A Washington note of 1st, says: Senator Wallace was in his seat to-day, looking as if he was well satisfied with the result of the Harrisburg convention.

The democrats which was listened to with much attention. The remarks were in manuscript and were read with much difficulty, the Judge evidently being much affected. He said they had pleaded guilty to or had been convicted of a high crime. Corrupt practices had been used for years to pass bills in the Legislature of Pennsylvania had been regarded so venial that an impression prevailed in all parts of the countries.

result of the Harrisburg convention. The democrats generally congratulated him upon the harmony that has been established in the party in his state.

The Philadelphia Ledger, independent, speaking of the democratic state ticket, says some of the old-time political sagacity of the democratic party was manifestly at work in this convention.
