Barr is the honest man's candidate for state treasurer.

Garfield has quit speaking for Foster in Ohio—on account of ill health, it is said, and all his appointments have been cancelled. But the real cause seems to be that Sherman is planing to have himself elected to the senate in case the legislature is republican. Garfield has been looking for the same thing, and since Sherman is trying to show him aside, be will bare no more to do with the campaign. Garfield does not believe in doing the hard work, and then hard work was and then hard work work the work of the old Treasury is in every respect entitled to the superior in the old work of the office of the work of the office of the vorked of the hard work.
