-The most bloodless knock down we have yet heard of took place last week at the big crowd at the Philad. Branch store, where prices were knocked down, suits dragged out in a manner to suit the masses. -Levin's doesn't seem to care if the does loose on a suit, he is bound to make you buy.

-Sugar Valley has a coal boom. Samples of coal from the farm of Andrew C. Runkle of the Reporter, were left at the Reporter's office by Mr. Witter by his son-in-law, Mr. Smith. The coal is undoubtedly of an inferior quality and further developments may produce a still better article.

-There is good news for the people of Haines township. The old building of Runkle of the Reporter's Store are about opening an astonishing assortment of goods like the Reporter's Store, and has never seen. They promise to sell very low and are men of truth who can get a good bargain. If you want to get a good bargain, go to the Reporter's Store. They are men of truth who can get a good bargain. If you want to get a good bargain, go to the Reporter's Store.

-Old puppy Hinchman know where the celestine is. He listed just 17 slips of yellow, and five large fellows here, one morning of last week. In the midst of his glee, he did not forget the Reporter and presented us with two nice ones, for which he has our thanks and hope will live long to enjoy his favorite sport of fishing.

-Attorney Bower, of Bellefonte, popped in to see the Reporter the other day, but was too full of business to stay long.

-C. Dinges is now in the eastern cities to purchase a full line of store goods. Having enlarged his room for his increased trade, he has a regular assortment of dry goods which will arrive this week, and will be pleased to have all call and examine his new stock.

-Wesley from the Republican that a daily paper is to be issued from that office called the "Haines Reporter." Mr. B. B. Bixie, at 40 cents per month. We wish it success and lots of money as its reward. The paper is to be independent. Bellefonte will deserve credit if it starts a daily.

-G. W. Rumberger, esq., has moved to Unionville, nevertheless he says that does not make him a Union villian. Good.
