Beside the Sea. A little blossom by the sea. All tempest-torn looked up to me, And shook its bright head smilingly: "I will love, I will live And be glad in the world, Tho' the sweetest part be gone.'

The stone was cold, the sea waves beat In endless surge about its feet, But still I heard the winds repeat " I will love, I will live And be glad in the world, Tho' the sweetest part be gone. Beside the sea, the barren sea, Tho' beats my heart rebelliously, I breathe, oh, life, a song to thee: "I will love. I will live And be glad in the world,

Tho' the sweetest part be gone." - Eva L. Emery. The English Language.

NUMBER 29.

Give praise to God above; Sing a new song of mighty joy And endless love.

In all thy path below, Who made thee faithful untoffee And crowns thee now!

Finish thy work, then wipe thy brow; Ungird thee from thy toil; Take breath, and from each weary limb Shake off the soil.

> Finish thy work, then sit thee down On some colestial hill, And of its strength-reviving air Take thou thy fill.

Finish Thy Work. Finish thy work, the time is short

The sun is in the west; The night is coming down-till then

Think not of rest.

Yes, finish all thy work, then rest;

Yes, must be never; Till then, rest never; The rest prepared for thes by God

Is rest forever.

Finish thy work, then go in peace; Life's battle fought and won, Hear from the throne the Master's voice,

"Well done! well done!"

Finish thy work, then take thy harp,
