

Our friend P. J. Leitell, formerly of Gregg, writes us from Crawford county, Pa., Aug. 29.

We are having beautiful weather and our farmers are busy preparing their crops for a large harvest.

—The annual soldiers re-union at Pleasant Gap, Sept. 6.

—Clothing made to order at Newman's who has the services of one of the best Philadelphia tailors.

—The greenbacks of this county last week nominated Capt. Jno. A. Hunter for jury commissioner.

—All kinds of repairing on wagons, buggies, and carriages, done at Newman's.

—Mr. Daniel Smith last week broke ground for his new house at the lower end of town.

—There were two sudden deaths in this section, last week, as will be seen in our notices of deaths.

—Newman is now putting out his stock of summer clothing at a trifle above cost.

—Mr. Samuel Farmer of this place has been employed in the region of a fever, having been confined to his bed two weeks before he started for home.

—We are in receipt of a cluster of tomatoes from Mrs. Henry Keller that can not be beat for quality.

—The squirrel season commenced on Monday, but the little fellows don't seem to know it, as they were not out to shoot.

—Go to Frank Green's for pure and such drugs and medicines, and a full assortment of toilet articles.

—Squirrels are ripe now, but the trees do not seem to be one of the largest we have yet had in this county.

—The case was for the defendant by Mr. Spangler, who, though a comparatively young member of the bar, has evidently in him the kind of timber that makes good lawyers when properly seasoned.

—The exordium he referred to a most brilliant and original effort by Reynolds when on the stand that "he had put an end to the career of Peter Herd."
