It is not fair that the republicans have the army at the polls to help them and use it against the democrats. If the republicans are to have armed men at the voting places then we say let...

Let the bayonet election law be repealed. Let democrats now stand firm, and wear to stand by their rights at all hazards. They have submitted to bayonet rule longer already than becomes freemen...

There is nothing in the Constitution which requires an army to be maintained in any manner or form. It is exclusively the creature of Congress...

The Congress shall have power to raise and support armies, but no appropriation of money to that shall be for a longer term than two years. The Executive has no power with the raising or the support of the army...

The issue between the two parties is distinctly joined, and all attempts to conceal or to confuse it will be fruitless. The party in power is the party of the bayonet.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer: The Pennsylvania Legislature is so corrupt that a rotten egg among the Speakers would be like a bank of violets.

In some quarters Judge David Davis is urged for the democratic nomination for president.

HOW TROOPS HAVE BEEN USED AT ELECTIONS.

From the beginning to the close of Gen. Grant's administration, says the Sun, the army and navy were constantly used to prop up carpet-bag governments in the South...

That was the object of quartering a small force in the heart of New York city, and of stationing two ships of war to command the centre of commercial activity in 1870...

After these tentative attempts to acquiesce in the North to the presence of troops on election day had failed, they were mostly directed to the Southern States...

Mr. President, I was born a slaveholder. That was a decree of my country's laws. I never bought a slave. I never sold a slave. I never owned a slave...

The Union bayonet is a terrible bugbear to the Centre Hall Reporter, while the hold-ers of the pistol are the editor of the Tribune...

Now let the Tribune print the extract from Gov. Geary's message against soldiers at the polls, and let its readers wonder if it was the "bull-dog's pistol" that suited him.

HEADQUARTERS FOR THE LOWEST PRICES BEE-HIVE EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS STORE

AND NO ONE CAN DISPUTE THE FACT THAT IT IS THE PLACE FOR BARGAINS. I wish to call the public attention to my DRESS GOODS and SILK DEPARTMENTS, which I can safely say are the largest, cheapest, and most complete stocks in the country.

It needs no argument to convince the public that an exclusive store has a great many advantages over a general merchandise store.

My Motto is One Price, and the very lowest, the best of goods, and no misrepresentation.
