—Jerome Spigelmyer, formerly of Centre Hall, has opened a new store, in Sheriff Musser's building, at Millheim ☩

—The Mormons having elected John Taylor president to succeed Brigham Young, he will order a new suit from the Philadelphia Branch, it will be shipped out in two weeks. Ask Lewins to show it to you.

—The best hams in the world are kept at Sechlers, without any doubt or risk. Try their meats—they keep all kinds—fresh beef, dried beef, breakfast bacon, and sugar cured ham. They pride themselves upon the superiority of their meats.

—The dwelling house and an outbuilding of Wm. Hinkson near Woodward, were destroyed by fire, one day last week, all contents were burned.

J. W. REITSNYDER,

—When the ladies have shopped all over creation they generally find what they want at the Beehive. Its queer, but its true, and the reason is, Bauland & Newman understand their business and know just what the people want.

—It is feared there will be a big row in Haines twp, when the Farmer's Store, Fiedler & Runkle, get their new goods—all want to rush in and be first, so great are the bargains. Keep cool, they are now in the city, and in a few days will have goods for all and the best bargains in the valley.

—Thanks to Aaron Spangler for a basket of fine apples—large and tempting. Aaron is doing big work for Hancock and knows how to raise some of the finest apples in the county.

—If you wish to select from the largest stock of children's and boys suits, at lowest prices, go to Lyon & Co's.

—The republicans of Spring Mills attempted a bonfire, Saturday night. But the heavens had dampened the pile with rain, and it wouldn't consume. All the coal oil in the stores was pressed into the service—329 pints—but only a puff and spurt could be got out of the pile. Looking for a probable reason, a Garfielder turned a log and found 329 chalked on it—that was too much, fire wouldn't even touch it with the help of coal oil.

—We heard a fellow say the other day he got more clothing for $20 of Lewins, at the Philad. Branch, than he did for $37 at a certain other store, not a year ago. That's what gives the Philad. Branch its great reputation, selling clothing for less than any others can.

—The ground was frozen on Tuesday morning and ice had formed in ditches.

—The Philad. Branch is headquarters for suits, or boots, for men and boys. The biggest assortment and lowest prices. Lewins and Sternberg are the cleverest salesmen this side of Jerusalem.

—Spring Mills "on the hill" speaks of quite a number of new residences to go up in the spring, among others a summer resort.

Spring Mills "in the hollow" is having a new store-building now in course of erection by R. H. Duncan.

☞ All the Hancock clubs in Centre county are invited to the grand Hancock Basket Pic-nic, on Nittany mountain, Oct. 29. Grand torchlight parade and speeches at Centre Hall in the evening.

—A great surprise is in store for all in this section, in the arrival of a splendid stock of new goods, at Wm. Wolf's old stand, by end of this week. Mr. Wolf is now in the east, and as usual will bring on the largest, finest and choicest assortment in the valley. He is noted for buying nothing but what is superior in quality, and keeps genuine goods in every line. Hold up until Wolf's goods arrive and you will never be sorry for it.

—Jas. Osman, of Linden Hall, had several fingers smashed on last Thursday at Spring Mills, by a sack of salt falling upon his hand,

☞ All the Hancock clubs in Centre county are invited to the grand Hancock Basket Pic-nic on Nittany mountain, Friday, Oct. 29. Grand torchlight parade and speeches at Centre Hall in the evening.

—The Beehive! the Beehive! what would the good people of Centre county do if they had not the famous Beehive to go to for their dress goods and all manner of drygoods, and good, neat fitting suits, made to order? Bauland & Newman did much for the people when they established the Beehive, to offer the largest and best assortment of goods at the lowest prices—one price to all.

—A fellow out in Snowshoe has worn a pair of boots for a long time and says there seems no wear out in them. He got them at Powers' shoe store, where they only keep that class of goods in order that customers may feel they have the worth of their money. Powers & Son keep the largest and best assortment of boots and shoes in the state, for men, women and children, and sell very low, too,

—A large sum indeed is fifty thousand dollars, yet that is the amount of Clothing sold at the Philad. Branch, in one year. Lewins puts out suits like hot cakes, and not a customer but what is pleased with his bargain. Always go to Lewins if you want any clothing.

—Ladies, you can buy a vest at Lyon & Co's for 25 cents and black and colored brocade silks at 50cts.

—Thousands of women have been entirely cured of the most stubborn cases of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets. 21oct 2t.

Boiling water for tea, free, at Hancock Pic-nic, on Nittany Mt. Friday 29.

—The democracy of Gregg had an enthusiastic meeting at Ripka's school house, on Thursday evening. The Farmers Mills band was present, and a delegation of the club from Spring Mills with torches. The house was crowded. The President, Mr. Kerlin, introduced Mr. Kurtz as speaker for the evening. At the conclusion of his remarks Mr. Geo. Jameson, of Virginia, formerly of Pennsvalley, was called upon, and refuted all the stories and slanders against the southern people, as he lives in the south now, he knows that the people of that section are greatly wronged by the radicals of the north in order to make political capital. They are as peaceable, gentlemanly, as moral and well behaved as any people he knows in Pennsylvania, and desire to be on good terms with the northern people, and are longing for honest government and to be treated fairly. Mr. Kerlin then made an earnest appeal to democrats to do their duty on election day. The meeting then adjourned.

☞ Chairman Dill has promised to send distinguished speakers to the Hancock Basket Pic-nic, on Nittany mountain, Friday, Oct. 29.

—When you buy a suit at the Philad. Branch, you have the satisfaction of knowing what you have got. Their clothing all manufactured by their own house, out of genuine material, and they guarantee what they sell as being what is represented. They keep no auction goods, and have all plainly marked. Now try them and see whether this is not all true.

—Ed. Krumrine is still industriously adding names to the Gregg Hancock club. We judge he'll soon clear 329.

—Hot water for tea or coffee free on the grounds to all who attend the great Hancock Basket Pic-nic on Nittany Mt., Friday, Oct. 29.

—Why buy ready made trash when you can get a suit made to your measure for same or less money, and better fit at the Beehive, where an experienced Philadelphia tailor is employed.

—An umbrella belonging to the REPORTER office, has been lost, or disappeared. The finder will oblige by leaving it here.

—Hats of every style, low priced and high priced at the Philad. Branch clothing store; also under garments, ties, kerchiefs, and boots of the best manufacture. Lewins has everything to trim you out from head to foot, fit to go to meetin or get married, and for a great deal less money than any other clothing house in Pennsylvania. An honest fact. Try it, and save cash.

—A radish weighing 8½ lbs. was sent to the REPORTER, by Mrs. Daniel Decker, of the 7 Mts. Its a democratic radish, of course, and was sound and sweet to the core.

—The Kingdoms of Ditzel and Taylor, in the Loop, were at war again last week—resulting in young Taylor becoming a boarder of Sheriff Spangler's until court.

Taylor entered bail for his appearance at court.

—A welcome rain last Saturday morning, before day. Followed by a pouring rain in the evening and continuing during the night. Monday cold and windy.

THAT HANCOCK WILL CARRY.

English, Hendricks and Others Give Figures for Their Faith.

The Democrats of Indiana are already in arms and eager and hopeful for the November struggle. They know no such word as give up. Hendricks, English and McDonald claim the State as sure for Hancock. The majority of the Republican candidates aside from Governor is trifling, and is more than overcome by Hancock's certain gain from the opposition. The thousands of fraudulent votes polled on Tuesday cannot be repeated in November. The Democrats of Indiana believe they can carry their State for Hancock; they are working to that end, and we believe they will succeed.

Gov. McClellan of New Jersey, also gives words of encouragement and good advice to cheer on the Democracy.

From New York, Connecticut and the Pacific Coast States, the news is most encouraging.

The reverse of Tuesday will only serve to put the Democracy of the Union on their mettle. The indomitable spirit of the party has not been weakened. It comes out more resolute under discouragements and learns the lesson of victory from defeat.

The duty of the Pennsylvania Democracy is to relax no effort, but give the Republicans all the work they can do in this State, and so keep Republican repeaters and money at home.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS.

The State Committee Calls on Them to Go on With Confidence in the Good Cause.

PHILADELPHIA, October 14.—The following address has been issued by the Democratic State Committee:

Headquarters State Democratic Committee, Philadelphia, October 14, 1880

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

Indiana goes Republican by a small majority: Ohio holds her position as a Republican State. The latter result was expected. Our opponents' success in Indiana is the result of means alike discreditable to those employing them and destructive of honest elections. The corrupt use of enormous sums of money and of organized fraud protected by Federal power against a weak candidate for Governor has given Indiana temporarily to our foe. But Indiana will be redeemed, for Hancock is stronger than local candidates everywhere. But of this nettle, danger, we will pluck the flower safety. We have done with side issues and weak candidates, for November gives a broader field and Hancock is at the front. Arouse the people everywhere. Push the column boldly. Give new force and increased vigor to the newspaper and speaking canvass in every locality. Embolden the timid, encourage the hesitating. Redouble your efforts among the masses—make them feel that this battle is for their rights, and is against the power of money, organized fraud and a "strong" Government. Appeal to their personal independence against the domination of employers, to personal right against corporate power, to State pride and love of country against centralized government and Federal corruption, to the rule of the people against an army of office-holders. We fight for the State, for electors, Congressmen and the Legislature. Let it be with the earnest force of men who are determined to coerce victory, and we can carry Pennsylvania for our gallant son. He saved the State and the republic at Gettysburg. Let us rally with united forces and desperate energy to repay to him the debt of gratitude the people owe him, and to restore to the whole country unity, prosperity and peace.

A. H. DILL, Chairman.

IN OHIO.

The Democrats Picking Their Flints for the Next Battle.

Columbus, October 15.—We have called a meeting of the State Committee, County Committee Chairman, the Electoral ticket and leading Democrats, to meet here tomorrow to organize for the final struggle.

The frauds by which the Republican majority of last Tuesday was procured will not be repeated in November. One thousand more votes were cast in Columbus than the census shows there were male inhabitants, over the age of twenty-one years, which clearly shows that Republican repeaters got in their work to a much greater extent in this city than at first supposed.

An estimate from official returns received from twelve counties shows that the Democracy polled last Tuesday thirty thousand more votes than at any previous election. Thousands of Democratic workingmen who were bulldozed by their Republican employers to vote the Republican ticket will vote for Hancock in November.

Whilst the Democracy of Ohio are disappointed at Tuesday's result there is an earnest determination to leave nothing undone and continue the fight for the "Hero of Gettysburg" and "Victory," until the polls close on the second prox.

JOHN G THOMPSON,
Chairman State Committee.

Better Feeling at Democratic Headquarters.

[Columbus special to Enquirer.]

Columbus, October 15—The gloom that has hung over Democratic headquarters has lifted, and the bosses and the boys are hard at work again. Jongee smiles once more, and says it will never do for the Ohio Democracy to give up. Invitations are being sent out to all the prominent Democrats in the State to meet here next Saturday afternoon for consultation. It will probably be the largest informal meeting of prominent Democrats that has been held at the capital in years.

To-day I visited both headquarters, to secure, as near as possible, a correct return of the majorities by counties. At Democratic headquarters seventy counties had been reported, and about eighty at Republican headquarters. All the counties have been reported at the two headquarters but Licking. I took the Democratic returns and with the aid of Chairman Nash I compared and revised them.

The Republican majority on Secretary of State in 1880, 18,774; net Republican gain, 1 545 in a total of 700 000 votes.

The Democrats made gains in thirty-four, and the Republicans in fifty four counties. The largest Democratic gains were made in strong Republican counties.

CHAIRMAN BARNUM TO THE DESPONDENT.

The True Cause of Defeat in Indiana —The Old Hoosier Commonwealth Still a Democratic State—Democrats, Courage! Rally Around the Great Hero of Gettysburg.

AN ADDRESS TO THE DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE VOTERS OF THE COUNTRY.

New York, October 14—At a meeting of the democratic national committee today the following address was adopted:

To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of the Country: The election of president and vice president is now before you. State and local dissensions are eliminated from the issues of the day. The magnitude of a victory or a defeat can only be estimated by the forces and means employed in securing it. By fraud and corruption the people of the country were defeated in their purpose in 1876 and the rightful by elected president was kept from office. With the combined capital of the republican party, aided by repeated assessments upon an army of office-holders, with the power of the federal government represented by the United States marshals at the polls with intimidation, fraud and a resort to every corrupt appliance known to republican methods concentrated in the two states our adversaries have succeeded in procuring the probable returns of their local candidates. Can it be possible that in every state throughout this broad land the same methods can be brought to bear that were used by the republican managers in Indiana and Ohio? Can the great states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, California, Colorado, Nevada and New Hampshire be bought, intimidated and defrauded? Even without the vote of Indiana, which I believe will be redeemed in November, with New York and New Jersey, and these states are conceded to us, including Maine, the election of our candidate is assured. The republican party have put in nomination for president and vice president, two men who, by the admission of their own party and press are unworthy of our confidence and suffrages. It is impossible that fifty millions of intelligent and patriotic people will consent to place themselves upon the humiliating level thus prepared for them by the republican managers,

Fellow citizens, the first day's repulse at Gettysburg ended on the third, with Hancock in the front, in a glorious victory. That victory secured us our union. The question is not now the preservation of the union, but of constitutional government. Hancock is now, as then, in the front. The repulse is new, as then, the omen of a victory which is to secure to coming generations the inestimable blessings of civil liberty.

By order of the democratic national committee.

WILLIAM H. BARNUM,
Chairman.

HANCOCK ON TARIFF.

A LETTER FOR THE "BUSINESS PERILISTS" TO READ.

What a Tariff for Revenue Really Means—The Free Trade Bugaboo Killed—The Business of the Country Must be Protected From Under Paid Foreign Labor.

New York, October 15.—General Hancock has written a letter to ex-Governor Randolf of New Jersey, in regard to the interview published in the Paterson Guardian.

GOVERNOR'S ISLAND, N. Y., October 12, 1880.—My Dear Governor: I have received your favor of the 11th inst. In my letter of acceptance I expressed my full sympathy with our American industry. I thought I spoke plainly enough to satisfy our Jersey friends regarding my tariff views. I am too sound an American to advocate any departure from the general features of a policy that has been largely instrumental in building up our industries and keeping Americans from the competition of the under paid labor of Europe. If we intend to remain honest and pay the public debt, as good people of all parties do, and if we mean to administer the functions of the government then we must raise revenue in some way or other. With a reunited and harmonious country we shall certainly in time pay off the public debt, but the necessity of raising money for the administration of the government will continue as long as human nature lasts. All parties agree that the best way for us to raise revenue is largely by the tariff. So far as we are concerned, therefore, all talk about "free trade" is folly. But the tariff question will probably be treated with justice to all our interests and people by some such bill as Eaton's. I believe that a commission of intelligent experts representing both the government and the American industries, will suggest the tariff measures that will relieve us of any crudities and inconsistencies existing in our present laws and confirm to us the system that will be judicious, just, harmonious and incidentally protective as well as stable in its effect.

I am, very truly yours,
WINFIELD S. HANCOCK.

Hon. Theo. Randolph, Morristown, New Jersey.

Bellefonte May 6. ALEXANDER & CO.

The New York Commercial Advertiser Republican, states this: "The cotton crop of this year closing 31st August, proves to be 5 757.000 bales, the heaviest in the history of the country, and the largest in money value. It is nearly a million of bales ahead of the crop of 1859-60, the year before the rebellion, and about 750 000 bales ahead of last year, which yielded 6 073 000 bales. Of the crop just closed, 3,865 000 bales were marketed abroad. In the fiscal year 1879 80 cotton and cotton fabrics brought $221,5 7,000 to our international exchanges, and in this crop year 1,760,000 bales were spun at home. This added an other $100 000 000 to the planting States, making considerable over three hundred millions of dollars, in sound money from a single crop, the product of the labor of colored freedmen." This don't look as if "outrage business" was the sole employment of Southern whites, and hiding in swamps the sole refuge of the colored race. It rather has the appearance of quiet and prosperous conditions, with good feeling between the whites and black. The Advertiser however, is in error about cotton being the sole product of the labor of Southern freedmen. Two thirds of the cotton crop is raised by white labor, and nearly all the capital employed in this great industry is furnished by white men.

After twenty-one centuries the remains of the 360 young Thebans, formerly the "Sacred Battalion," who fell at the terrible battle of Cheronea have been dug up. During the summer excavations have been made around the gigantic memorial lion which was placed in the centre of the field to commemorate the deeds of heroism of that dark day. A wall 2½ yards in length and 15 yards in breadth was first found beneath the soil. Within this enclosure at a depth of four yards lay the bones of 185 Thebans, resting side by side, ranged in rows of forty, each in the attitude in which he died. Seven such rows have been found. They are so placed that the heads of those of the second rank repose at the feet of the first. All bear the marks of the blows which caused their death. One of them has both theighs pierced by thrusts of the spear; another has the jawbone broken and splintered; a third has the skull terribly hacked; a fourth, whose head is wonderfully well preserved, has the mouth still wide open as if he breathed. This last will be conveyed to the Museum of Antiquities at Athens. What is especially noticeable about it is that the jaw possess every tooth in perfect order. No weapons have been found.

The Utes threaten trouble again.

San Francisco, October 13.—The revenue cutter Corwin brings news that at St Lawrence Island out of 700 inhabitants 500 were found dead of starvation. The traders had introduced liquor among them causing them to neglect laying up the usual supply of provisions.
