FRID. KURTZ, EDITOR. CENTER HALL, Pa., Nov. 27, 1879.

Another Southern outrage is added to the list. Congressman John Kenna, Democrat of Charleston, West Virginia, saw an exhausted negro struggling in the river a few days ago, and swimming out to the drowning man saved him.

In New York on Saturday 15, milk dealers were fined for adulteration of milk, but the Herald seems to think that one can get water at 8 cents per quart will pay all the fine of some of them. A few days imprisonment and a cold water bath might be thrown in with the fine to make it out or water it a little.

American beef still keeps going to Europe in large quantities, as well as grain, and foreign gold to us in return. The state of trade with Europe—our exports largely exceeding our imports—has given us a touch of better times in America and so long as this foreign demand continues we may expect business to remain lively.

Pittsburg has good reason to be happy beside the revival of business in all its manufacturing establishments, a St. Louis firm has been sending slaughtered beef to the smoky city and underselling its butchers. In consequence some of the Pittsburg meat men have put down the price of best steak and roasts to ten cents per lb. and still have a profit at that, and are underselling the St. Louis beef.

The report of the United States Treasurer shows that during the year there were redeemed $64,107,333 worth of United States bonds. The total amount of standard silver dollars under the act of February 28, 1878, is $45,206,200, of which amount $32,303,358 is in the Treasury office, and $13,002,842 in circulation, being 281 per cent. of the total coinage, as against $4,922,623 in circulation at the same date last year, which was 39.9 per cent. of $13,282,500, coined at that time.

Hayes thinks that all ex-presidents should have a pension of $20,000 per year during life. Of course the fraudulent president would be pleased with such a stipend. But why, with double salary, should a president who so princely a pension, after he goes out of office? The president has no more claim to a pension than any other office holder from town clerk on up. Hayes would not hesitate to pocket a pension too.

Orville Hayes, 19 years old, pointed a cocked revolver at him. He was told to stop, as the revolver was loaded. He then laughingly pointed it at his own head, and the revolver discharged, killing him instantly. And this awful Orville was 19—now if there are any more such awful boys, let them do just as Orville did—better shoot themselves than others.

Leading democrats in New York have held a conference with a view to heal the differences that existed in the late campaign. They propose to have Governor Seymour act as arbiter, and abide by his decision. With a united front New York would go democratic by at least 40,000 and make sure the election of a democratic president. This is shown by the recent returns on the combined vote of Kelly and Robinson, which would have left Cornell 40,000 behind.

Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier Journal, thinks that in the next election three or four Southern States may go for the republicans. In this event it would be consistent for three or four republicans states to go democratic. If we are to judge the odds by their own showings against a solid south. But they will not do it, these northern breeders of sectional hate, they will keep as "solid" in the north as possible, their cry against a solid south is all a sham, a hobby to frighten old women with.

In regard to the Maine election, in which any number of friends were persecuted upon Democrats, who are attempting to smear the name of Grant, it is bold and audacious attempt on the part of unscrupulous men in the Democratic party to maintain control by usurpation. Since the highway robbery of the Presidency, by the Jack Shepherds of the Republican party, they are in constant alarm lest the example will be followed by Democrats. They fear each bush an officer, and well they may.

Frauds in obtaining pensions has got to be a rather brisk and successful business. We notice that in at least 500 pensioners whose names have been expunged from the list during the last three years on account of the detection of fraud in their cases Commissioner Bentley certifies that perjury was ascertained in 3,084 of the 4,397 affidavits which accompanied their applications and forgery in at least 92 instances. These fraudulent claimants succeeded in drawing $547,225 from the national Treasury before they were dropped. What part, if any, of this vast sum has been recouped by the United States, and how many, if any, of the 3,084 perjured and 92 forgers, have been prosecuted for their crimes, the Commissioner does not state.

The debt of the State of Illinois is likely to be wiped out at no distant date thanks to a provision inserted in the charter of the Illinois Central Railroad in 1857 by the late Stephen A. Douglas, under which the company pays to the State seven per cent. of its gross earnings in lieu of all taxes. On Oct. 1, 1878, the debt of Illinois, as set forth in the Auditor's report, was $502,212. After Jan. 1, 1880, the debt will be reduced below $500,000. It is expected that the Illinois Central Railroad fund will produce almost enough money to pay the ordinary running expenses of the State Government. The Constitution of Illinois provides that the contract by which the fund was created shall not be repealed, modified, or remitted by the Legislature by any other authority.

Grant's speech at the Chicago reception does not take well with the bloody shirters. He said that all bitterness and ill-will between the sections should be laid aside. This is just what the war was trying to keep up all summer—continually abused the south for the two or three murders committed at though the north had no crime at all and really had ten murders to one in the south. But Grant may not be sincere—he went back on his word before, and may only wish to gain southern support for a third term. However his utterances at Chicago don't suit the stalwarts, they would have preferred him to all the south traitors and all the other hard names used by the northern radicals in the past six months, to keep up ill feeling.

Eliza Plunkton, John Sherman's husky whom he used as an instrument in his steal of the presidency, has been arrested on charge of murdering her husband. If Eliza should be hung, and convicted John Sherman should be hung a little with her; he did more to make this woman wiser than any thing in her history. He taught her perjury, to use in his hands an instrument which would see in him an instrument through whom they might put an end to free institutions in America, which have been to the object of hatred, since George the 3rd lost his colonies.

The drift of Grantism is plainly proven by items like the one that follows, which we copy from one of our dailies, and offer to the reader of the Reporter.

Judge Bradwell of Chicago, as we might call Grant's fist at the Chicago reception cried out enthusiastically: "We'll put a crown on your head next year, General." The crowd cheered and the speaker, who had been invited to the reception by the deluded old Judge and the procession moved on. That "crown" idea is getting quite common. The Chicago men were talking about when dividing the money; could't remember a word that either of them said.

Note—Flannigan's note attests some months ago relating to the incident above referred to. After correcting the error the election and awarding of the money was placed in an envelope. The committee then adjourned until to-morrow.

A TUNNEL ON A CALIFORNIA RAILROAD WRECKED BY AN EXPLOSION. Thirty Chinamen Killed and a Large Number Horribly Burned. San Francisco, November 18.—An explosion occurred in tunnel No. 3 on the Narrow Gauge railroad from San Jose to Peoria, Calif., this morning. From the tunnel, which was about 200 feet from the mouth of the tunnel, which caused an explosion of the gas by the filtering of coal oil through the roof and sides of the tunnel.

THE ABOLITION OF TRADE MARKS. The N. Y. Herald says: It is thought by many that the decision of the United States Supreme Court, declaring trade marks invalid and unconstitutional, will cause a good deal of confusion in the trade and commerce of the country. This prospective trouble, it is believed, will tend not only to the injury of the owners of the trade marks, but also to those who may purchase under the impression that the goods so represented by the marks are the identical articles which they desire to buy, and not some spurious imitation.

MORMONS IMPLICATED IN THE MEEKER MASSACRE. Denver, Nov. 18.—The Tribune's New York correspondent says that he has little doubt he will be able to establish Mormon complicity in the White River troubles. It is his belief that representatives of Mormons have been in communication with the government for a long time. The commission intended to stir the matter to the bottom. Orsay says he has resorted to his last peaceful method for interference on behalf of the White River. He has convinced them of their personal safety while they testify and of justice thereafter. If they refuse to appear and testify he will call his friends to his aid and the government direct, securing the presence of the White River. Uses at the discretion of the Department.

THE BOOM. Oil City, Pa., November 17.—The business here has struck the oil business in earnest. The advance in price during the past week has been unexpected as it was remarkable, when the unfavorable aspect of affairs is taken into consideration. The appreciation in value is supposed to be largely attributable to the investment of some amount of eastern capital.

SNOW IN THE SOUTH. Augusta, Ga., November 17, 1879.—The heaviest fall of snow for years occurred here today. It fell steadily for over three hours and seemed to be general in this section.

CHARLESTON, S. C., November 19, 1879.—A heavy fall of snow, fell here today. There are reports of snow in the interior and sudden changes of the weather.

MONTENEGRO. Great Distress.—The People on the Verge of Starvation. London, November 17.—A dispatch from Pesh says the distress in Montenegro is almost starving. One-sixth of the population is almost starving. The present supplies of food will only last until the end of January. There has been severe fighting on the Turkish frontier near Scutari. The latter place was completely plundered by a body of five hundred Albanians.

A HORRIBLE MURDER IN ARKANSAS. Cincinnati, November 19.—R. D. Phillips has been murdered in Marion county, Arkansas, by his wife. His wife is thirty-five years old. She confessed her crime to the coroner.

Thirty persons, returning from a fair near Haverhill, were drowned while crossing Lachine Falls, Monday night. The Missouri people are half crazy because they have found the bones of a mastodon in the mud. If they keep on digging for a few weeks they will discover that it is only Henry Clay Dean.

Sultan Abdul Hamid has $20,000 every twenty-four hours. But he never employs a doctor. The Emperor of Austria about $10,000. Kaiser Wilhelm has about $10,000. The King of Belgium has only $1,500 a day.

The end of the world has been postponed until next July—perhaps because the change of temperature will not seem so great while we are already making it.

Since gold began to circulate many places have been found worth less than the face value, and the Treasury is asked to redeem them.

The report of the Director of the Mint will show that the amount of coin in circulation has been increased $100,000,000 within the last sixteen years.

Experienced Dairymen know that it is necessary to keep an even standard of color in butter the year round. Therefore when the color falls away in July and August, they use a certain quantity of Perfected Butter Color. It is a vegetable compound pure and harmless, and adds to the value of Butter.

After one hundred and eleven years of litigation the Hungarian Supreme Court has decided a suit brought to eject an alleged wrongful possessor of a large family estate. The case had been pending for a part of the property, but his lawyer's fees have been large enough to make the decision of little profit to himself.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that the law protecting trade marks is unconstitutional. It does not belong to the States, but to Congress. It has attacked one of the most profitable species of gambling of the day, and it will not give up the fight until it has exhausted every legal quibble and technical objection.
