For the Reporter.

MR. EDITOR:—Will your goodness allow me space in your paper to notice an "occasion" that is worthy a memorial?

On Saturday the 10th inst., Mr. Philip Gramly, living two miles east of Rebersburg, came into the said ancient borough and with the beaming face of a Pickwick invited ten of us young nobles and bloods out to his place "to dinner," as he modestly expressed it. In a big wagon we rolled along though the prettiest valley in Penns. Arrived, we contemplated for a while the surroundings of Mr. G.'s sylvan retreat, which even the cruel reign of winter had not been able to strip of its loveliness. In to the dining room we are shown, where a table groaning under the weight of four huge turkeys stuffed with oysters, and delicious side-dishes to match, burst upon our gaze, and soon it was surrounded by over a score of delighted guests. The honors were done by Rev. H. Stover and Mr. Gramly's patriarchal son Isaac. I suppose there is a general sameness in all feats, and yet this particular one seemed to us to bear the palm of superiority.

The occasion will long be remembered by the guests, who wish long life and prosperity to their large hearted host and hostess. C. O. M.

MARRIED.

On 25th Dec., by Rev S E Fust, Mr. Jacob M Spaler and Miss Sarah A. Ertel, both o. Zion.

DIED.

On the 7th inst., in Millheim, Thomas E infant son of James C. and Sadie Smith, aged 1 year and 17 days.

Your little Tommy has gone home,
No more his face you'll see,
Till on the resurrection morn,
How happy, you will be.

His pleasant smiles have died away,
His spirit is gone above;
And there, through ever endless day,
He'll live with God in love.

Extreme the pain; he moved his hand,
And died without a fear;
God called him to that better land,
And wiped away the tear.

His earthly trials now, are o'er,
His glory is begun,
May you, on that sweet blissful shore,
Meet your dear little one.

Tis Jesus calls, O! then obey,
The summons comes to all;
Prepare to meet your God that day,
When death will on you call.

D. L. Z.

On 6th inst., of Diptheria, Philip Oscar Musser, aged 4 years, 3 months and 12 days

"Go to thy rest, and while thy absence we deplore,
Our thought our sorrow shall beguile,
That soon with a celestial smile,
We'll meet to part no more."

On Jan 7th, Catharine Viola, daughter of John Zeigler, of diptheria, aged 9 years, 5 months and 28 days.

"Gone from the loved on earth,
She's joined the loved on high;
When heavenly gates received her in,
Where she no more shall die."
