"The great Principles of American Liberty are still the lifeblood of our people, and ever should be."

The right of trial by jury, the habeas corpus, the liberty of the press, the freedom of speech, the natural rights of persons, and the rights of property, must be preserved.

"The great Principles of American Liberty are still the lifeblood of our people, and ever should be."

If Dr. Tanner gets through safely with his forty days, the republican national committee will show Garfield off and put Tanner on, thinking to make capital out of Tanner, because he has done a great thing, for mankind, by showing that a person can live without eating.

The republican papers are publishing an article with reference to Garfield, headed, "The Christian Statesman." The fellows evidently did not read the Credit Mobiliere report, where the "Christian Statesman" is shown guilty of perjury.

And here comes another. General P. H. Jones, for several years Postmaster of New York city, and a prominent member of the Free Trade, and a prominent member of the Free Trade, to impose a customs tax on tea and coffee.

Cupling like a goose many other republicans is disgusted with Ohio men. A very near friend of Roscoe Conkling describes Ohio politicians of the present day as a "shifty, shallow, double-faced lot, with nothing square about them, who take their whisky out of oranges and talk like extorters."

Clearfield county has a population of a little over 43,000, an increase of 17,000, or 40 per cent. This puts it in the lead of all the counties which heretofore have always led Clearfield. The most remarkable gains are in the following districts:

Table with 2 columns: District Name, Population Increase. Rows include Clearfield borough (1,810), Houtzdale borough (2,400), Ocoala (1,254), Decatur (2,447), Huston (2,355), Lawrence (3,225), Sandy (3,729), Woodland (3,101).

Alexander H. Stephens in his speech at Augusta, Georgia, the other day, said that General Garfield was a leading error in the democratic party, and that legislation was rushed through Congress as a "rider" on an appropriation bill.

The Herald remembers humbly that there is no doubt a large and powerful element of the republican party which had General Garfield for its object and its sentiment which would value it highly if Hancock should be elected.

When Garfield republicans are asked why they desire the defeat of their own party they say they wish to show the country that a Presidential candidate can come from some other State than Ohio; that Ohio politicians are many-headed, soft and cheap; that Ohio politicians are narrow, ostentatious and not hurly-burly good fellows, and that if Hancock should be elected there would be enough Ohio men to retire from office to give Ohio a respectable position in the census report.

Gen. Hancock comes from the best revolutionary stock. He is a grandson of John Hancock, the first signer of the Declaration of Independence. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812, and he himself served through the Mexican war and the war of the rebellion.

HANCOCK AS A STATESMAN.

The New York Post, radical, also talks in the same strain.

Columbus, O., June 25.—A large meeting was held in the State-House yard last night to rally the Cincinnati nominations. Speeches were made by Senator Thurman and others.

"On the currency it would have been a sign of courage, statesmanship and sagacity if Garfield had recognized the difficulty and ultimate impossibility of keeping all our dollars equal, and have pointed out some method by which the gold standard could be accomplished."

On the tariff Mr. Garfield's expressions are generalities of no value in themselves, and interpreted in the light of his recent course in Congress give little cause for expecting any aid for those national reforms imperatively demanded by the interests of the country.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

A Democratic Judgment that "It is an Honest Document."

Whatever may be said against the Democratic platform, it cannot be denied that it is an honest and business-like document, and in this respect it is very unlike the bragging and blistering resolutions of the republican party.

"I am far from saying that Gen. Hancock is influenced by the example of Washington. Doubtless thousands of them are faithfully devoted to the principles which he embodied in the revolution."
