The steamship Vera Gruz, which salled from New York for Havana and Vera Cruz, Mexico, has been wrecked in a hurricane off the coast of Florida. The first intimation of the disaster was received when portions of the steamship's mail and several corpses floated ashore on the Florida coast. The positive knowledge that the steamer had foundered was afterwards obtained from the lips of thir-teen survivors, eight sailors and three passen-gers, who confirmed the runnors of the ves-VEGETINE is acknowledged by all classes of people to be the best and most reliat purifier in the world.
