YARD, QUATE, EDITOR

CENTRE HALL, Pa., Oct. 7, 1880.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM H. ENGLISH, OF INDIANA.

STATE TICKET.

SUPREME JUDGE, GEORGE A. JENKINS, Jefferson County.

AUDITOR GENERAL, ROBERT P. DECHERT, Philadelphia.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

CONGRESS.

ANDREW G. CURTIN, of Centre Co. For Legislature—J. P. GEPHART, W. A. MURRAY.

For District Attorney—W. C. HEINLE, For County Surrogate—SAM L. BRUGGER.

The democracy of the South in many localities have already passed resolutions strongly endorsing Gen. Hancock's letter against rebel claims.

Maine is all in official. Plaided has 234 majority over Davis, republican, for governor.

Gephart and Murray both voted against the 4 million riot bill.

There is a porch to Garfield's house, which the great proprietor often passes under.

No consistent democrat will refuse to vote for Gephart or Murray.

The members left a record last winter that is without a flaw.

If General Garfield had been permitted to have his way in Congress, the treasury of the Union would have been depleted of more than thirty millions of dollars.

The Alabama democrats knock another prop from under the 32nds.

We beg to remind the republicans of this county that they mistake in proposing to make a trade-horse of Wm. J. Thompson to favor the 1st National Bank.

The Bellefonte Republican of last week has senseless and insulting blather about burning Garfield in effigy.

The next letter from Hancock will be in the shape of an Inaugural.

The greatest panics and crashes, and failures in business—more of them than in any other period—occurred in the last 15 years.

Our regular army has little hold upon the affections of the people of today.

Mr. Heinle, our nominee for district attorney, is a self-made man.

Judge Black's letter, printed in last week's Reporter, makes 329 appear all the more pitiful.

Curtin Nominated.

Mr. Curtin has again been placed in nomination for Congress by the democracy of this district.

The democracy intend this time to see that the Governor receives a full vote and a handsome majority.

Gov. Curtin has battled nobly in the democratic ranks since 1872.

Let democrats give the great war governor their most earnest support and strive to roll up for him one of the best majorities ever rolled in the 20th district.

He will be found true to all Pennsylvania's interests, with the ability to advocate her cause and cope with the foremost in debate.

Arthur, who is running on the republican ticket, with corrupt Garfield, for vice president, was removed from the New York custom house, charged by both Hayes and Sherman.

The republicans have a nominee for district attorney without a ray of hope for his election.

Voters of Centre county do you want a man to represent you who in 1876 tried to cheat the State out of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS TAXES!

The Effect Upon Business Interests.

The favorite argument against a change of administration is the injury that will be done to the business interests of the country.

The people have a very low opinion of the good sense of the people of the United States.

First, the men who constitute the administration to-day, with one or two exceptions, never had ability enough to manage their own business in such a way as to greatly distinguish themselves.

The National Bank's Candidate For The Legislature.

Voters of Centre county are you prepared to have the principal officer, the head of the National Bank, represent you in the Legislature?

The National Bank has become sufficiently unpopular to at least keep the background of politics.

First, the men who constitute the administration to-day, with one or two exceptions, never had ability enough to manage their own business in such a way as to greatly distinguish themselves.

REPUBLICAN WASTE.

Hon. W. S. Groesbeck of Ohio in a recent speech presented in a most vivid light the wastefulness and extravagance of the republican party.

The government loaned to six of these parties, since 1861, more than $4,000,000.

First, the men who constitute the administration to-day, with one or two exceptions, never had ability enough to manage their own business in such a way as to greatly distinguish themselves.

DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY.

From the New York Star, Sept. 23, 1880. In 1875 the Democrats recovered a majority in the House of Representatives, and they went to work to mend the matters of the people.

Let us take a glance at some of these results as a comparison with the last "unadulterated" Radical administration and the administration with a full Democratic Congressional control.

Take, first, the receipts: For 1875, under Grant, the receipts of customs were $177,722, under Hayes they were $196,522,064—an increase of $23,554,342.

Now turn to the expenditures: In 1875 the war department cost $41,120,646; in 1880, under Hayes, it cost $38,116,916—a decrease of $3,003,730.

THE SOLID SOUTH.

From Wade Hampton's N. Y. Speech. Why did not our republican friends, who effect to see now such danger in the south, point out and protest against the danger when the south was absolutely solid for the republican party?
