

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

Centre Hall, Pa., Thurs. Sept. 23, 1910.

TERMS—$2 per year, when paid in advance; $2.50 when not paid in advance. Advertisements 25c per line for three insertions, and 15c per line for every subsequent insertion. Advertisements by the year, at special rates. Subscribers to the county should remit by check or money order, payable to the order of the Reporter.

LODGE MEETINGS. CENTRE HALL LODGE, No. 100, O. O. F., meets every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. W. F. WOOD, Secy.

LOCAL ITEMS. Call at Dinges and see the new stock of goods just being unpacked. Bargains will be offered.

The Reservoir during the campaign 25 cents. Report on the campaign 25 cents. Archery Contest. Class ball shooting matches. Rifle Target shooting, at 100 yards, etc., will be among the features of the coming fair.

The Tinsmith school club will meet at Centre Hill school house on Friday evening 24. JOHN RUSSEL, Chairman.

New goods from New York and Philadelphia arriving daily at C. Dinges' store.

The farm of John Hubler, dec'd, in Haines' town, has been taken by Mr. Cornelius Bower, at $75,000 per acre.

There was a show in Gallagher town, Clinton county, on the Alleghenies, on Saturday.

Get your groceries at Schlers, and you are never deceived.

Levinson and Sternberg, at the Philad. Branch are trying to sell the cheapest and best men's and boys' suits in Pennsylvania. Go and see their stock.

Archery contest, rifle target shooting at 150 yards and glass ball shooting will be among the features of the coming fair.

All well regulated households get their groceries at Schler's famous grocery.

The officers are working hard to get every person, bring clothing to the fair this year, and may expect a grand success.

Go and see the Salt river suits at the Philad. Branch. Schler will have to go up Salt river after a while, and this is the best time to get an outfit of clothing for the trip.

The Maine election excitement is not all over yet, neither is the race for the Philad. Branch for new suits, which are sold dirt cheap and no cheat or shoddy in the goods, at all the goods, at a reduction of 25 to 30 per cent.

The Amusement Department of the fair will be in charge of Dr. J. D. Geisinger and S. D. Ray, and they will make the feature of the coming fair.

Women that are given up by their dearest friends as beyond help, have been permanently cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 253 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlet.

Seedlings always for pure and fresh groceries and at low prices.

Go to Schler's and see their large assortment of boots and shoes, and see cheaper than any where else.

Mr. John Condo, of Eldorado, California, paid the Kerosene a visit a few days ago. He is a native of our valley, but left for California 25 years ago, and this is his first visit back. He speaks highly of this state, and prefers it to any other for farming, and is engaged in mining gold quartz and is prospering.

Entries are already being rapidly made, and the coming fair will undoubtedly be the best ever held in Centre county.

Dr. Jonathan Meyer, of Sugar Valley, died suddenly on the morning of 15th of congestion of the brain. Dr. Meyer was well known in this county, and he died early that morning at the Irvin House. He had been about town the day previous, having come to town at sundown for a Democratic mass meeting, and appeared to be in good health and spirits. In the evening he attended the meeting in the Court House, where he was taken ill and removed to the hotel, but it was done so quietly that the attending physician was summoned promptly, but it was unavailing, as he was suffering from congestion of the brain and sinking rapidly. His morning he had passed away.

The amusement department will be superintended by Dr. J. D. Geisinger and S. D. Ray, and they will make it a perfect success in every respect.

LETTER FROM MISSOURI.

GRANT CITY, Mo., Aug. 31, 1880. EDITOR REPORTER.—I was greatly interested in reading the communication from the pen of my former schoolmate, G. W. Fortney. It recalls to my mind many pleasant recollections of my earlier boyhood days. I was born along the banks of the Missouri river, in the town of Grant City, in the State of Missouri. My father was a farmer, and I grew up on a farm. I attended the common schools, and then went to the University of Missouri, where I studied for a year. I then returned home and engaged in farming. I have since been engaged in various occupations, but I have never forgotten my home and my friends. I have often thought of the good old days, and of the friends who have since passed away. I have often thought of the good old days, and of the friends who have since passed away. I have often thought of the good old days, and of the friends who have since passed away.

During the past week C. Dinges has been in the city purchasing a full stock of goods, which are to be sold cheap at any place in the county.

Mr. J. W. Keller, who returned from Kansas a few days since, has returned to the Reservoir office, raised by Mr. Sam'l Working, of Dickinson county, Kas, and is now at the Reservoir office. There are 14 rows, and 51 grains to the row, a total of 714 grains, large and white.

Maine is all right, so is the Philad. Branch for the best and cheapest clothing.

The Gregg Hancock club meets in the mountain district on Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. F. K. Kurtz, who will address the meeting.

For a splendid fall overcoat cheap go to Lewins, at the Philad. Branch.

Never miss Lewins and Sternberg, at the Philadelphia Branch when at Bellefonte.

The largest stock of dry goods, is at Dinges. Give them a call.

On last Friday morning three Spring wagons and one buggy drove up to the Lutheran Parsonage and surprised the pastor. Many interesting things were seen, and the pastor was very much surprised. The wagons were loaded with goods, and the pastor was very much surprised.

The 7th annual picnic of the Patron of Husbandry of Centre county, was held on Thursday. The crowd was very large, and was made up of families from every part of the county, and some from adjoining counties. The grounds were in admirable order by the committee. Seats were provided, and a speakers' stand, decorated with flags and wreaths of evergreen. Immediately over the front of the stand was the word "Welcome" worked in evergreen upon a white background.

Four brass bands were present: The pleasant band with its fine and costly uniforms. The Millheim band with its handsome wagon; the well-known Zion band, and the Pine Hill band. There were 10 booths for selling refreshments, and all made money.

At the proper hour the assembly was called to order by Deputy Rhone, who announced the following officers: President: Col. Jas. F. Weaver. Vice Presidents: Walter Dunkle, G. W. Campbell, Chris. Alexander, Jas. T. Meyer, Will Kerr, J. A. Keller, David Young.

Prayer followed by Rev. Isaac Frink, Deputy Rhone then delivered the address, expressing the welcome extended by the Patrons to all, and setting forth the great results accomplished by the order for themselves especially and in many respects for those outside. The address was handed up for publication, but it is not published in this paper.

The reply was from Rev. J. Keller Miller, who in his usual clear and able manner expressed the pleasure of the Patrons to all, and setting forth the relation of every class which makes us all stand in need of one of the other. None being above the other, all should fraternize, hold their proper place and accord each other their rights and becoming respectation.

At the close of Rev. Miller's remarks recess of 15 hours was announced for dinner and social intermingling. Hundreds of cloths were spread upon the ground and tables, laden with the best that the wives and daughters of the Patrons could procure. The afternoon hour was approaching. There had been so many disappointments and misadventures, however, that it was not until about six o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday that the Patrons were able to get to the dining room, where the whole city and as the welcome news spread it was only natural that the populace should have been attracted to the place. People of all classes stayed in the Plaza del Oriente or in the palace windows all day, and the crowd increased until the afternoon, when it was known that the palace messenger had been ordered off at half-past four to summon Ministers. Hours passed as the Patrons were treated as the intelligent went abroad until by nightfall the evening of the palace presented a very animated scene. Directly Queen Christina fell the first symptoms of travail her Austrian physician advised the Duke of Szabo, the Lord Chamberlain, who immediately ordered the commanding officer of the Halbarriers of the Guard to send eighty men to the palace, and the Duke of Szabo and the Duke of Saxe-Coburg named by royal order to be present at the birth. Before their arrival King Alfonso, ex-Queen Isabella, the Princess of Asturias, the Archduchess Isabella and the ladies of the Royal Household had assembled in the bedchamber of the Queen, with the Austrian physician. In another room, close by, were the two wretches from Santaroga, in their pretty costumes of gold and silver, and the Duke of Saxe-Coburg.

A Brilliant Assemblage. The interior of the palace was a scene of great animation. The guards came to occupy the gates and line the staircase and ante-chamber. Then came the grandees, the nobles and generals, knights of nobility, and the ladies in their beautiful gowns and military orders in the bedchamber of the Queen. It was a brilliant assemblage of the power of the Spanish nobility, and the military orders in the bedchamber of the Queen. It was a brilliant assemblage of the power of the Spanish nobility, and the military orders in the bedchamber of the Queen.

SPORTSMEN LOOK HERE! Little Breech-loading Remington Sporting Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains.

Little Breech-loading Remington Sporting Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains.

Little Breech-loading Remington Sporting Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains.

Little Breech-loading Remington Sporting Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains.

Little Breech-loading Remington Sporting Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains.

Little Breech-loading Remington Sporting Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Winchester Rifles, Calibres .22, .24, and .30; great bargains. Muzzle loading double shot guns, $8.50 to $20; great bargains.

HOW HE EARNED THE FEE RECEIVED FROM M'CLELLAND.

He Declares that He Made an Argument Before the Board of Public Works. From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works. The late General was a member of the Board of Public Works, and it is now being administered by the Board of Public Works. The late General was a member of the Board of Public Works, and it is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

From his Speech at Warren, Ohio, September 10, 1874. It is not to be wondered at that the public mind is so much interested in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

DR. TANNER'S LECTURE.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works. The late General was a member of the Board of Public Works, and it is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

Dr. Tanner began his lecture by instancing the historical and other facts relating to the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

THE TRUTH ABOUT GARFIELD'S "ARGUMENT."

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works. The late General was a member of the Board of Public Works, and it is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

General Garfield's "Argument" before the Board of Public Works, in the case of the late General George B. McClelland, who was killed at the battle of Antietam, and whose estate is now being administered by the Board of Public Works.

FIFTY LIVES LOST AT SEA.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned. The steamer Aurora, from Oporto bound for Southampton, has foundered with fifty persons were drowned.

The steamer Aurora,