DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET. WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. WILLIAM H. ENGLISH, OF INDIANA.

STATE TICKET. GEORGE A. JENKS, Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Some of the republican organs in this state are trying hard to make out of Garfield a tariff man.

Some republicans are shocked at Hancock because he swears.

But, the Credit Mobilier report shows that Garfield swears to—

The Census takers have found a locality in New Jersey where women seem to forget to die.

The value of imports and exports of merchandise of this country is given as follows:

The excess of exports over imports for the twelve months ended June 30th amounted to $67,908,359.

The value of imports and exports of merchandise during the preceding year ended June 30, 1880, exceeded the value of such imports and exports during the preceding year by $22,000,000, or 50 per cent.

The value of imports and exports of merchandise during the preceding year ended June 30, 1880, exceeded the value of such imports and exports during the preceding year by $22,000,000, or 50 per cent.

As a sample of how Republican thunder is manufactured we give this from the Boston Post:

There was a Garfield rag-raising in Maiden last night ago, that is, a large number of the ministers were called, the master of ceremonies asked for three cheers for Garfield.

Three cheers for Hancock? cried one-legged soldier, and fifteen hundred voices spoke out with a spontaneity which we have no authority to name the name they had been listening for.

ORGANIZE. It is time for democrats to organize for the campaign.

In today's paper we print Hancock's letter of acceptance. It is plain, straightforward and patriotic.

HANCOCK'S SHEPHERD LETTER. Hancock's letter to Gen. Sherman, in 1876, which the republicans alleged contained revolutionary sentiments.

The republican brag that some of the southern states would go radical is shown to have been all bark from the fact that they will make no fight in those states.

SPEECH FROM TILDEN.

At a monster ratification meeting, in New York on the night of 25th ult., Hon. S. J. Tilden, presided and on taking the chair delivered the following speech:

I thank you, my fellow citizens, for the cordiality of this greeting. I have come down this evening from my country home to join with you in expressing and declaring the purpose of the democracy of New York to sustain the nomination of General Hancock.

I have come under a stipulation of your committee in consequence of my hoarseness of voice.

There is one thing which I have to say to you, and that is, that the people of the United States demand a change of administration of the federal government.

A FRANK AND PATRIOTIC LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

The Constitution with all its Amendments is the Supreme Law of the Land—The Bayonet not a fit Instrument to Collect the Votes of Freemen—Neither Fraud nor Force Must be Allowed to Subvert the Rights of the People.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, NEW YORK CITY, July 29, 1880.—Gentlemen: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th inst., appointing me to the office of president of the United States by the nomination of the democratic convention held in Cincinnati.

I accept the nomination with grateful appreciation of the confidence reposed in me. The principles enunciated by the convention are those which I have cherished in the past and shall endeavor to maintain in the future.

The constitution of the United States is the basis of the government of the United States. The powers granted by it to the legislative, executive and judicial departments, define and limit the authority of the general government.

Powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution nor prohibited by it to the states belong to the states respectively, or to the people.

The government of the United States is a government of laws, and not of men. It is the duty of every citizen to obey the law.

GARFIELD AND DE GOLYER.

JUDGE SWAYNE'S OPINION ADOPTED BY PARLIAMENT.

The De Golyer Case Tried in a Chicago Court Analogous to the Trial Case Decided by the Ohio Jury—English of Vice Arthur.

In the case of Trist vs. Child in the United States supreme court, the late Chief Justice Swaine in his opinion made certain very clear and explicit animadversions on the practice of public patronage.

The chief justice's opinion was not only a masterpiece of logic, but also a masterpiece of eloquence.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. The following resolutions were passed by the Dem. Convention of Penna.

Resolved, First, That we the democratic party of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, do hereby reaffirm our faith in the fundamental principles proclaimed and practiced by the illustrious men who founded the democratic party to protect and preserve liberty.

Resolved, Second, That the just powers of the Federal Union, the rights of the states and the liberties of the people, are vital parts of one harmonious system; and to save each part in its whole constitutional vigor, it is necessary to preserve the whole.

Resolved, Third, That the democratic party maintains, as it ever has maintained, that the military arm, and ought to be, in all things subordinate to the civil government. It denounces as ever has denoted, the right of the Federal administration to keep on foot, for the general expense, a standing army, to be used for political purposes, without regard to constitutional restrictions.

Resolved, Fourth, That the right to a full ballot, by which the people may exercise their free and independent will, is the only means of peacefully redressing grievances and reforming abuses. The presence of a standing army, and the maintenance of a host of hiring officials, claiming the power to arrest and imprison citizens without trial, are a direct and deliberate violation of the rights of the people, and a menace to the stability of the government.

Resolved, Fifth, That the democratic party, as of old, favors a constitutional currency of gold and silver, and believes that a like result would follow its restoration to power in the state of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, Sixth, That the democratic party believes in the protection of the natural rights of the workingman, and in the promotion of the interests of the laboring classes, and in the promise of protection to its rights.

Resolved, Seventh, That we look with alarm and indignation upon the pretensions of the great transportation companies to be above the fundamental law of this commonwealth, and we believe that a like result would follow its restoration to power in the state of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, Eighth, That the democratic party believes in the protection of the natural rights of the workingman, and in the promotion of the interests of the laboring classes, and in the promise of protection to its rights.

Resolved, Ninth, That we look with alarm and indignation upon the pretensions of the great transportation companies to be above the fundamental law of this commonwealth, and we believe that a like result would follow its restoration to power in the state of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, Tenth, That the democratic party believes in the protection of the natural rights of the workingman, and in the promotion of the interests of the laboring classes, and in the promise of protection to its rights.
