LOCAL ITEMS.

SCHOOL TAX.—Notice is hereby given that the school directors have the honor to advise that the school tax for 1910 is now due.

—The fair was largely attended. The display about the same as in former exhibitions.

—Lewins sold more clothing during the week than all other dealers in the town.

—The Hancock Legion of Bellefonte is one of the best of the kind in the county.

—Go to Lewins for a good warm suit of clothes, for about half price you pay at other places.

—Mr. Daniel Kennedy, of Will County, Ill., called to see the other day in company with Robert McCormick.

—An ore shaft was begun on Tuesday on the ground of Mr. John Harter, back of the Reformed church at Centre Hall.

—Lumber operations are brisk on the Tressler tract in Geauga Valley, recently purchased by Gen. Greig.

—If you see a well dressed fellow don't envy him, you can dress just like him for $25.

—Mr. John Harper, of State College, had his right hand torn off by a threshing one day last week.

—At all the weddings held last week, within a circle of fifty miles, the suits worn were from the Phila. Branch.

—If there is a better team of merchants, lively, pleasant and accommodating, than Rauland & Newman, with their score of pleasant clerks, male and female, in this store, we have not yet heard of them.

—The Rauland's will extend its campaign to March 4, 1911, Hancock's inauguration, at 12 1/2 per cent.

—The Phila. Branch has clothing enough to supply all the men and boys in this county.

—The family of Mr. Wm. Mueser, living a short distance south of the Fort, has been sorely afflicted with typhoid fever.

—Take good advice and when you want a good boot or shoe, that is honestly put together, go to Powers & Son.

—The epizooty is breaking out among the horses in New York and other places.

—The Beehive is the people's store for dry goods. One price and best quality.

—Prof. Bitner who so successfully taught a free school in this place, for two years has left to take charge of the Penn Hall free school.

—They go like hot cakes—those splendid Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

—A complete set of Appleton's New American Encyclopedia, good as new, 1678 pages, 10 vols., offered for sale at a greatly reduced price.

—The Beehive was the great center of attraction, last week—far ahead of the fair for personal benefit.

—Stoneware all sizes, wholesale and retail, at Seehler's. They buy by the car load hence are able to sell it lower than other dealers who purchase only small quantities.

THIRTY PERSONS KILLED. TWO CROWDED PASSENGER TRAINS IN COLLISION IN THE HEART OF PITTSBURGH.

Pittsburgh, Pa., October 9.—A terrible tragedy occurred here tonight on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The Wall accommodation train which left here at 11:30 o'clock came in collision with a special train from Greensburg at Twenty-eighth street.

Both were filled with passengers. The Wall train was crowded with about 150 persons. The special train carried several marching clubs which participated in a Democratic demonstration here to-night.

Eight persons were killed outright and ten injured. Nothing definite, however, is known at this hour.

LATER.—30 deaths are reported by the collision of trains near Pittsburgh.

A TERRIBLE MASSACRE ON SHIPBOARD. San Francisco, October 6.—The following particulars of an outrage upon the schooner Esperanza by the natives of the Solomon Islands were reported by the natives to the captain of the Quana, recently arrived from Sydney.

The mate, Peter Salley, was butchered in a similar manner, and the other members of the crew were killed or maimed.
