R. R. — A rumor that the mortgages on the L., C. & S. C. R. R. were to be fore-closed, created ascare is some localities, parties thinking that it meant an abandon-ment of our railroad, taking off trains, rails, &c. If there is to be a foreclosure of the mortgages that would mean a sale of the road. The Penn'a R. R. holds the mertgages, and in the event of a sale, that company would, no doubt, buy the road.
