"Very likely, but what did your knowledge of the fact (that Curtin was a good enough democrat for senator) ever amount to," asks the Watchama. Why not much, perhaps; and when we tried to convince you of it by copiousestrates from your own colums, that was rejected as utterly unsound, and amounting to nothing, of which you may have been the better judge, hence, also, capable of determining why, if 8 years of Curtin's service in behalf of democrasy did not make him a good enough democrat for congress, how two years after could make him a good enough democrat for the much higher position of the senate. No matter, neighbor by what reasoning you reach this, you are on the right track as to Curtin's soundness, alther just now "seeing it."

The senator was builts distance for forty-three miles from Montandon to Springmills in Centre county.
