Garfield has mailed nine thousand let ters in the last three months, nearly all in answer to applicants for office.

Everybody seems surprised that senator Coxe refused to take the oath. The were 65 senators who did take the oath.

If every member of the legislature had been as delicate of conscience as Coxe, there would have been 201 vacancies in the House and 65 in the Senate on 4th

In the state senate, on 4th inst., there occurred an incident which has not its parallel in this country at least, and is related under the above date as follows:
When the roll of Senators returned as elected had been called, and Judge Pearson was engaged in administering the oath of office to them, Hon. Eckley B. Coxe, of Drifton, Luzerne county, elected is a Democratify from the Twenty-first Senatorial district, arose and announced that he declined to take the oath of office, because he could not consistently down. Here all along address to his constituents, in which he says that he spent monopy for political assessments and contributions, advertising political meetings, organizing clubs and paying their expenses, paying taxes, eleck hir, naturalization, to men at the polis for work, etc. In conclusion Mr. Coxe says:

The events and processes of more than a generation have taken the control of Society and the control of Society and the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of Society more than a generation have taken the control of the masses and vested it to be lettered at the bottom of the stairs that furnished the entry of the tenants in a few entory the census of 180, is furnished by the Census of the stairs that furnished the entry of the tenants in a few entory the constitution, the result of the masses and vestory building, excepting a fire escape attached to the bottom of the stair that furnished the entry the cursus of the constitution, universal negrossis of generation and peculiar manipulation of the Government in No. 35 Madison street. It is confidently asserted from Washington that Senator Mahone of Virginia does not intend to form an alliance with the republicans, but will act with the democratic party.

In another colum will be found an article from the North American Review, upon the mission of the democratic party, from the pen of Senator Wallace. It is brief but full of sound logic. Don't fail to read it.

The Oliver boom for Senator is waning and it is thought speaker Hewitt of
