass., said that the gentleman from Maine had expressed his regret that the half dozen colored men who had sat in the last Congress were not here now.

On Saturday the other house of congress passed the army appropriation bill. The amendment providing that nothing in the bill should prevent the President from sending troops into a State under the constitutional requirements was adopted by yeas 101, nays 80.

The whole school of greenbacks in Congress, nine, voted with the democrats on the passage of the army appropriation bill.

The M. Van Buren comes to us enlarged and is now the star of the Centre Reporter. We are glad to notice the evidence of its prosperity.

Read Blackburn's speech in this issue of the Reporter. It is the righting.

The Pittsburg riot bill got a black eye in the house the other day. See another column of the Reporter.

mentally to prevent their. I ask whether I may not be warranted and justified in employing equal order and in assuring that the great majority of the people are in favor of the measure.

SPEECH OF MR. HURD.

The able and statesmanlike speech of the Hon. Frank Hurd of Ohio, in the house on Tuesday was in strong contrast with the extravagant language of his colleague, Gen. Garfield, which the stalwarts have made the subject of much abused eulogies.

Mr. Hurd thoroughly exposed the weakness of the charge that the measure proposed by the majority of the house was "revolutionary" in character.
