—It is rare to hear a soldier speak otherwise than well of Gen. Hancock. But there is a hospital bummer down the valley who had the cheek to say Hancock was a drunkard. We never knew a hospital bummer but what he lied—because it required a lie to make him such a bummer.

—Our friend A. S. Kerlin has moved his headquarters to the new axe manufactory at Tyrone, in which he is a partner and Secretary. We wish him success, and whenever they let a stray sample of their axes drop into our woodpile we will let our readers know what a hand we are at chopping wood. Success to you and your axes, Abe. Mr. Kerlin's store at Stone mill is still carried on by trusted clerks.

—You need no longer send your boys out with shabby clothing—suits are now sold so low at the famous Philad. Branch that you can have your youngsters decently clad. Go and see for yourselves.

—The total acreage of wheat in Ohio in 1879 was 2,318,370 and the total number of bushels raised 40,052,119—an average yield per acre of 17 2-10 bushels. This is the heaviest yield by 5,000,000 bushels ever reported and the largest average since 1850, when it was 18 bushels per acre. We are certain that Centre county wheat fields would show as good an average as the above—taking Penns and Nittany vallies.

—Our Little Ones, printed by the Russell Publishing Company, Boston and edited by Wm. T. Adams, (Oliver Optic) is a new illustrated monthly for young people. The first number has reached our table and we must say pleases us. It is sprightly in appearance and we feel sure will take wherever it becomes known. Its price is but $1.50 per year, which is a low figure considering its size and make-up. The engravings are very clear.

—The Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad extending from Tyrone to Pennsylvania Furnace, a distance of 16.9 miles, will be open on and after Monday the 8th, and will be operated by the Pennsylvania railroad company as a part of the Tyrone division. The following are the several stations thereon, and their respective distance from Tyrone: Weston's Mill, 1.7 miles; Pennington, 5.1 miles; Warriorsmark, 7.4 miles; Furnace Road, 10.4 miles; Marengo, 13.3 miles; Hosler, 15.0 miles; Pennsylvania Furnace, 16.9 miles. There will be two passenger trains each way daily.

—Write to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, No. 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets relative to the curative properties of her Vegetable Compound in all female complaints. 18nov. 2t.

Petersburg, Va., had snow on 14th.

The receipts for freight carried over the Tyrone and Lewistown railroad between Pennsylvania Furnace and Tyrone for the month ending October 30, amount to $1,721.45

—Lyon & Co. have the largest and finest stock of over coats in the state.

—The Y. M. C. A., of Centre Hall have been observing this week as a week of prayer. They will have meetings on Thursday and Friday evenings, to which all are invited.

—Persons back on the REPORTER for several years, will do us a favor by remitting at least a part of amount due. We need cash to keep business going.

AN EXPENSIVE TRIAL.—The trial of English, the Elk county murderer, cost Elk county nearly $5,000, and the commissioners have been compelled to issue bonds for that amount to pay up.

—It is announced that the American Bible revision committee have finished their revision of English version of the New Testament, and transmitted the result to England. The British committee will meet this month for final action, and it is expected that the Oxford and Cambridge presses will issue the revised New Testament in February next. The Old Testament will not be ready for publication for nearly three years.

—The election is over and all is quiet, except the stir at the Philad. Branch, caused by a constant rush of men and boys for those cheap suits. The Philad. Branch keeps an assortment as large as any three stores in the county. It is the only store that sells goods of its own manufacture, and that is the reason Lewins can afford to sell you a suit from $3 to $7 less than any others.

—On the farm of Wm. Harter, near Aaronsburg, L. Mench tenant, off of 32 acres there was a yield of 900 bushels wheat—an average of about 30 bushels to the acre. We suppose this up to any western farming. But there is another farm in the same neighborhood, the Aaron Dutweiler farm, Mr. A. F. Kramer, tenant, there was a yield of 840 bushels wheat from 31 acres. These two samples show what good farming will do and that you need not go west for a large yield.

Dr. Mettaur's Headache and Dyspepsia Pills, price 25 cents, cure at once, Headache, Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Constipation. 18 no 4t

—The election is over—some think Hancock is still sure of the seat; many others are firm in the belief that Garfield will be sworn in, but all agree that it is an evidence of good family management, or home government, to get your groceries of Sechler & Co., the best, purest and cheapest.

—Mr. William Ehrhart, we regret to say, died suddenly of heart disease, at his home at Spring Mills, on last Sunday evening. Mr. E. was a son of ex-commissioner Ehrhart, dec'd, of Miles township, and was a resident of Centre Hall some 6 or 8 years. He was respected by all who knew him for his uprightness. His age was 51 years. He leaves a widow—his second wife—and 7 or 8 children.

Since writing the above we learn that Mr. Ehrhart dropped dead into the arms of Dr. Van Valzah as he was in the act of administering medicine to him.

Corn shellers with cleaning attachments, hay and straw cutters, fodder cutters and crushers, farmers chopping or grinding mills of the most improved make, for sale by ALEXANDER & CO.,

—The Reformed church at Centre Hall during the past summer collected funds and purchased a new organ, which now accompanies their worship with its melodious strains. In order to put the finishing touch to the whole affair they deem it proper to consecrate said instrument to the special service of Almighty God. They have accordingly fixed upon next Sunday evening, Nov. 21, to engage in these appropriate services. The Rev. J. F. DeLong, of Bellefonte, is invited to preach the dedicatory sermon. In the afternoon there will be no service excepting that of the Sunday School, though it would be the regular time for divine service, because of the dedication this is postponed until evening. S. W. R.

—Ho! for Salt River! Well, just hold on, the presidency may not be settled yet, hence you have time to get a good, warm suit, at the Philad. Branch. They manufacture their own clothing, hence sell you genuine goods, no shoddy, and far cheaper than any dare offer to sell. Try them before you buy elsewhere. It is an item when you can save pennies, but at the Philad. Branch you can save dollars—and a dollar is a big thing now.

—Three romantic Kentucky girls recently hit upon a better device for securing husbands than by advertising. They lived on the banks of the Ohio river, and agreed to each set a bottle afloat containing a paper on which was written the name and a promise to marry whomsoever should find the bottle. One of the girls has married recently the man who found her bottle far down the river, the second is engaged to him who found hers at Nachez or Grand Gulf, and the third is in correspondence with the finder of hers, who also lives a great distance from the point where the bottles were launched. This is a right pretty story so far and romantic, but the business part of it comes in that all agreed to start in housekeeping with groceries bought at Sechlers, which would insure good and wholesome food, as well as cheap.

—In about the year 1900 it is the opinion of the REPORTER, there may be such improvements in travel, that you can reach New York from Centre Hall in one hours time, perhaps less, and for one fourth the fare now charged on our slow railways. We expect then to see two routes, crowded with New York travel, to the Philad. Branch clothing hall, where New York snobs, fops, and other classes will be going for their clothing, because it will pay them to do so. Greater changes than this have taken place in the last 25 or 30 years. Twenty five years hence telegraphs may be out of date and too slow, but we can not for a moment comprehend the possibility of a great want of the people like the above clothing store with Lewins as manager, going out of date.

—On Thursday 11, about 3 a. m., a burgler entered the dwelling of Mr. Alf. Spigelmyer, at Woodward. He went up stairs and passed thro' the room where the children were asleep and entered the bedchamber of the parents. Mrs. Spigelmyer hearing some one in the room, thinking it was one of the children, she spoke; this alarmed the robber, and grabbing Mr. Spigelmyer's pants and vest, he fled, but in his hurry fell first over one chair, then over another and reaching the stairs he tumbled headlong down these about 12 feet and made his escape. Next morning the pants and vest were found stuck in a millstone leaning against outside of the mill, but minus a watch. The thief's intention evidently was to get possession of the pants in which were Mr. Spigelmyer's store and safe keys, and make an easy haul, but his gymnastics over chairs and down the stairs created a little more fuss than was healthy for robbing the store.

A Snyder county man named Strickler never shaved, never swore, never voted, and never walked a mile with any other woman than his mother, in his life.

A MINING MISFORTUNE.

A Terrible Explosion of Gas at Stellarton, Canada.

Halifax, N. S., November 12.—Another accident is reported at Stellarton, where 200 miners are imprisoned under ground. Eight have been taken out in a dying condition. The mine is on fire.

Halifax, N. S., November 12.—About 6:30 this morning an explosion of gas occurred on the south side of Ford Pit at Stellarton. All the miners were at work in different bands. The explosion was so terrible as to sweep quite across to the other side of the pit, killing men and horses within reach. Almost all the men on the north side will be saved, while all at work on the south side have been lost.

At least sixty are missing. Full particulars are not yet known. Five men have been brought up and are likely to recover Probably forty are shut up with the fallen coal on the south side. The accident, it is presumed, was caused by some miner firing a shot in the forbidden part of the workings.

STARVED AT 111 YEARS.

Ellenville, N. Y., November 5.—Sarah Dempsey, aged 111 years, probably the oldest woman in the State of New York, has just been found dead in bed in her hut on the Ulster Mountains, near here. She had died from starvation and weakness. Her house was found in a terrible condition. No food of any kind was in the house. The appearance of the corpse indicated that the old lady had, from lack of proper food, become unable to get out of her bed, and had laid there until she had died of starvation.

Mrs. Dempsey had lived in this hut, miles from any habitation, for many years. She had been solitary in her habits ever since she was abandoned by a young man with whom she eloped when a girl. Beside the dead woman was found a piece of paper, on which was scrawled in pencil: "My God! I am dying by inches from hunger. My money will be found"—and there it ended.

A BIG BURGLARY.

Dallas, Texas, November 10.—Adams & Leonard's banking house was robbed of nearly $70,000 in cash and jewelry yesterday morning. An attempt to blow open a safe which contained $80,000 failed.

John Archy's barn, near Graysville, was destroyed by fire on Monday. His crops of this year, farming implements, etc., were also consumed.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.

I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters, and my wife who was always doctoring, and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some, I concluded to be humbugged again; and I am glad I did, for in less than two months use of the Bitters my wife was cured and she has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.
