-As the pic-nic sesson is at hand, here is a receipt for making pic-nic lemonade that will not be expensive: First get your barrel. Then fill it with water. on't be mean, but put in plenty of water.-Now throw a pound of white sugar into your barrel. Squeeze in a large-sized on. Don't be mean about the lemon, either, but put the whole of it into the barrel. Stir with a long pole; and call the children up immediately. As fast as they drink fill the barrel with cold water. Have two stout men to haul water all day. The beverage thus made is cheap (if the lemon is bought at wholesale) and is quite
