The smallest of the feathery herd-A puny little thing— Outsprang the tender baby-bird, To grub for worms and sing. And lo! she found an early worm

Mysterious Disappeara Come little pet," the old bird said

You must be early out of bed

If you would catch the worm.

She chirped: "Oh you may wriths and aquiru But I will gobble you!" That birdling's chirp, the rest affirm, Was never after heard.

And it's surmised it was the worm That caught the early bird. HUMOR OF THE DAY.

A crying evil-A cross baby. A backward spring—gnirps.
